JUDICIAL SCANDAL.

IMPEACH IF PROVEN.

New Charge Against Grosscup.

Federal Judge Is Accused of Violating His Oath of Office.

If Proved True, Formal Proceedings to Remove Him Will Follow.

Complaint Is That He Sat in Case in Which He Was Partisan.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Serious charges against Peter S. Grosscup of Chicago, United States judge for the Seventh Judicial Circuit, were taken cognizance of by the Supreme Court this afternoon. It is alleged that Judge Grosscup has violated his oath of office and committed other offenses, which, if proven true, will necessitate his impeachment.

The Supreme Court will hear arguments on this subject Wednesday, January 22. A petition for a special assignment of errors was presented to Justice Day of the Seventh Circuit yesterday. The petition is signed by Henry I. Radford and Charles H. Aldrich, representing a large number of stockholders in certain Chicago street railroads.

Justice Day did not care to issue a writ of supersedeas, but today asked the court to take action. His suggestion was adopted, and a date for hearing fixed.

PETITIONERS' CHARGE.

After going at length into the records of the Chicago Traction cases, the petitioners say:

"The said Circuit Court, as presided over and held by Hon. Peter S. Grosscup, circuit judge, was not legally constituted, and had no rightful jurisdiction to hear such intervention or render such decree on December 28, 1907, because the said circuit judge had actively participated in person and by receivers and agents in negotiating said city ordinance and formulating, amending and promoting such original and modified plan of reorganization, and the said circuit judge, as against the sworn challenge of the petitioners, had no lawful power to assume the bench to hear, adjudge and enforce a city ordinance and plan of reorganization largely negotiated by him, and of which he was the avowed and active partisan, even appearing by his own special counsel on the reference to his own master, and offering both oral and documentary evidence to support the intervention upon which he assumed to rule."

JUSTICE DAY'S ORDER.

The order of Justice Day follows:

"Upon consideration of this record and in view of the important questions and interests involved, I respectfully request that counsel be permitted to present this application for appeal and supersedeas to the court."

A complete statement of the charges against him, and all the facts at issue are submitted by petitioners to show that Judge Grosscup repeatedly violated his oath of office.

The petitioners are Nelson Thomason, Jr., Albert F. Weige, James Bolton, Jacob Bauer and Henry Crawford. These all claim to be registered stockholders in their own right in the West Chicago Street Railway Company, and also empowered to act as a protective committee representing other shares in the company, aggregating in value more than $250,000.

The charges against Judge Grosscup include these:

"That he refused to obey the mandate of the Superior Court issued in May, 1906, directing the Circuit Court to render a new decree in accordance with the principles of its decision in the Traction cases.

"The applications of stockholders and creditors to the Circuit Court for a new decree have either been refused or ignored.

INTERESTED IN SCHEME.

"After the reorganization of the traction company, Judge Grosscup, according to the petition, being circuit judge in charge of such administration suits, extra judicially approved and associated himself with the said scheme and has ever since, out of court and personally, advocated such scheme and actively cooperated with the promoters thereof to fully carry out their stated purpose.

"That Judge Grosscup, without any record order or entry, designated and appointed a member of the Chicago bar as special counsel for said circuit judge, to appear for and represent him and speak for him in the negotiations.

"That Judge Grosscup used the earnings of the property in his custody to pay the expenses of such special counsel.

"That Judge Grosscup presided at the final hearing in the Traction cases and his special counsel appeared before him and claimed and exercised the right of an ordinary litigant, and avowedly in behalf of said presiding judge, offered both oral and documentary evidence in support of his intervention.

"That the decree issued by Judge Grosscup constituted taking for the use and benefit of the city of Chicago of property of the West Chicago Street Railroad Company and its creditors and stockholders, without payment of just compensation, contrary to the prohibition of the fifth amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

"That the circuit judge had no jurisdiction whatever as against objecting stockholders or creditors of the West Chicago Street Railroad Company to compulsorily enforce the acceptance of a city ordinance."

If the Supreme Court should sustain the pleas set forth, no alternative would remain but his impeachment.

Assures Peking Government That Construction Will not Be Allowed to Commence—Member of Cabinet Asked "What Will You Do About It?" Replies "Stop It!"

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

TOKIO, Jan. 17.—The diplomatic relations between Japan and China over the proposed Simin Tun-Fukumen railroad, have reached a stage wherein Japan has assumed a most firm attitude and has assured China that a railroad paralleling the South Manchurian shall not be built, because it violates both the spirit and letter of the Peking treaty.

A British syndicate has proposed to build the railroad.

The correspondent of the Associated Press has been informed by the authorities at Tokio that, under no circumstances will Japan permit construction to commence.

In reply to the question: "What will you do about it?" a member of the Cabinet replied:

"We will stop it."

Italian Cobbler of East Norwalk, Ct., Gets $4000 for Pretty Girl from Bridegroom.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SOUTH NORWALK (Ct.) Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Antonio Gallo, an Italian cobbler of East Norwalk, sold his very pretty 13-year-old daughter, Theresa, as a wife to Emil Masiallo, a sewer contractor, for $4000. As the result of the father's act, the population is so incensed that there is danger of Gallo being ridden from town on a rail.

Gallo declares that his wife fixed up the deal with the bridegroom, and that he was forced to consent.

IODOFORM USED IN SNELL CASE.

LETTERS METAPHORICALLY REQUIRE FUMIGATING.

Epistles Sent by Several Women to Late Millionaire so Vile That Writers May Be Prosecuted by Postoffice Department—One from Grand Niece Is Sample.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CLINTON (Ill.) Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Aside from an extremely sensational letter from Mabelle Snell McNamara to her grand uncle, Col. Thomas Snell, the aged millionaire, whose estate of $2,500,000 will be divided if his will is broken, the chief sensation today was the presence of an agent of the government, who went over all the letters and announced that the Postoffice Department would probably prosecute Mabelle and other women for mailing obscene letters.

The defense closed its case today with the introduction of witnesses calculated to show that Col. Snell's mind was not impaired at the time he made the will.

Then the attorneys spread their nostrils and hands with fodoform and delved into the mass of letters to Col. Snell from numerous women and his replies to them. One letter from Mabelle, chosen at haphazard from the collection and expurgated vigorously, will show the tenor of all of them. With objectionable sentences eliminated, it follows:

"You Old Darling: I sent you a nice long letter Monday. . . . I did not sleep well last night, worrying because you did not write. Love me and never mistrust me. I miss you so much, and kiss your dear old picture every minute of the day, and am fairly sick for a sight of your dear old face. I keep your picture with me constantly, and when I woke up this morning I kissed it. . . . I went out riding with the doctor last night. He kissed me passionately, but I do not enjoy his kisses as much as I do yours, and I did not enjoy the trip, as I would have preferred to have had you along. I always have the best time with you. Other men do not please me at all. I love only you. I hope we can arrange to go away together soon. I won't disappoint you. I am wild about you, dear. We can go to some quiet place and have the time of our lives. I wish we could be together constantly. I love you so. Kiss me good-night, darling. Destroy this as soon as you read it.

"Your own darling babe,

[Signed] "M.

"February 8, 1904."

A letter from Col. Snell to Mabelle tells of inclosing two notes for $1000 each as his Christmas present. It is said the letters from Mrs. E. A. Hamilton, wife of a Methodist preacher, to Snell, will be excluded.

JAPAN'S VITAL ERROR.

Nationalization of Railroads Chiefly Responsible for Nation's Financial Difficulties.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

TOKIO, Jan. 17.—It is conceded among the financiers of Japan that the difficulties in the budget are entirely due to two causes, over-expenditure for the army and navy, and the nationalization of railroads, which is now considered to have been a vital error in national finance.

INDUSTRY THREATENED.

WILEY ROASTED.

Fruit Growers on Defensive.

Demand That Chief of Pure Food Bureau Prove His Contention.

Prohibition of Use of Sulphur Would Destroy Big State Industry.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 16.—That the ruling of the Department of Agriculture against the process of using sulphur fumes in the drying of fruits, if sustained, will strike a death blow to the California dried fruit industry; that the drying of fruits by artificial heat or evaporation is impracticable and impossible, in this State; that the contention of Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chief chemist of the pure food bureau in Washington, that the use of sulphur in bleaching and drying fruit is deleterious to the public health, is his own conclusion not suported by facts, and challenging him to produce evidence on pain of appealing to the Federal courts to set aside ruling No. 76 of the pure food inspection bureau, were the tenor and sentiments of speeches and resolutions at the State convention of California Fruit Growers held in the rooms of the State Board of Trade in the Ferry building today, for the purpose of considering the question which the government has forced upon the fruit growers of this State.

Incidentally, Dr. Wiley of "poison squad" fame and Secretary Wilson, of the Agricultural Department, came in for some caustic criticism. The former's inspections were ridiculed by some speakers and declared to be inconclusive, while the latter was said to be "as much of a diplomat as a secretary" in failing to give the growers some idea of what the department's policy will be this year with reference to the continuation of the present suspension of the rule pending further investigation of the matter, or whether it will be reinvoked.

COMMITTEE TO PROTEST.

A committee consisting of W. H. Brailsford of Kings county, B. E. Hutchinson of Fresno county, Col. C. C. Royce of Chico, George W. Pierce of Daviaville, Judge J. C. Daly of Ventura, E. D. Petitt of San José and Arthur R. Briggs, president of the State Board of Trade, as delegate-at-large, were named by the convention as representing the five fruit-growing districts of the State, to proceed to Washington to protest against, and if possible, secure from the Department of Agriculture a modification of the ruling.

To this delegation will be added a delegate from the northern counties, who will be selected next Monday. The committee will leave for Washington as soon as practicable.

Arthur R. Briggs was elected chairman and A. L. McDonald secretary of the convention when it convened this morning. About 150 delegates, representing all the fruit-growing counties in the State, were in attendance.

The entire morning session was taken up with a general discussion of the question, the effects of the department's ruling on the fruit growing interests of this State, the statements of growers who had tried artificial drying without sulphur, which was declared to be an utter failure, impractical and impossible, and with the consideration of a motion of Judge M. P. Chapman, calling for the appointment of a committee to consider the various suggestions and resolutions, and report some plan. Judge Chapman was made chairman of this committee.

DR. WILEY DEFENDED.

Prof. M. E. Jaffa, State director of the pure food laboratory at the University of California, defended Dr. Wiley, and his experiments, pointed out the vast number and great difficulty of such experiments to reach the exact truth in the matter, and counselled patience until the experts brought to California by Secretary Wilson some time ago to make an investigation, had concluded their work and made their reports, which he said would probably be in February or March.

R. R. Sutherland of San Bernardino presented a resolution declaring that Dr. Wiley's ruling was "his own conclusion, unsupported by facts," challenging Dr. Wiley "to produce evidence that will show any ill results to health from eating fruits dried by the sulphur process," and urging that, unless modified, "action be brought in the Federal courts against the Department of Agriculture for damages sustained by the dried fruit interests of the State."

This, with various resolutions from boards of trade and fruit growers' associations in different parts of the State were referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

When the convention reconvened in the afternoon, the following report, in part, from the committee named in the morning, was read and unanimously adopted:

"Any rule established by the general government which may compel our fruit growers to abandon present methods of curing our dried fruits, would result in the practical destruction of the industry, not only to the irreparable injury of the producer, but to the great loss of the consumer.

"There are many thousands of growers engaged in the business in all parts of the State, whose sole means of living, for themselves and families, is the marketing of their fruits in the dried form. The annual shipments out of the State of fruits dried by the sun's heat, after having first been subjected to the fumes of burning sulphur, amount to over $16,000,000.

"We, therefore, firmly protest against any interference on the part of the government with the industry as now conducted, unless upon competent evidence, showing the product under present methods to be injurious to the public health, and we insist that the experiments aiming to demonstrate the wholesomeness or unwholesomeness of the product be made with a view to determine its condition when properly prepared for consumption, and we view any experiments as unsatisfactory which deal with the question from the standpoint of the conditions of the fruit at any earlier stage."

The report recommended that a committee go to Washington to represent the fruit growers of California in the matter, and that the committee consist of one delegate from each of the five fruit-growing districts—Southern California, San Joaquin and Sacramento valleys, North Bay and South Coast counties, and as many more delegates as the respective districts wanted to pay the expenses of.

The convention adopted and acted upon these recommendations, and then adjourned, subject to the call of the chairman.

EQUAL TO EMERGENCY.

Court Measures Venus de Milo to Decide Tailor's Suit.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ATLANTA (Ga.) Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Court of Appeals was today asked to decide what should constitute the proper proportion between the female bust and hip, the question being brought before court as a result of a suit entered in the Superior Court by H. J. Weiler, a Cincinnati tailor, against an Atlanta woman, whose name does not appear in the decision.

The firm had received from the woman a Persian lambskin coat, with instructions that it be cut forty inches in the hips and thirty-eight in the bust. The tailor enlarged the hip measurement to forty-three inches. The owner then refused to pay. Following a measurement of the proportions of Venus de Milo, the court handed down a decision today favoring the tailor.

CURRENCY.

PERFECTING THE ALDRICH BILL.

IMPORTANT AMENDMENTS FAVORED BY COMMITTEE.

Proposed That Amount of Emergency Currency Which May Be Issued Shall Be Fixed at Five Hundred Millions—Clear Sailing Predicted in Both Houses.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Senate Committee on Finance was in session a greater part of the afternoon considering pending currency legislation. The committee reached a tentative agreement that provisions should be made for the issue of emergency currency to the amount of $500,000,000.

It was also agreed that a proposition should be made for the acceptance of railroad bonds for the issuance of currency up to the extent of 75 per cent. of their value.

It is quite probable that a change will be made in the Aldrich bill as it now exists in reference to municipal bonds. The bill now provides that the bonds of cities of a population of more than 20,000 population may be accepted. The change will permit the acceptance of bonds of all cities.

There is another plan under consideration to make the tax progressive. The bill as it now stands provides for a tax of 6 per cent. The proposed amendment, if adopted, provides a maximum tax of 10 per cent., the tax to be regulated according to the class of the securities.

The members of the committee feel that they are progressing rapidly in their work, and that they will have a first-class currency bill ready for the consideration of the Senate in a very short time. Although the Democrats are expected to do considerable talking when the bill is reported out, it is generally conceded that they will offer no serious opposition, and will lend their assistance toward securing some beneficial legislation along the lines proposed in the so-called Aldrich bill, which is really a committee bill to be agreed upon by both the Republicans and Democrats of the Finance Committee.

Once the bill is passed by the Senate, it will go through the House without any trouble. This has been arranged with the leaders of the House, who will frustrate any efforts on the part of ambitious members of the House Committee on Banking and Currency or the minority to mutilate the bill and render it useless.

VALEDICTORY.

NEW JOB IS OPEN.

Cortelyou Expected to Accept.

To Leave Cabinet as Soon as Knickerbocker Is Reorganized.

Secretary Is Busy Revising Statement Demanded by Senate.

Said to Be Clearing Desk Preparatory to Closing It Finally.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The World this morning says: "George B. Cortelyou, Secretary of the Treasury, will accept the presidency of the Knickerbocker Trust Company, if the hopes of the Satterlee reorganization committee are realized. In spite of denials from interested quarters, this was learned today beyond the possibility of doubt. Mr. Cortelyou will leave the Cabinet at the first available moment after the reorganization plan is carried into effect.

"The only stumbling block in the carrying out of the plan lies in the possibility that the requisite number of consents from depositors will not be obtained by the Satterlee committee. It is not likely that this will have been accomplished within the next forty-eight hours, all that remains of the time allotted to the committee to perfect its plans; but, when an appeal is made to Supreme Court Justice Clarke Saturday morning for a short extension of time, it is believed that it will readily be granted.

"Good news for the reorganization committee today was a decision by Surrogate Thomas that executors of estates having deposits in the Knickerbocker Trust Company may join the committee's plans in opposition to a permanent receivership. The decision was rendered in the case of an estate in process of settlement. Eight other estates having large deposits in the trust company are covered by the decision and the executors of all of them are expected to apply for similar orders from the Surrogate tomorrow."

CORTELYOU NOT TALKING.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Secretary Cortelyou of the Treasury Department declined today to say what answer he had made to the Knickerbocker Trust Company's offer of the presidency or whether he had made answer. The Secretary has abandoned the policy of denial, and is now devoting his time to clearing his desk, preparatory to closing it permanently.

The pricipal duty is to deliver to the Senate information which it demanded December 12 on what the Treasury Department had done to relieve the financial stringency, and which Senator Aldrich, the financial leader of the Senate majority, who had introduced the resolution, insisted that he must have.

As a matter of fact, all the information that the Senate desired had been prepared by the acting secretary, and was ready to go to the Senate last Monday. But Mr. Cortelyou did not like the explanation, and wished to make one in his own words. He has been going through the data to write his own interpretation of the action taken by the department. The Secretary of the Treasury's statement will be in the nature of a valedictory.

NO MYSTERY, SAYS JAPAN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

TOKIO, Jan. 17.—The Foreign Office is in receipt of a dispatch from Washington pointing out that there is much uneasiness in America in consequence of sensational reports emanating from Europe concerning the distribution of the Japanese naval fleet.

While not inclined to treat the matter seriously, the Japanese officials have assured the Associated Press that the governments of the various countries are in possession of all the facts connected with Japan's distribution of her warships, through their naval attaches at Tokio.

COMING HOME TO LIVE.

Mme. Anna Gould's Friends Delighted to Hear She Will Sell All Property in France.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Anna Gould's friends were surprised and happy today when they read a cablegram from Paris, saying the divorced wife of Count Boni de Castellane would sell all her property in France and fix her permanent residence in America.

In selling her real estate in France, Mme. Gould will almost certainly be forced to sacrifice it at a price far below its value. Over $3,000,000 has been spent upon the project, and it has not been finished. It is declared that one fireplace alone cost $50,000, and it is said that the carved balustrades, the newel posts of silvered bronze, the elaborate floors, inlaid with woods of the rarest kind, could not be duplicated under a fortune. The very leather work is said to have cost $175,000.

CHANGE OF PROGRAMME.

EVELYN THAW TO TAKE STAND.

Expected to Begin Recital of Her Story Today.

Decision Reached by Counsel at Night Conference.

More Testimony as to Defendant's Irrationality.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Evelyn Nesbit Thaw will go on the witness stand tomorrow morning at the resumption of the trial of her husband, Harry Thaw, for the killing of Stanford White. She will tell again to the jury the dramatic story of her wrongs, knowledge of which, the defense asserts, fired the irrational brain of Thaw with the thought of murder and led him to wreck vengeance on the body of White.

The decision to place Thaw's wife on the stand first instead of his mother, as had been planned, was reached tonight after a conference of the counsel for the defense, and was due to the fact that the line of evidence which has thus far been pursued has been broken by inability to get witnesses here on time.

The non-arrival of these witnesses who are hurrying to New York caused the abandonment of the afternoon session today and cut the morning session down to less than two hours.

JEROME CROSS-EXAMINES.

August Weber, the former Thaw butler, who yesterday testified to various incidents in the life of Harry K. Thaw, during the early part of 1906, was recalled to the witness stand when the Thaw trial opened today. He was asked by Mr. Littleton of the defense if Thaw's actions as he observed them while employed in the Washington and Pittsburgh houses, impressed him as rational or irrational.

"Irrational," replied the witness promptly.

Dist.-Atty. Jerome then began his cross-examination. He had the witness repeat several of the incidents he related yesterday afternoon, and was asked if he considered a $5 tip from Thaw an irrational act.

"It seemed queer for what I did," said the witness.

The witness declared that Thaw was not dissipating and seemed healthy when he knew him, but always was nervous and excitable.

Christopher Baggan, steward of the New York Whist Club, was recalled to give the dates of Thaw's visits to the club in 1904, 1905 and 1906. Mr. Jerome brought out from the witness the fat that he was able on each of these occasions to play bridge whist with the best players in the club.

Raymond A. Brown, music publisher and eyewitness of the Stanford White shooting, was called and testified to Thaw's irrational appearance on the roof garden.

Brown said he knew Thaw personally, and spoke to him during an intermission in the performance, but could not get a coherent reply.

"Did you ever try to get a coherent reply from any other man twenty minutes before he took the life of a fellow human being?" asked Jerome.

"No," replied the witness.

"That's all."

THAW A SULLEN BOY.

Abraham R. Beck of Lancaster county, Pa., uncle of former Asst. Atty.-Gen. Charles B. Beck, was called as the next witness. He said that Harry Thaw was one of fifteen boys in his school in 1881 and 1882. The memory of the boy's habits had always lived with him, the witness said.

"The boy was excessively nervous," said Mr. Beck, "and was very unsociable and sullen and abstracted. His eyes were most striking. One of the principal things I remember about young Thaw was the spasmodic and startling outbursts of animal-like howls. These howls would stop as suddenly as the turning of a fountain."

Mr. Beck identified a letter he had received from Mrs. William Thaw, the mother of Harry, about the boy's conduct at school, and it was read to the jury. The letter was dated October 25, 1881.

It was in reply to a communication from Mr. Beck complaining of Harry's conduct, and speaks of the distress the letter caused the parent.

"Cannot you bear with him a while longer," the letter from Mrs. Thaw reads. "To yield to his wishes now and to send him home, I am afraid might ruin him. I begin to fear that his conduct and his outbursts are not all the results of temper and rebellion, but perhaps his mind is more or less unbalanced."

Mr. Beck said he had had many years of experience in teaching and training boys, but Thaw's conduct was different from any he had ever known. "I could not help but think him irrational," declared the witness.

WHITE'S THREAT.

Benjamin Bonan, formerly stage director at the Metropolitan Theater, testified that Evelyn Nesbit, Christmas evening, 1905, was appearing in "A Girl From Dixie." He appeared at the first trial, and testified that, after Thaw had called at the theater and taken the girl away, Stanford White arrived. When he found that Miss Nesbit had gone away, the witness said White displayed a pistol, and vowed he would kill "the Pittsburgher" before morning.

This testimony was repeated today. Bonan said he communicated the threat to Thaw. At the afternoon session, Mr. Littleton announced that some of his most important witnesses, en route here by steamer and train, had failed to arrive, and asked for an adjournment until morning. Jerome did not oppose the motion for adjournment, and it was granted.

DOGS TRAINED FOR POLICE.

Four Intelligent Canines Will Soon Be Placed on the New York Force.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—The three Belgian hounds and the American Airedale, which have been for some time undergoing training in the duties of policemen, have about finished their education, and within a few days they will be put on posts in the outlying districts.

They are taught to obey implicitly any man in a police uniform, but to have nothing to do with an ununiformed man. They will answer to a police whistle, will go to the aid of a policeman attacked and run down any man who attempts to run away from a policeman. They have been taught to seize by the legs the man whom they are after, throwing him and keeping guard over him until a uniformed policeman arrives.

WALSH JURORS CANNOT AGREE.

AFTER TWELVE HOURS' DELIBERATION THEY GO TO BED.

Failure to Promptly Reach a Verdict Gives Rise to Prophecy That There Will Be a Mistrial—Court Will Insist on Earnest Effort to Come to Conclusion.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Jan. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] At 3 o'clock this morning, after a twelve-hour session, the jury in the Walsh case had failed to reach a verdict. This was taken as a prophecy that the twelve men who hold in their hands the fate of John R. Walsh, once one of Chicago's kings of finance, would never be able to agree on the question of his guilt or innocence, and that a new trial would have to be ordered.

It was conceded, however, that, if the jury should go before Judge Anderson, in the United States District Court at 10 o'clock this morning, and assert that they had failed to reach a verdict, the court would send them back to the jury-room for still further deliberation, rather than sacrifice all results in the trial, which has lasted for more than nine weeks.

John R. Walsh himself retired some time before midnight, in ignorance of the possible result of the trial. At 10:30 o'clock in the evening, his lawyers told him there was no chance for a verdict and he went home.

JAPAN HAS DEFICIENCY.

Taxes Will Be Increased to Meet Expenses of Government During Coming Fiscal Year.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

TOKIO, Jan. 17.—A synopsis of the budget for 1908-1909 was submitted to the leaders of both houses this morning. It is as follows:

Ordinary receipts, 470,590,000 yen; extraordinary receipts 140,450,000 yen. Ordinary expenditures, 426,910,000 yen; extraordinary expenditures, 189,040,000 yen.

The deficiency will be met by an increase of taxes which will be submitted in a supplementary budget. A note by the minister of finance says:

"The government expects at the close of the year 1907-1908 to find a surplus of 25,000,000 yen which will be transferred to the account of 1909-10."

The appropriations are itemized as follows:

Ordinary, army 70,209,779 yen; navy, 34,810,737 yen; home, 10,639,221 yen; foreign, 3,612,607 yen; finance, 254,307,432 yen; judicial, 10,977,966 yen; education, 6,285,534 yen; agriculture and commerce, 7,504,867 yen; communications, 25,687,949 yen; civil, 2,000,000 yen.

Extraordinary, army, 37,206,994 yen; navy, 46,138,124 yen; communications, 59,279,929 yen. The remainder of the extraordinary appropriations are distributed among other departments.

Extraordinary, loans, 41,071,116 yen; warship fund, 10,939,586 yen; temporary loan, 1,768,000 yen; brought forward from the previous year, 72,224,125 yen; sundries, 14,452,161 yen.

The budget provides for an increase of the taxes on sake, beer, alcohol, sugar, and kerosene. The sugar tax shows an increase of four standards and averages about 40 per cent. The amount which it is expected to raise by the increase will be submitted in a supplementary budget.

EXPENSIVE PENCHANT.

SON REMEMBERED ONLY IN CODICIL.

WILLIAM RHINELANDER'S WILL FILED FOR PROBATE.

William C. Gets Only $5000 a Year Out of $50,000,000 Estate Because of His Penchant for Marrying Servant Girls—Will Get Nothing if He Isn't Good.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The will of William Rhinelander, who died on January 3 was filed for probate in the Surrogate's court today by Bowers and Sands, counsel for the executors. The petition states that the estate is valued at more than $10,000,000 both real and personal property. It is generally supposed to be worth about $50,000,000 and may run over that sum.

After making bequests to various charitable institutions and providing for dependent relatives, the will leaves the residue absolutely to his two sons, T. J. Oakley Rhinelander and Philip Rhinelander. No mention is made in the will proper, it is said, as none was made in the obituary notices furnished, to his other son, William Copeland Rhinelander, whose estrangement from his family dates from 1876, when his elopement with a servant of his father's household was the cause of his being cut off with an allowance and disowned as a member of one of the proudest and oldest families of New York.

A codicil, however, dated February 15, 1896, leaves to this son, W. C. Rhinelander, $5000 per annum during his life, to be paid to him in quarterly payments. The executors are instructed to apply this sum to the maintenance and support of "my said son and for such purposes only and, if at any time, by the action of any creditor, it shall be adjudged that the whole or any part of the said income is not necessary for his use, maintenance and support, then I direct that the bequest in his favor shall abate to the extent to which it shall be determined the same is not necessary for his use, maintenance and support."

This bequest is not to be charged to the real estate but the trustees may set aside $130,000, the income to go to the son. If the son contests either the will or any codicil or in any way interferes with the administration of the estate, then the income shall cease and the estate be entirely free from the annual charge.

Once before he was cut off on account of a youthful escapade. His grandfather, also William C. Rhinelander, who died in 1878, had made a will leaving $1,000,000 to his namesake and grandson. When the young man "married beneath him," as the family phrased it, the grandfather changed his will and left him nothing. The grandson did not contest that will—will contests were not so common then as they are today—but on several occasions during the next twenty years he came prominently into public notice.

In 1884 he shot John Drake, his father's attorney, in a quarrel over what he asserted were efforts to get his wife to leave him. The case was a celebrated one of its time. Efforts were made to send Rhinelander to an insane asylum, but he defeated them, although a commission declared him insane. Mr. Drake did not press the charge of assault, and Rhinelander dropped out of notice.

Rhinelander again sprang into prominence thirteen years later by secretly marrying a young woman who had been a waitress in a Twenty-third street restaurant.

At intervals his scheme for breeding pure white horses attracted attention and he varied the monotony of current events by being arrested in New Jersey on a charge of grand larceny, and again by the connection of his name with the disappearance of a young woman in whom he was said to have been interested.

KENTUCKY DEADLOCK.

FRANKFORT (Ky.) Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The sensational deadlock remains unbroken. The only ballot taken in joint session today resulted: Beckham (Dem.), 66; Bradley (Rep.), 64; scattering, 4; absent, 3. No change in the voting is expected before next week.

POLITICAL.

HUGHES LOSES INDORSEMENT.

Again Defeated in New York County Committee.

Meeting Becomes Very Turbulent and Noisy.

Majority of Governor's Opponents for Taft.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] By a vote of 302 to 232, in the most hotly contested and turbulent fight in its history, the Republican County Committee, succeeded a second time tonight in blocking action on the resolution indorsing Gov. Hughes for the presidential nomination.

Twenty district leaders united to oppose action on the Hughes resolution. Everything possible was done to prevent discussion of the resolution and only by an unexpected parliamentary coup, conceived by Senator Martin Saxe and executed by Senator Alfred R. Page were the Hughes men able to get a chance to be heard.

The meeting became exceedingly noisy and turbulent as the speakers began to indulge in personalities. There were wild cheers and shouts for Gov. Hughes and still wilder and louder cheers for William H. Taft. The Parsons-Taft men cheered repeatedly for President Roosevelt. The cheering and counter-cheering became so noisy and disorderly at one time that the Hughes and Taft men began to hiss at one another.

The committeer met in Lyric Hall, and admission was by ticket only. Two men stood at the door and saw that no one not a member was allowed to get inside.

The hall was jammed an hour before President Parsons called the meeting to order. Senator Page, who assumed the generalship of the Hughes forces, took a seat in the front row, directly facing the chairman, and with him sat Abe Gruber, William Halpin, Harry W. Hack, Edward Lauterbach and James S. Lehmaier, the latter the head of the Republican Club's Committee which is advocating Gov. Hughes.

It was clear that the old Odell following, practically intact, was lined up to vote for the Hughes resolution. It had been carefully planned by Chairman Parsons that there should be no open discussion of the resolution, and that it should be quietly put to sleep without any noise or violence. At the meeting of the Executive Committee in the afternoon he had put through a resolution that immediately after the regular order of business at the night session a motion to adjourn should be entertained. This was to shut off the Hughes resolution, which was postponed a month ago and made a special order for tonight.

On the vote in the Executive Committee in the afternoon Parsons won by a vote of leaders which forecasted his victory at night by a vote of 442 to 267.

The majority of those voting against Hughes are said to be for Taft.

ARMISTICE ARRANGED.

Peace Terms Between Taft and Foraker Forces in Cuyahoga County Practically Agreed Upon.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CLEVELAND (O.) Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Peace terms between the Taft men and the leaders of the Foraker forces in Cuyahoga county were practically arranged today by Walter F. Brown, chairman of the State Central Committee, in conference with Senator Dick.

Unless some serious and unexpected hitch occurs before Friday, the tri-committee war in Cleveland will be at an end. The division of the county into districts was the mooted point between Brown and the Forakerites.

Brown accepted the proposition of the opponents of Taft that the county be divided, for primary purposes, into three districts, the first district to be the east side of the river within the city limits, the second the west side, and the third the outlying townships.

STATE-WIDE MOVEMENT TAKES DEFINITE SHAPE.

Resolutions Adopted at Dallas Convention to Make an Issue in Legislative Elections This Year for a Constitutional Amendment—To Be Submitted in 1909.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DALLAS (Tex.) Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A campaign for State-wide prohibition in Texas took definite form today at a convention in Dallas, of more than 100 representatives of the Anti-Saloon League, the Texas Local Option Association, the Texas Prohibition party and other temperance organizations.

Most of the representatives are prominent in Democratic politics. Resolutions were adopted to make an issue in the legislative elections this year that a prohibition amendment to the Constitution be submitted to a vote of the people in 1909.

It was also determined to take advantage of the provision of the new State election law that, if 10 per cent. of the vote cast in the party primaries two years ago petitioned a State Committee to submit any legislative proposition to a vote of the party, it must be done. Such a petition is to be presented to the State Democratic Committee when it meets in June to arrange for the State Democratic primaries to be held July 25. The proposition will be to instruct the Legislature for or against submitting a constitutional amendment in 1909.

After appointing various campaign committees, the convention adjourned subject to call of chairman. The name adopted is the Texas State Prohibition Federation.

REVOLUTION IS STARTED.

Expedition Composed of Haytians Who Have Been in Exile Land and Occupy a Town.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PORT AU PRINCE (Hayti) Jan. 16. The first actual operation of a revolutionary movement against the present government of Hayti took place yesterday, and so far has been successful.

An expedition composed of Haytians who have been in exile under the command of Jean Juneau effected a landing not far from Gonaives, sixty-five miles northwest of here, and occupied that town.

The revolutionary force occupied St. Marc, seventy miles from Gonaives, and are now marching on Port Au Prince.

The Haytien government has dispatched troops to Arcahaie, twenty miles northwest of the capital, under command of General Cyriaque, Minister of War, for the purpose of checking the advance of the revolutionists. There is no excitement in the capital.

President Nord has issued a proclamation calling upon the people to support the government in the most vigorous manner. The movement does not appear to have been successful in any of the towns, it is reported, which it has entered, and it is believed it will be easily suppressed.

It is reported that Gen. Antoine Simon, commander of the Haytien army, has been shot by the government, but the report lacks confirmation.

WOOL GROWERS TO WAGE WAR.

Fight Administration Policy as to Public Range.

Big Fund for Establishing Publicity Bureau.

Report of Resolution Committee Considered Mild.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

ELKO (Nev.) Jan. 16.—After the most successful meeting in the history of the organization, the forty-fourth annual convention of the National Woolgrowers' Association tonight adjourned to meet next year in Pocatello, Idaho.

Before adjourning, a fund of $10,000 was subscribed by the various State associations for the establishment of a publicity bureau to wage a fight against the administration's policy of government regulation of the public range. Despite the fact that he was elected president of the association by a unanimous vote, Dr. J. M. Wilson of Sheridan, Wyo., declined to accept because of his personal and political opposition for Senator F. E. Warren, to whose reelection refused to consider the matter because he has gone on record as favoring the forestry and land policies of President Roosevelt. Dr. Wilson's declination of the presidency of Senator Warren's successor were elected as follows: Fred W. Gooding of Idaho, president. J. M. Wilson of Wyoming, vice-president. Thomas Irving of Ohio, eastern vice-president. Walker of Wyoming, secretary. Frank Powell of Montana, treasurer. The members of the Executive Committee are Robert Adams, F. W. Perkins and Thomas Rickey, California; L. W. C. Beckwith and George L. McCoy.

TEST RESOLVE.

The resolution adopted the report of the Committee on Resolutions. The latter was more drastic than had been anticipated by the delegates.

It contains a protest against the passage of the Burkett Grazing Bill or any measure providing for the leasing of the public lands or the issuance of permits for the use of the land for grazing purposes. They favor the most vigorous enforcement of the present laws to prevent and punish trespassing.

The resolutions unqualifiedly favor the retention of the public forests and the creation of forest reserves when necessary, giving approval to the principle of imposing the burden of forest preservation upon the live-stock industry.

They favor elimination from the reserves of lands not timbered, and the final settlement of boundaries is sought.

GRAZING PERMITS.

The grazing tax is levied, the resolutions demand that permits be granted to justify the making of improvements. It is alleged that the present restrictions are too burdensome, hampering mining and homeseeking interests.

They favor allowing a trailing permit to reserves from which sheep have been removed.

They favor a tariff on wool and hides only. The resolutions favor game laws, and ask the co-operation to cooperate in exterminating predatory animals. The work of the Bureau of Animal Industry is approved and the desire expressed that the work be continued in the West.

The resolutions petitioned to enact a law requiring interstate railroads to furnish stock between feeding points a speed of not less than fifteen miles an hour, including all stops. The Interstate Live-stock commission is informed.

PROTECTION.

FEDERAL SENT TO PRESIDENT.

LEGISLATURE ADOPTS PETITION.

Governor Sparks's Chief, Executive to Remain With Troops at Goldfield Until Lawmakers Can Devise Means of Coping With the Situation.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

CARSON CITY (Nev.) Jan. 16.—Each House of the Legislature today unanimously adopted a resolution, petitioning the President to maintain troops in Goldfield and the Legislature can, by the passage of a law, provide either for the control of police or some other means of preserving the peace. The resolution passed at the morning session of the Senate, which then adjourned until tomorrow.

Shortly this morning there was a change in the way of legislation. The body was waiting upon the Governor in relation to its action on the resolution asking for Federal aid, and the settlement of affairs by the troops.

Governor Sparks of Washoe, by request, explained the action of the special committee in drawing the resolution. He said that while members from the Governor or the Mine Owners' Association might not be asked or although not mentioned by the committee, yet they would welcome any suggestion of citizens of Goldfield or any body of citizens for consideration by the committee in the form of a bill or measure bearing upon the subject of constabulary or militia. This rule was suggested by Mr. Syphus and supported by Senator Stewart of Esmeralda county, a member of the Western Federation. He denied that it was a "gag rule," but would like to get and bring the matter to a definite issue. It was his belief that the special committee was to handle the question and make a standing committee.

After a session of the Assembly which passed the resolution petitioning the President without a negative vote and without an argument on the merits of the measure, Speaker Sparks was at the Speaker's desk when word came into the hall he was wanted at the telephone. Speaker Sparks informed the Governor that the resolution to request troops to Nevada, and Speaker Pro Tem Stewart put the motion before the House. Before the call to vote on the measure Speaker Sparks excused himself at roll call, stating that he was receiving congratulations from both parties since the passage of the bill.

There was a meeting of the joint committee this afternoon in reference to taking up a measure for policing the State. It is likely that this measure will be introduced by Monday. The Assembly adjourned until tomorrow.

At a meeting of the special committee of the two houses this afternoon a resolution was adopted, which will be presented in both houses tomorrow, placing the time limit on all bills relative to the Goldfield situation to Monday at 2 o'clock p.m. Up to that period any citizen may frame a bill or any union or body of men may present a bill or formula that they believe will be in the interest of the State, solving the Goldfield problem. The joint committee will consider all such measures that will be introduced.

It is conceded that the bill will take the form of a State warden measure, such as is used in Pennsylvania, or on that line.

Under the ruling of the joint committee it will be impossible to present any measure before next Monday, and it will be impossible to pass any law before the latter part of next week.

Word was telegraphed to President Roosevelt stating that a resolution requesting the retention of the troops in Goldfield had passed both houses. This cannot be in force until some time tomorrow, as the bill will have to be enrolled and signed by the Governor.

Considerable comment is heard on Speaker Skaggs's action in absenting himself when the joint resolution was voted upon in the House. The members of the Western Federation, O'Brien and Fitzpatrick, refused to vote, this being the only opposition to the bill.

It is said both houses will adjourn tomorrow until Monday.

SANTA FE (N. M.) Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] As a result of a fire started by them for the purpose of burning a hole large enough for them to crawl through, R. B. Nesbitt, Jr., and Cecil Whitlock, two prisoners in the County Jail at Estancia, Torrance county, were burned to death early today.

The victims, who were sons of highly-respected families at Estancia, were arrested late last night, while engaged in shooting up the town while on a spree by Deputy Sheriff Nesbitt, brother of one of the victims. It is presumed the young men, upon awakening this morning, and finding themselves in jail, sought to escape in order to avoid disgrace, but the fire got beyond their control, and they were suffocated and the bodies were cremated before assistance arrived.

Nesbitt returned but a short time ago from the Philippines, where he served in the army, and was honorably discharged. He was a son of Judge R. G. Nesbitt. Whitlock's father is a wealthy ranchman.

The tragedy has aroused the people of Estancia, and a determined movement has been started to close every saloon in town permanently. Today's horror adds to a series of crimes committed there recently, and in each instance the principals were under the influence of liquor.

TANSEY JURY DISAGREES.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 16.—The jury in the case of John J. Tansey, who has been tried for the murder of Policeman Edward J. McCarthy, on September 3, after deliberating since midnight Wednesday, failed to agree on a verdict, and was discharged by Judge Cook tonight.

This morning the jury stood six for conviction nad six for acquittal, but during the day five of the jurors went over to the side of those who stood for conviction, making the vote 11 to 1.

Policeman McCarthy was shot to death during an altercation with Tansey, after he had ordered Tansey to go to his home.

After the failure of the jury to agree had been announced, the Assistant District Attorney made open charges that B. Cotton, the member who stood out for acquittal, had been tampered with, and threatened to cause his arrest. Mr. Cotton who is a merchant, stoutly denied that he had been approached on behalf of the accused man, and stated that he stood out for acquittal to the last because he believed the charge had not been proven.

The District Attorney announces the case will be retried at once.

WORRY CAUSES INSANITY.

General Manager of Long Beach-Arizona Mining Company Is Raving Maniac at Prescott.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

PRESCOTT (Ariz.) Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] T. H. Brown, general manager of the Long Beach-Arizona Mining Company, is confined at a local hospital, a raving maniac, with no hope held out by the attending physicians for his recovery. His wife arrived here yesterday from Long Beach to nurse him.

Brown first showed signs of mental weakness when the affairs of the company became decidedly mixed, and F. E. Jordan, the president, came from Long Beach to straighten out matters. Since then Brown has grown steadily worse, until his death is now said to be only a matter of hours.

Word reached here today of the death of Frank Vickers in the shaft of the May mine, near Bluebell, Wednesday night, by being struck on the back of the neck by a falling foot valve from a pump. Vickers was at work in the bottom of the shaft. The pump was being hoisted to the top, when in some manner, the foot valve came loose, falling a distance of 100 feet, and striking Vickers with such force as to cause instant death.

Two Highwaymen and Burglars Confess to Bold Work in San Jose.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SAN JOSE, Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The responsibility for several bold crimes, which puzzled the local police department was fixed today by confessions secured from Harry Baker and Fred Watten, highwaymen, who were caught Tuesday night.

Both men were armed and masked. Jewelry and scores of skeleton keys were found on them.

Today Harry Newhall identified some of the loot in the robbers' possession as having been taken from his place on the night of January 11. J. M. Carter, whose house was burglarized December 31, claimed a stick pin which one of the robbers wore, and other jewelry from the Carter residence has been located in Oakland. E. A. Totten of East San José has identified the prisoners as the men who held him up Monday night.

GRAFT PROSECUTION.

LANGDON RACKS HIS THINKTANK.

TRIES TO THINK OF SCHEME TO GIVE RUEF IMMUNITY.

Prosecutor Confers With Attorneys in Endeavor to Devise Some Plan to Meet the Demands of the Self-Confessed Grafter, but His Efforts Thus Far Are Unsuccessful.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The District Attorney spent a busy day among attorneys who have been identified with the prosecution in an attempt, it is said, to devise some method whereby immunity may be granted to Ruef without the formality of a judge's signature to the contract, a formality that Ruef insists on.

It is said, however, that these efforts of the District Attorney were unsuccessful.

Ruef waited at the County Jail today, momentarily expecting to hear from Langdon. The preceding day he was in the city without an order of court, but the officers of the jail refused to permit his liberty in the future, unless his presence is demanded in court to answer the calling of a case. It was suggested yesterday by an attorney that Ruef might obtain immunity without the consent of the trial judges by submitting to trial with an understanding on the part of the District Attorney that the prosecution of the case should be perfunctory and lacking the vigor essential to a conviction. The character of such a prosecution would be obvious, however, and might result in intervention on the part of the Attorney-General.

If Ruef is to be prosecuted at all, the fact could not be elicited from the District Attorney's office.

To the question when he expects to get out on bail, Ruef replies that the cells are too short. When asked when he expects to hold the next conference with the District Attorney, he says the air space is less than that required by city ordinance. In reply to a question regarding any of his future plans, Ruef says the sanitary conditions out at the bastile are insufferable.

This is the way Ruef "stalls," and the impression is growing that if he proves no better witness for the prosecution that he does for his interviewers, he might as well be sent to San Quentin today.

HEBBARD LOSES HIS WIFE.

Interlocutory Decree of Divorce Is Granted Spouse of San Francisco Jurist.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Martha Hebbard was granted an interlocutory decre of divorce from Superior Judge J. C. B. Hebbard by Judge Cook last Monday.

Unusual efforts were made to keep the fact secret, but without avail. A sealed complaint was filed January 9, which was answered by the judge, but practically no defense was made.

Mrs. Hebbard testified that her husband left her in November, 1906, and had contributed nothing to her support since. She said he left without cause, and that she had been compelled to support herself since that time.

Although the bar association has taken up and discussed Hebbard's case, nothing has yet been done to impeach him, although all lawyers know he is not competent to preside in court because of frequent intoxication.

TONGS AT WAR.

ANOTHER CHINK SLAIN.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

OAKLAND, Jan. 16.—The Chinese tong war between the Bin Kongs and Hop Sings resulted in another murder this morning. Chan Kee, a fish merchant, a member of the Hop Sing Tong and officer of the Chinese Free Mason Lodge, was shot six times and instantly killed at Fourth and Washington streets. The murderer, Wong Tip, who would only state that he was a Bin Kong partisan, made no attempt to escape. The shooting was on a crowded street and a panic followed. The police however, have extra patrols all through town, but more trouble is expected.

This is a part of the feud which resulted in last night's shooting in Sacramento, and the recent killing of Wong Foo, in Webster street, San Francisco.

BIAS IS ALLEGED.

TREADWELL MAKES PLEA.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 16.—When the case of James Treadwell, a former director of the California Safe Deposit and Trust Company, accused of embezzlement, was called in Judge Dunne's court this morning, his attorney, L. F. Byington, moved to set aside the indictment on the ground of bias on the part of the members of the grand jury.

The judge took the matter under advisement and the case was continued until next Wednesday.

SEEKS VINDICATION.

JUDGE IN ELECTION FIGHT.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

REDDING, Jan. 16.—Judge George W. Bush of the Superior Court has petitioned the Supreme Court for a rehearing in his election contest against Judge Charles M. Head, which the Appellate Court as well as the Superior Court decided in favor of Head.

Bush claimed to have been elected in November, 1906, although Head got the most votes, Bush holds that Head's election was void, because of his promise not to qualify.

By appointment from the Governor, Bush is again judge and he has nothing to win even if the Supreme Court decides in his favor farther than a vindication of his contention.

Head and Bush both will go out of office next year.

MORGAN BACKS IT.

J. Pierpont Morgan has accepted the responsibility for financing the enterprise, and agreed to secure the whole amount of cash required. He will place the bonds, and the money will be forthcoming as soon as it is desired.

Not only has Mr. Morgan enlisted in the enterprise, but Malcolm Coombes, Shoemaker, Bates & Co., and other great financial firms of New Yrok are backing the movement.

The building is to be twenty-four stories high, with fifty acres of floor space, divided into hotel, office building, cold-storage plant and terminal warehouses.

GREEKS DEFIANT.

IGNORE ORDER TO LEAVE.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

BOISE (Idaho) Jan. 16.—Fifty armed men, all masked, visited a camp of Greek laborers near Mountain Home last night and warned them to leave within twenty-four hours.

Today the Sheriff of Elmore county was appealed to and the Greeks decided not to leave. It is feared trouble will take place.

The Greeks were imported to clear large tracts of land of sage brush and set them out in fruit trees. The owners of the land first contracted with Japanese, but white laborers warned them not to bring in any foreigners and they gave up the contract. The Greeks were then brought in.

Convict's Appeal Denied.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 16.—Application on the part of Amuel P. Wetzel, sentenced for five years to the penitentiary at San Quentin, for a writ of habeas corpus, was denied by the Supreme Court today. The petitioner had two prior convictions of petty larceny against him when he was convicted for a third time of stealing goods. The accused was charged with grand larceny and convicted of petty larceny. The argument was that he should, if convicted at all, have been convicted on the charges on which he was arraigned. The court holds otherwise.

Says Weeps Help Women.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Jan. 16.—In the last issue of the Chaparral, the university humorous paper, Editor E. J. Hadley scores the flunk-out system, under which ninety-six men were dropped from the university last semester. Hadley contends that the standard has been set too high. He also comments on the fact that but three women were dropped, saying that the ability of the women to weep their way into the hearts of the Faculty Committee on scholarship keeps them in college.

Fire following the explosion of a moving picture machine occurred Wednesday evening in the Hippodrome, a small theater in St. Catharines. SIXTIETH CONGRESS.

SIX YEARS TO FINISH CANAL.

Secretary Taft Gives Information to Committee.

Cost Three Hundred Millions, Including Purchase.

Many Facts Concerning the Ditch Made Public.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Secretary Taft appeared before the Senate Committee on Interoceanic Canals today and gave that committee information concerning the project and offered suggestions for legislation.

He gave a complete review of the conditions at the canal site, and quoted information he had received from various officials connected with the work. He expressed the opinion that the canal should be completed within six years from next July and that its ultimate cost would approximately be $300,000,000, including the purchase price.

The proposed widening of the locks was carefully explained by Secretary Taft. He asserted that with the locks widened to 110 feet a steamer of 100 feet beam could easily pass through. The largest ship this government is planning to build will have a beam of about ninety-five feet. The increased cost of the locks, Secretary Taft estimated, would be about $5,000,000.

In his talk to the committee, Secretary Taft at various points brought out the difficulties that beset the commission in the administration. These ranged all the way from trouble with the Pacific Mail Steamship line, because of its failure to furnish enough steamers, to labor difficulties. He also spoke of the complaints by the Panamanians that there is a bad odor to the water that is served to them through the new waterworks at Panama, as one of the small yet annoying features of the work.

PROBLEM IN TRANSPORTATION.

In the matter of steamship transportation facilities on the Pacific Coast, the Secretary said that owing to their inadequacy the business of the railroad has fallen off one-half since the government took possession, and it was a question in his mind whether the government should not engage in the steamship business on the Pacific in order to retain the Panama route now existing and keep the isthmian business from going by way of Tehauntepec or some other route.

"It may be a question," said the Secretary, "of saving the income for our steamers on the east coast by running considerable risk on the west."

Secretary Taft gave out considerable information concerning prices paid for labor on the canal, and he urged that there be no reduction in the wages paid to skilled laborers, in spite of the fact that according to his estimate they were receiving in pay privileges from 50 to 60 per cent. higher income than they could earn in the United States. Secretary Taft gave it as his opinion that any reduction at all would cause serious labor difficulties. Even with skilled labor at the present standard, he said, there was recently a strike upon the refusal of the commission to increase the wages, and a force sufficient to run sixty-five steam shovels was depleted to a force sufficient to run only thirteen.

PLANT ASKS QUESTIONS.

Senator Flint put a number of questions to the Secretary as to land controversies on the isthmus; the cost of sanitation; and the advisability of the government running the Tivoli Hotel.

The Secretary thought it necessary for the government to operate the hotel, which, he said, with a smile, had had its bar removed, and that there ought to be no further complaint from the native business people, at least in respect to that trade.

The Secretary said that the water rent charged Panama will in fifty years pay all cost of providing the waterworks, the improvement of streets and the construction of the sewer system. At the end of that period the works will become the property of Panama.

"If any one doubts the condition of the streets of Panama," he said, "I will refer him to my friend, Poultney Bigelow."

He was questioned by Senator Ankeny concerning the lepers at Panama, and he responded promptly that leprosy is always greatly exaggerated, citing his experience in the Philippines.

"When we went to the Philippines," he said, "we were told that there were from 20,000 to 30,000 lepers. We have now 3500 lepers that we know of there. During the last year, the number has been reduced to 600."

In Panama, he said, nine lepers were known, and they have been isolated on an island and there is no fear on their account.

"They have adopted the policy of acting on the advice of the doctors in all cases of sanitation," said he. "Dr. Gorgas has proved so uniformly successful that we have felt justified in taking his advice in such matters."

He declared that it is not so unhealthy to live in the tropics as it was formerly.

QUESTION OF LAND.

Mr. Taft said the commission had found that the price placed upon land needed for the canal is excessive, and has had no relation to its value for private purposes. That had not delayed construction work, however, because the land is taken and paid for afterward. The government of Panama has offered to give the United States a site for a legation at Panama near the new government building being erected by the republic.

He thought it would be advisable to provide a legation building that would bring the property within the dignity of the United States in the future when the canal has been completed.

Senator Flint wanted to know if this government could not, with advantage, sell to Panama all the land now owned by the Panama Railroad Company, and not actually used for railroad purposes, in order to relieve the government of owning property there that is used for improper purposes.

Mr. Taft thought some of the land could be sold, and he added that all the new leases provide that the premises shall not be used for immoral purposes, including the use as saloons. Some of this land would be needed in the future for the railroads.

Senator Kittredge asked Mr. Taft whether he had any recommendation for new legislation in the canal zone.

The Secretary replied that he thought there should be an appeal from the courts of the zone to the Supreme Court of the United States, but with that exception he had no recommendation to make. After the construction of the canal had been completed, he thought there should be a comprehensive plan of government devised for the zone, but he saw no reason for that now.

"This year has satisfied me," said Mr. Taft, "that a contract for doing the work on the Panama Canal is impracticable."

He added that any firm able to supply the large amount of money needed to carry on the work would demand such a large profit as to make it inadvisable to enter upon it.

The committee adjourned until tomorrow when Col. Goethals, chief engineer of the canal work, will be heard.

CONGRESS TAKEN TO TASK.

Representative from Georgia Introduces Resolution That Members Get Down to Work.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—A resolution, reading in part as follows, was offered in the House today by Mr. Edwards of Georgia:

"Whereas, People and business institutions of all kinds are suffering from the panic that is upon us and the whole country is demanding that something be done for relief; and, whereas, the House of Representatives has now been in session for over thirty days and has accomplished absolutely nothing along these lines, but instead is killing time upon matters that are not nearly so vital; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That 9 o'clock in the morning be fixed as the hour for convening instead of 12 o'clock noon, and that the hour from 1 to 2 o'clock be allowed for lunch, and that the House remain in session until 6 o'clock in the afternoon, or later, if necessary, in order that we may get down to work, do something for the country and adjourn before hot weather comes on."

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Rules.

PENALTY IS PROVIDED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—At the outset of the debate in the House today on the bill to codify and revise the penal laws, Mr. Hardwick of Georgia offered a substitute for the Williams amendment, pending yesterday when the House adjourned, regarding payments to any persons for his indorsement or assistance in securing appointments to office.

The substitute, while differing in phraseology with the Williams amendment, arrives at the same end, except that it disqualifies from any office of trust or profit under the government all persons receiving such payment.

Mr. Payne of New York urged that the Williams amendment and Hardwick substitute be voted down. He wanted the Committee on Judiciary to carefully consider such propositions before they were enacted into law.

Mr. Williams retorted that Mr. Payne and other Republicans had made a party question out of the amendment and substitute, whereas, he said, it was not a party question, but one dealing with corruption.

The original section was amended on a motion by Mr. Burke of Pennsylvania so as to apply the penalty imposed by section 114 only to those cases where purchase and sale of indorsements of support for office affects "appointive" offices.

CARTER WILL KICK.

OPPOSES LAND DONATIONS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Senator Carter of Montana today announced that he would object to the passage of all bills looking to the donation of public land for various purposes.

He declared that such donations, if allowed, would make it necessary for Senators from all States having public land to see that they receive as large donations of land as other States.

Senators Saw Wood.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The Senate calendar was cleared of nearly every bill upon it today, and the bill to revise the criminal laws of the United States was taken up and discussed until adjournment at 4:30 p.m. until Monday.

SAN DIEGO MAY GET NAVY YARD

DEPARTMENT SEEMS TO BE FAVORABLY INCLINED.

Preliminary Survey Report to Be Sent to Secretary of War Will Be Accompanied by Communication That Improvements Recommended Satisfy Navy Department.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Navy Department is ready to return to the Secretary of War the report on the preliminary survey of the San Diego Harbor, with a communication, stating that the recommended improvements are thoroughly satisfactory to that department for any use it may desire to make of the harbor.

It is understood that in agreeing with the recommendations of the board of army engineers, the Navy Department took into consideration the probability of the establishment of an extensive navy yard and dry docks in the San Diego Harbor.

Representative Smith today conferred with the chief of the Bureau of Yards and Docks regarding the proposed yard, and he was assured of the favorable report of that bureau. Mr. Smith also has conferred with Chairman Foss of the Naval Committee of the House, and while the chairman will not commit himself as to whether he would recommend an appropriation for its construction to be placed in the Naval Appropriation Bill this session, he showed a decided interest in the project and admitted that a yard and dock at this point would be of great utility and convenience.

WANT CRUEL WAR TO END.

Northwestern Lumbermen Take Initiative to Bring About Understanding With Railroads.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TACOMA (Wash.) Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Representatives of commercial organizations of Tacoma, Seattle, Everett, Hoquiam and Aberdeen, lumber manufacturing centers of the Northwest, met in Seattle today to discuss ways and means of ending the fight between the lumbermen and the railroads.

The meeting was secretly arranged. Every means will be used to end the controversy, which the lumbermen declare is paralyzing the business in the Northwest.

The meeting decided to communicate with President Hill of the Great Northern and President Elliott of the Northern Pacific the urgent desire of the business interests of Washington that the controversy, which is keeping thousands of men out of work, be ended.

Of 85,000 men employed in the forest industry a year ago, sixty thousand are now unemployed. Rail lumber shipments averaged nearly ten thousand cars monthly to November 1, but they are now almost nothing, which greatly reduced the revenues of the railroads.

Attempt to Secure Extension of Time Permitting Stopping of Opium Traffic in Philippines.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Within a little over a month the law prohibiting the importation of opium into the Philippines will become effective.

A large quantity of opium is consumed in the islands, mainly by the Chinese element, but the baneful habit of opium smoking has been rapidly extending among the natives—Filipinos and even among the Americans.

Congress has passed an act intended to correct the evil, but there is great doubt of the ability of the confirmed opium user to abandon the drug, and a considerable agitation has been taking place in the Philippines, with the object of securing an extension of time permitted for the stoppage of the traffic.

The provision of law allowing the President to fix the pay of the enlisted men of the navy is applied to the enlisted men of the army, but it is provided that such increases shall not result in an enhancement of more than 40 per cent. of the present pay.

THEY KNOW.

CREDIT MEN ON BANKING LAWS.

IMPORTANT MEASURES DISCUSSED AT ANNUAL MEET.

Financial Legislation and Debtor Laws Considered by Men to Whom They Mean Much—Firm Stand of Credit Men During Recent Flurry Did Much to Restore Confidence.

Banking legislation and improved laws for the prosecuting of dishonest, delinquent debtors were the chief topics of discussion at the banquet of the Los Angeles Credit Men's Association at Levy's last night. Though those present were by no means of one mind as to what form legislation should take, they agreed that some action should be taken by the law-makers of the country.

Particularly in regard to State debtor's laws, which are far from uniform, was action urged and the general feeling was that the National Credit Men's Association should be asked to assist in working for uniform legislation on this important matter.

The first part of the evening was given up to banqueting and general enjoyment. At first it looked as though the eager banqueters might be doomed to disappointment as the man who had been appointed custodian of the tickets forgot his appointment and failed to show up. Secretary W. C. Mushet found a way to get around the difficulty, however, and the threatened catastrophe did not materialize.

H. Flatau, president of the association, acted as chairman and toastmaster. To him fell the task of making the opening address and, though his remarks were brief, they were to the point. He reviewed the progress of the association during the year passed and also gave some figures tending to show the general prosperity which had characterized the year in spite of the flurry which marked its closing days.

"That a serious financial panic was averted, gentlemen, is largely due to the levelheaded action of the credit men of the mercantile houses of the country," he said. "Had they lost their heads, or acted in a selfish, narrow way, the result might have been disastrous. They realized the necessity for restoring public confidence, however, and they acted accordingly.

"We have reason to be proud of the progress which Los Angeles and the surrounding country has made during the past year. We want to see this progress continue and, in order to have it continue, it is necessary that public confidence be retained. This can only be done by sane business methods.

"It behooves us, as credit men and citizens of this community, to see that good men are elected to fill our public offices. I mean men that will do their duty without fear and without hope of personal gain. It is not enough that we elect such men; when once we get them into office we must keep them, and we must encourage them, by increased pay and promotion, to continue to serve us.

"The beneficial effect of our association is felt throughout the country. Our National Credit Men's Association numbers 8647, an increase of 1135 over this time last year. I regret to say that our local organization cannot make as good a report. We have now 111 members as against 101 last year.

"Modern business methods demand that we get together and discuss matters that interest us all. The credit man's work is an important part of the mercantile system of the country, and by meeting frequently, we are able to help ourselves and advance the interests of our employers."

William W. Woods, cashier of the American National Bank of this city, read an interesting paper on "Banking Legislation." Said he:

"There has not been a time within the past ten years when the question of legislation was as paramount as at the present day. Our recent money panic seems to call for some legislation to prevent a repetition of the trouble.

"Any person who seeks to devise a plan for reforming our currency system must realize that our banks have increased wonderfully since the great panic of 1893. There has been a general era of wonderful prosperity noticeable throughout the banking world. This must be taken into consideration when discussing remedies for existing evils.

"There are two bills proposed to improve banking laws. One of them is what is known as the Aldrich bill and the other as the Fowler bill. Both are the work of men who have made a careful study of financial conditions.

"Our banks are operating under the same currency system that has existed for thirty years, and to inaugurate a sweeping change through legislation, casting aside a system that has served us so well in the times of our greatest prosperity, might plunge us into a commercial panic, the equal of which has never been known.

"The Fowler bill proposes to do away entirely with our government bond secured currency. Just how this could be accomplished at the present time without causing a loss of many millions of dollars to the national banks who have bought government bonds at a premium is hard to tell.

"During the recent panic, owing to the prompt and independent action of the clearinghouses of the United States, the burden was at once lightened, and a remedy provided for saving our big commercial houses.

"Why could not this question be solved satisfactorily and for all time to come by the government acting in connection with the clearinghouse in central reserve and reserve cities. By this method, banks entitled to help during stringent times would get it, and at once, owing to the clearinghouse being familiar with the business carried on in the vicinity, and also the solvency of the banks applying."

H. R. Edmondson of Santa Barbara gave a short talk on behalf of the Pacific Coast Merchants' Protective Association.

"The object of this association," said Mr. Edmondson, "is to furnish retail dealers with data which will warn them against unworthy seekers after credit. This will enable them to keep their accounts cleaned up, and, in turn, to meet promptly their obligations to the wholesaler.

"All dealers will be furnished with a list of the delinquent debtors of the section, thereby making it impossible for a man to skip from one community to avoid paying his debts, and then secure credit in his new home."

"It is intended to enlist the services of the best credit men of the Coast with the view of improving our system of extending credit. The most prominent merchants of the different communities are the directors of the association and an effort is being made to interest all of the merchants so that they will unite with us and aid in forcing the dishonest man to pay his bills by letting him see that, in no other way, can he secure credit."

Mr. Edmondson asked the association to indorse the movement. It was finally decided to place the matter in the hands of a committee for report.

The reports of the various committees showed that the affairs of the organization are in a satisfactory condition and that the work of improving credit systems is being carried along steadily.

W. C. Kennedy of the Baker Iron Works made a plea for greater uniformity in the delinquent debtors laws of the country. He stated that the diversity of the laws works a hardship to the seller in many instances. Particularly in regard to the amount of property which can be made exempt under the homestead law did he feel that uniform legislation was necessary and recommended that the credit men of the country work for such legislation.

The last committee to report was the nominating committee. All of the names recommended by the committee to make up the list of officers for the ensuing year met with approval and were unanimously adopted. The officers for the coming year are:

H. Flatau, president; E. J. Levy, vice-president; Newman Essick, treasurer; W. F. Bosbyshell and R. F. Skellinger, members of the Executive Committee to serve for one year; A. J. Prosser, J. D. Simpson, W. C. Kennedy and L. Kimble, members of the Executive Committee to serve for two years.

The members of the association present were:

H. Flatau, representing M. A. Newmark & Co.; J. D. Simpson, Frank Simpson Fruit Company; E. J. Levy, Standard Woodenware Company; R. W. Burnham, R. G. Dun & Co.; L. Kimble, W. W. SHIES AT EXPOSITIONS.

Congress May Postpone Until Next Year Making Provision for Seattle's Fair.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition, to be held in Seattle in 1909, is making a hard fight this winter to secure an early appropriation for Federal participation, but it is not now believed that any appropriation of this sort can be put through until the last days of the session.

If this should be true, it is possible that the exposition would have to be postponed a year, in order to give foreign countries time to prepare appropriations, since they will not do so until the United States government has made an appropriation.

There is much sentiment in Congress against expositions at the present time, on account of the Jamestown failure, and the backers of the Seattle Fair will have a hard time getting the desired money.

FOR JOHN PAUL JONES.

Congressional Publication in Commemoration of Our First Great Sea Fighter Is Issued.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—"John Paul Jones, Commemoration," is the title of a Congressional publication now ready for distribution, commemorative of our first great sea fighter.

The volume is superbly illustrated. An introduction describes the contents of the book, and the ceremonies of the commemoration at Annapolis, April 24, 1906. The addresses of President Roosevelt, Ambassador Jusserand, Gen. Porter and Gov. Warwick are given. A footnote appended to the President's address is a touching tribute to Admiral Dewey. At the mention of Dewey's name, the President paused until the applause subsided, and, looking directly at the admiral, said:

"Presidents are all well enough in their way, but it's worth while in life to have a first of May."

Being a Congressional publication, the book will be distributed by the Senators and Representatives. The edition numbers 10,000.

"Aunt" Sarah Bryant, a colored woman, said to have been 125 years old, died at Gunnison, Colo., yesterday. She was born a slave in Missouri, and had lived in Gunnison twenty-five years.

By a vote of 277 to 208, the French Chamber of Deputies decided to place the income tax measure in the first place on the parliamentary programme.

IMPORTANT PIANO NEWS

Leading Local House to Discontinue Six Important Agencies.

MONEY SAVING FOR PIANO BUYERS.

DON'T MISS THIS OPPORTUNITY!

The Geo. J. Birkel Company have on their floors over 550 high grade new pianos—a stock which represents ten of the most important agencies, THIS STOCK IS ALTOGETHER TOO LARGE. We have decided to confine our operations in future to the Steinway, the Kranich & Bach, and Sohmer and the Kurtzmann—EVERY OTHER INSTRUMENT WILL BE SOLD AT COST OR LESS.

The Agencies to be discontinued are the Emerson, Estey, Starr, Sterling, Laffargue and Huntington—well known names in the piano world.

WE ARE MAKING PRICES THAT ARE ABOUT HALF THE VALUE OF THE INSTRUMENTS OFFERED. You will have to pay regular prices for these same instruments when new agencies are established. DEALERS WHO TAKE UP THESE PIANOS WHEN WE DISCONTINUE THEM WILL PAY MORE TO HAVE THEM LAID DOWN IN THEIR STORES THAN WE ARE OFFERING THEM TO YOU NOW.

Not only can you buy a piano at cost or less, but we will grant you EASY TERMS OF PAYMENT. No space here to tell you of the merits of pianos like the Emerson, Estey and Sterling—you probably know what they are; if not, come to the store and let us demonstrate them for you.

In addition, we offer a number of used pianos, all in good condition. In this lot are pianos as low as $55—a small French upright. Another unusual bargain is a Fischer, largest size upright in rosewood case. Cost when new, $500. Now $225.

We have two grand pianos—one a Kranich & Bach and one a Kurtzmann. Regularly $800. In this sale $585 each.

Here is an item of extraordinary interest—Steinway pianos at cut prices. We ordered several carloads of Steinways for the holiday trade. The demand was not so brisk as we anticipated, and we find ourselves with 70 Steinways on hand. Come and get our prices on Steinways—don't delay—because in all probability we shall never offer Steinways again at reduced prices. This is the first time in our history we have made reductions on Steinways. This is your opportunity.

These reduced prices prevail at the Birkel Company's branch agencies in Colton, Pomona and San Bernardino, as well as the Los Angeles house.

Important notice:—Pass books, of savings banks or certificates of time deposits will be accepted at face value—as whole or part payment on piano purchases in this sale.

"WHAT'S THE ANSWER?"

COURT TO RESCUE OF COMMISSION.

HARRIMAN MUST ANSWER CERTAIN QUESTIONS.

Judge Hough Decides That Railway Magnate Need not Reply to Inquiries Relating to Purchase of Stock in Connection With Dividend, but Should to Others.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]
NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—E. H. Harriman today was directed in a decision given by Judge Hough, in the United States Circuit Court, to answer all questions propounded to him by the Interstate Commerce Commission except those relating to the purchase of Union Pacific and Southern Pacific railroad stock in connection with the dividend of August, 1906.
Judge Hough also directed Otto H. Kuhn of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. to answer all questions asked him by the Interstate Commerce Commission.
The questions to which Mr. Harriman objected related to the purchase of the stock of other railroads in the interest of the Union Pacific. In regard to the $22,000,000 of Illinois Central, purchased at $175 a share, the questions which Mr. Harriman declined to answer are as follows:
"Were the 90,000 shares sold by yourself, Mr. Robers and Mr. Stillman pooled?"
"Was it acquired for the purpose of selling it to the Union Pacific?"
"Was the stock purchased by you at a much lower price than $175 with the intention of turning it over to the Union Pacific?"
"Did you have any interest in the 165,000 shares sold at the time by the Kuhn, Loeb & Co., to the Union Pacific?"
"Were the 165,000 shares acquired by the same pool for the purpose of selling to the Union Pacific?"
On the subject of the Union Pacific dividend, which advanced from a rate of 6 to 10 per cent. per annum, August 15, 1906, with a consequent rise in the stock, Mr. Harriman declined to answer the following:
"Were you directly or indirectly interested in any stocks that were bought between the 19th of July and the 17th of August that appreciated?"
"Did you or any director buy any Union Pacific and Southern Pacific stocks in anticipation of that dividend?"
Mr. Harriman is sustained in his objections to the Union Pacific dividend question. The questions which Mr. Kuhn refused to answer had to do with the connection of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., with the purchase of stocks in the Chicago and Alton and the Illinois Central, and what proportion of the stock so purchased was held for the directors of the Union Pacific.

TOURISTS ARE COMING.

Surprise Is Expressed by Representatives of California Roads at Extent of Coast Travel.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Representatives of the California roads have been agreeably surprised of late at the way in which winter tourist travel is being maintained.
They had expected a considerable diminution this year on account of the financial stringency, but it has not taken place.
The business thus far, they say, compares favorably with that of last year, and it would have been much larger than it has been but for the unusually mild weather which has obtained in the East. Should there be a lengthy cold spell just now, it would have the effect of sending quite a number of people who are debating the question with themselves whether they should go or not.

HEADING FOR DELAMAR.

ROAD BEING PUSHED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
REDDING, Jan. 16.—The tracks of the Sacramento Valley and Eastern Railroad were laid today into Copper City, an old mining town on the Pitt River, fifteen miles from the town of Pitt, on the Southern Pacific, where the railroad branches off.
The roadbed is completed to Delamar, three miles beyond Copper City. The railroad is eighteen miles long, and was built at a cost of $500,000, to give a rail outlet for the copper smelter at Delamar.
The smelter, remodeled at a cost of $100,000, is ready to blow in as soon as the railroad reaches the town, which will be in about two weeks.

BROWN BOUNCED.

HIS SUCCESSOR ARRIVES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
SACRAMENTO, Jan. 16.—J. P. Sheridan has arrived in California from Chicago, to take the position of assistant superintendent of the Sacramento division of the Southern Pacific in Sacramento.
Sheridan was in Sparks, Nev., a few days ago, and showed credentials that he had been appointed to succeed E. M. Brown, as assistant superintendent. Brown, it has been stated, got into trouble by giving out interviews to a local paper to the effect that the railroad company was erecting buildings here to house strike-breakers. Brown denies that he did anything of the kind.

DIVIDENDS REDUCED.

Amalgamated, and Boston and Montana Declarations Show Effect of Hard Times.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—A quarterly dividend of one-half of 1 per cent. was declared by the Amalgamated Copper Company today. The previous quarterly dividend was 1 per cent.
The directors of the Boston and Montana Consolidated Copper and Silver Mining Company, one of the constituent companies of the Amalgamated Copper Company, today declared a quarterly dividend of $2 per share and $1 extra. This compares with $2 a share regular and $4 per share extra three months ago.

DISCOUNT RATE IS REDUCED.

BANK OF ENGLAND GETS DOWN TO NORMAL.

Fresh Gold Arrivals and the Return of Cash to the Country Enables "the Old Lady of Threadneedle Street" to Remove Obstacle to Industrial Progress.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
LONDON, Jan. 16.—The rate of discount of the Bank of England was reduced from 6 to 5 per cent. today.
The reduction was anticipated, as the fresh gold arrivals, most of which were absorbed by the bank, and the return of cash to the country so materially strengthened the reserve in the metal, in spite of the considerable amount taken by South America, that there was no excuse for a further prolongation of the higher rate, which so discommoded trade for some months past. Even had the bank desired to retain a higher rate it is doubaful if it could be made effective, as the supply of money in Lombard street was so abundant as to be almost for the moment in excess of the requirements. The discount in the open market fell to 4½ per cent.
The recent continental purchases of sterling bills indicated the probability that the gold borrowed from France during the American stringency would be allowed to remain here for a time and the bills renewed. This proved a further inducement for the bank to lower its rates.
The stock exchange already had fully discounted the 5 per cent. rate, and the actual announcement caused only a slight hardening of quotations.

AS DO THE BANKERS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—A plan for a "commercial clearing-house"—an institution through which business houses could settle their debts and collect their bills among themselves, without recourse to the banks—was launched last night at the meeting of the Chicago Credit Men's Association.
The proposal was enthusiastically received by representatives of 350 large business houses. A resolution was passed to appoint a special committee to make an investigation with a view to devising ways and means to put the plan into operation.
The plan is simply the adaptation of the "banker's clearing-house system" to the needs of mercantile affairs. Large mercantile houses would proceed at once to effect debtor and creditor settlements among themselves by the exchange of cancelled checks, in a manner similar to the settlements made by banks, without the necessity for the exchange of real money.
These mercantile settlements would be made on the basis of the values of sound mercantile accounts.

PUTS UP THE CASH.

President of Bank Complies to Court's Order, but Whether Heinze Did Same is not Divulged.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
BUTTE (Mont.) Jan. 16.—Judge Bourquin, in the District Court today, continued the hearing incident to the application for a receiver for the suspended State Savings Bank until February 17.
On December 27, Judge Bourquin directed M. S. Largey, president of the bank, to put up $75,000, and F. Augustus Heinze, who owned a controlling interest in the bank, to pay in $250,000 to secure their indebtedness to the bank by January 16. The credit was to be put up in money or marketable securities.
Largey has put up the cash. At the request of counsel for the bank, the court did not announce today whether or not Heinze had put up the $250,000. The State Bank Examiner will not make the facts public. After a conference with the lawyers in chambers, the court said from the bench that he believed the bank would be opened by February 17.

BANKERS ARE ARRESTED.

Four Officers of Insolvent Colorado Institution Brought in on Attachment Suits.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
DURANGO (Colo.) Jan. 16.—Charged with having received deposits after they knew that the Colorado State Bank was insolvent, four of the officers and directors were yesterday arrested in attachment suits brought against them by John English.
Those arrested are D. N. Freeman, W. C. Chapman, Frank Eldredge and Evan Hampton. They were released on bonds.
By the suit it is expected to attach property of directors and of the bank, with the idea of having the depositors paid in full from the property. Already the store building of Chapman and the building of the bank have been levied upon.

CONTRACTS FAIL.

PETITION FOR BANKRUPTCY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]
DENVER, Jan. 16.—A petition in bankruptcy was filed today with the clerk of the United States Court by Orman & Crook, railroad contractors of this city.
This firm had the contract for the construction of part of the Moffat road. The liabilities are given as $741,126, and the assets as $1,282,771. Of the assets, $549,908 consists of debts still due, and $30,000 of this amount is considered "not good."
The firm places the value of its machinery and tools at $172,700, its horses at $52,650 and its stocks and bonds at $125,000.
James B. Orman, head of the firm, was formerly Governor of Colorado. William Crook is the other member of the firm. It has been identified with a number of big contracts in the West.

VAULTS ALMOST EMPTY.

DALLAS BANK CLOSES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
DALLAS (Tex.) Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Western Bank and Trust Company, after its directors late last night decided to make an assignment for the benefit of creditors, did not open today. Henry D. Lindsley, the assignee, this evening made bond of $250,000. He says he hopes to realize enough on the assets, if given time, to pay all liabilities.
There are more than 5000 creditors, most of them savings depositors. The books show that the bank owes depositors more than $700,000. There is less than $2000 cash in the vaults.

DIAMOND PRICES HELD UP.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—There is to be no reduction in the price of diamonds, according to an announcement made by one of the big diamond importing houses. It is stated that all importers have received word from the diamond syndicate in London, which controls 95 per cent. of the diamond output of the world, that the policy of maintaining prices will be strictly adhered to, in spite of the great falling off in sales within the last few months.

Here's a Prescription That Will Cure Your Liver

It's Simple, But It's Said to Be Unfailing—You Can Mix It at Home Yourself.

The author of this prescription is a well-known retired local physician. He says that in such a mild, even climate as this there is always bound to be a good deal of liver trouble, and in fact the majority of so-called dyspepsia and stomach troubles are directly traceable to the liver.
It should be very easy, however, for any one to tell whether or not it is the liver that's wrong, as the symptoms are very marked. Headaches, skin eruptions, sallow complexion, nervousness, dyspepsia, weak heart, sleeplessness and general rundown feeling are always signs that the liver is neglecting its work and putting too much responsibility on the lungs, heart, kidneys and stomach.
It doesn't do to let such trouble run on, for it soon becomes chronic, and then it's hard to shake off.
But if taken in reasonable time, the doctor says this prescription will cure most any case.
Just go to your druggist and get 1 oz. Heptonic, 1½ oz. Simple Elixir, 1½ oz. Elixir Calaysia Bark. Be sure to mix them well, and take one teaspoonful in water three to four times a day. For children, proportionate doses should be given.
This remedy is very simple, you can prepare it at home. It seems that it is surely worth trying, anyway.

ENLARGING.

FORM RIFLES IN COMPANIES.

Headquarters for Six Units Now Designated.

Dr. Shurtleff Is Organizing Scouts and Surgeons.

First Target Practice to Be Held Sunday Week.

In order to facilitate the organization of the Southern California Rifles, the following units have been designated and men named to assist in temporary organization:

Fourth Company, Pasadena, Sergt. Eliot Alden, M. D., 313 Dodsworth building.

Sixth Company, Dudley Harvey-Elder.

Scouts, Los Angeles, Dr. F. C. Shurtleff.

Hospital Corps, Los Angeles, Dr. F. C. Shurtleff.

District will be formed as soon as the companies are organized with definite headquarters. None of those persons named are to act as officers with the exception of Dr. Shurtleff, who is to have carte blanche in selecting his scouts.

TARGET PRACTICE.

Preparations are being made by the officers of the Southern California Rifles to hold the first target practice one week from Sunday. In addition it is proposed to conduct the first "scouting" trip for the mounted rifles to some point, convenient for all, where target shooting and general horsemanship can be practiced.

Another range has been secured through the courtesy of Capt. Steve Queiroto, of the fire department, who gives permission to the rifles to erect the necessary paraphernalia on the ranch belonging to the Heidelburg Inn property in Cahuenga Pass. The new line of the Los Angeles Electric Company almost reaches the place. A range of nearly 2000 yards is possible.

Dr. F. C. Shurtleff has been designated to organize and command a company of scouts. He already has received many names of men who desire to become members, and proposes to select from those enrolled in the entire organization picked men to act entirely under his direction. This company will be made up of old scouts and mountaineers who know every foot of Southern California.

Lieut. Henry E. Miller of the Life Saving Corps at Ocean Park, has been authorized to take steps toward the formation of a company unit at that point, to include Ocean Park, Venice, and Santa Monica. Eliot Alden, M. D., of Pasadena, has been authorized to begin the organization of a similar company unit in Pasadena. Dr. Alden formerly was sergeant in Troop A, Ohio National Guard.

The Native Sons have been given the honor of organizing the First Company. The Second Company will be composed of those members who have sent in their names to Secretary C. Harvey-Elder. The Third Company will be that with headquarters at Ocean Park. The Fourth Company will be in Pasadena. The Fifth Company will be organized at Long Beach and San Pedro, and the sixth at Whittier. A second company for Los Angeles may be formed, should the membership of the one first organized become too large. Those who prefer the mounted service will form the First Troop.

VAQUERO CLUB.

An invitation has been sent to the Vaquero Club to include the club as a whole, to form the First Troop, without losing its identity as a private organization, but subject to service, if need be. If such action be taken, members of the troop will be selected to act as special instructors in horsemanship. Robert Yost will present the purposes to the club.

It is probable that a target range for small caliber guns will be secured in the city, so that practice may be conducted by the members in spare moments during the week. However, energies will be bent toward real range work in the open, both for the revolver and the rifle.

In the formation of the First Company, the Native Sons propose to make up the crack unit of the organization, despite the fact that many of the best shots in the West have enrolled with the secretary for the formation of the Second Company.

Ray Howard and other members of the Native Sons have interested themselves in the movement, and are scouring the several parlors in this vicinity for crack shots to enroll. About twenty members of Corona Parlor, No. 196, have expressed themselves as willing to join, and many names have been handed Mr. Howard. The parlor located at Long Beach is expected to take action at the next meeting, as well as other parlors in this vicinity.

Among other new members of the Rifles are Gen. Frank C. Prescott, P. V. Potter, Dick Pickney, Oscar C. Bryant, Bert C. Smith, Lew H. Wallace of Newport Beach; Otto Denchler of San Gabriel; J. M. Becker of Long Beach; George W. Parsons of Venice; H. G. Leonard, William J. Rolph-Moore, G. F. Stephenson, W. P. Martin.

WRESTLING AT U.S.C.

Eighteen Candidates for Mat Honors Are to Contest in the Weight Divisions.

Athletes of U.S.C. will compete in a wrestling tournament, to be held at the university gymnasium this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Eighteen candidates for premier honors in the middleweight and lightweight divisions have signed for the affair, the winners in the respective classes to have their names engraved on the silver trophy cups offered as perpetual emblems for championships in the different classes.

Owing to various forbidding circumstances the candidates who had intended to enter the heavyweight division are indisposed, and honors in the heavyweight class will have to be decided later. Entries in the middleweight division are Schieber, Paulin, Henderson, Hall, Curl, G. Richardson, Wallace, Swantek, Taylor; in the lightweight division, Homer, Fallas, Wirsching, Parmenter, Lennox, Hummell, Jessup, Dowds, Nordahl.

Taylor is picked as the probable winner of the middleweight class, and Hall and Swantek, dangerous opponents. In the lightweight class Wirsching, Hummel and Lennox are considered very shifty on the mat, and some close matches are expected.

DUCKS VERY WILD.

Thursday Squad of Hunters Report Scarcity of Birds, Owing to Monday's High Wind.

Owing to various causes, there were few hunters out after ducks yesterday, and the majority of these reported a scarcity of birds, and particularly teal. There were plenty of sprig in evidence, and a few mallards and spoonies. Weather conditions were satisfactory, but apparently the birds are becoming scarcer since last Monday night's storm. They were very wild on some of the preserves, and the bags were comparatively small. It is possible the shooting will not be first-class again until the rain comes.

The Recreation had the best sport yesterday of the bunch. J. W. Frey, George A. Ralphs and A. P. Kerckhoff each had the limit; J. Adloff got 25; Leon Moss, 24; J. Kurtz, 22, and O. Morgan, 20. A guest, Mr. Theller, had fairly good luck.

There were only two men on the Del Rey, in C. M. Wood, who shot the limit, and George Bayly, who killed 25.

On the Centinella the sport was not up to the usual standard, but the birds were all big ones. James Mellus was high gun with 29; Frank Eckley and Arthur Jackson had 25 each; W. Y. Teetzel, 14 and H. L. Corson, 10.

The Patrone turned out but two men in T. McD. Potter, who shot the limit, and Dr. Wernigk, who had 21. These were all big birds.

The Short Line was represented by five guns, and they averaged about twelve birds. L. B. Borck, W. M. Bowen, H. J. Selby, A. E. Gwynn and Frank Heron were out, and found the game very wild and hard to get within range

AWAIT THE WHISTLE.

FIRST BIG GAME OF BASKETBALL.

WHITTIER AND OCCIDENTAL TO PLAY COLLEGE BALL.

Quakers Weakened by Loss of Two Crack Players, but Are Strong in Substitutes — Presbyterians Have Good Men and Hope to Start Intercollegiate Season Right.

WHITTIER, Jan. 16.—The first intercollegiate basketball game of the season will be played this evening between Whittier and Occidental. Since their defeat at the hands of the Pasadena Y.M.C.A. the Quakers have been working very hard, and in spite of the fact that they will be badly crippled with the absence of Blair, the crack guard, and Tebbets at center, they will be in first-class condition, and hope to wipe out the stain of the defeat they suffered at the hands of the Presbyterians in football.

Blair has left college for this year. McCaslin is considered a worthy successor. He held Cole, the crack forward of the local High School, down to three field goals in a game played a week ago, and since he has been placed on the 'varsity has been doing some fine work.

Tebbetts is laid up with a severe attack of tonsilitis, and his place is being filled by Clark. The latter is a very good jumper, standing six feet two, but he lacks experience. However, he is expected to more than hold his own tonight.

The other guard position will probably be filled by Marshburn of last year's championship team. If not, W. Tebbetts, a brother of the center, will play.

The two forward positions will be taken care of by Renneker and Sharpless. Renneker has been playing the most consistent game of any man on the team, and can be relied upon to make good. In the first game with Pasadena he threw nine field goals.

A preliminary game will be played between the Occidental preps and the Whittier second team. The line-up for the two games will be as follows:

Varsity—Forwards, Renneker and Sharpless; center, Clark; guards, McCaslin and Marshburn or Tebbetts.

Second team—Forwards, Beeson and Williams; center, Feeler or Wells; guards, Marshburn and Tebbetts.

The Presbyterians will line up as follows: McKenney and Thomas, forwards; Porter, center, and McDowell and Hillery, guards. Baer, Hopkins and Macy will be the substitutes.

U.S.C. Game Today.

U.S.C. will play Santa Monica High School a practice game of basketball, this afternoon, on the university court, game to be called at 4 o'clock. The varsity squad has been practicing earnestly every afternoon this week, and has developed a fair amount of team work. The line-up of the first team has not been entirely settled, but will include Hall and Fogel, forwards; Coloneus, center; Henderson and Swantek, guards. Richard, Deniston and Reid will also probably play a portion of the game. The line-up of the visiting team will be Moran and Cripe, forwards; Delphi, center; Hoyt and Bronson, guards.

Santa Ana Basketball.

SANTA ANA, Jan. 16.—The Santa Ana High School girls' basketball team will play a great game with the girls from the Riverside High School Saturday. On the same day the local High School boys will play the Anaheim boys. This latter game will be the last in the Orange county High School series.

MONEY FOR JIM.

KAUFMAN MAY FIGHT BARRY.

MARCH DATE OFFERED THEM BY MILWAUKEE CLUB.

Should Draw Good Sized House in Beer City—Date for Sealer-Nelson Battle to Be Decided Today—Last Chance Is Offered Billy Woods to Show What He Is.

Jim Barry, who got a draw here last Tuesday night with Sam Langford, may get Al Kaufman for his next opponent for a ten-round bout in Milwaukee in March, as it is understood that they can have the date at the Badger Athletic Club. From recent indications in the beer city, these two should draw about $10,000, and it would probably be a good fight while it lasted, with Barry an easy winner. If the men can be brought together, the match will be pulled off in the Hippodrome building, which is the largest place in the city for amusements. Barry is now in San Francisco, and Kaufman is supposed to be en route to the East.

Manager McCarey will probably know this morning whether or not Kid Scaler and Bat Nelson will fight here February 4. They have agreed on a weight of 133 pounds at 6 o'clock. Scaler was supposed to fight Frayne at Colma on January 23, and the different reports about this match being off or being on, will be settled by the letter that Graney sent from San Francisco last night to McCarey.

Until the date for this scrap is decided upon, it keeps the other fights up in the air. Nelson wants to fight Unholz on January 28, and the Boer would prefer February 4, but this may be for Scaler and Nelson. The Boer and Nelson have signed articles, and will probably fight February 18. If Nelson and Scaler meet February 4. The weight will be about 133 pounds, as both boys can get to this easily. The Boer weighed 141 pounds with his clothes on yesterday, and can undoubtedly make any weight Nelson can.

The local fight bugs are taking considerable interest in the scrap scheduled for next Tuesday night at the Pacific Athletic Club between Joe Thomas and Jack Twin Sullivan, as it will present Thomas to Los Angeles for the first time, and will prove his worth as a fighter. He says he can beat Langford, while Sullivan has drawn the color line. In the coming fight, Thomas will weigh about 168 pounds, and Sullivan, 160. The main preliminary between Arthur Collins and Billy Woods, will make or break Woods. If he is anything like himself he should win easily, and if he does, McCarey may give him a fight with some of the heavy middleweights.

Presley Recovering.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Jan. 16.—A telegram received here from Vancouver states that Coach George J. Presley, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, is recovering rapidly and expects to leave for California by the end of the week.

GETTING READY.

THIRTY MEN IN SOX SQUAD.

CHIEF COMISKEY CANNOT AFFORD TO BRING MORE.

Cannot Find Practice Games for More Than Three Teams—Near Champs to Leave Chicago Last Day of Next Month and Will Play in Los Angeles and San Ffancisco.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Jan. 16. [Exclusive Dispatch.] Comiskey has decided to take only thirty of his forty-five or fifty players on the spring training trip to California. He has several reasons for making this decision, but the foremost is that it would be necessary to charter a special train to carry the entire crew and their baggage. A second reason is that he fears he cannot find games for five teams in California, but is assured that three can be profitably employed.

A third reason is that the car fare to California and return for fifty ball players would eat up a good share of the season's profits, if twenty-five of the fifty should prove to be gold bricks.

According to the schedule, the big team will leave Chicago on the afternoon of Saturday, February 29. Club No. 1, which will contain the older players, will play first in Los Angeles and Club No. 2, made up principally of new men, will open at San Francisco. Then the older team will go north and the young fellows come south, and in this way, the fans of both cities will see the entire team in action.

Amateur Ball.

The Lions baseball team replaced the Angelus Club in the Valley League, at a meeting of the organization, last night. The Los Angeles Cubs were awarded the game played last Sunday against the Angelus team on the ground that the latter team played men alleged to be professionals.

There will be a meeting of the Midwinter League tonight, for the purpose of considering the amateur standing of Shortstop Scanlon, who played in the ranks of the California Winter League and now is playing in the Mid-winter League.

FIRST GYM CONTEST.

Throop and Polytechnic Teams to Meet at Pasadena in County League Series.

Polytechnic High School and Throop Institute gymnastic teams are to meet in the gymnasium of the Pasadena Y. M.C.A., this afternoon, in the first of a series of gym contests to determine the County League championship.

Five men will constitute each team, and the five events of the contest are the mat, horse, rings, parallel bars, and horizontal bars. The judges are to be George W. Braden of the Pasadena Y. M.C.A.; C. H. Price of the Los Angeles Y.M.C.A., and Capt. A. J. Copp, Jr., of the National Guard.

The Poly team is composed of Edwin Bly, Clarence Bean, John Burke, Jack Clark and Leonard Lindsey. Grover Adams is to be substitute. The Throop team is composed of Charles K. Ridenour, Graham Blair Moody, Herbert A. Shutt, R. M. Allin, and Donald B. Brooks. Shutt is the champion Y.M.C.A. gymnast of the State.

WRIGHT WINS AGAIN.

Defeats Kennedy in Second Night of Balk Line Billiard Contest—Each Man Plays Well.

Chick Wright again proved himself the victor over George Kennedy in the second string of 300 points in their 1000-point balk-line match, now being played at Berry's rooms on South Spring street. The scores last night were 300 to 228 in favor of Wright. Kennedy played a fine uphill game and ran his race, for he averaged 12 2-3, and this is good enough to win almost any amateur game on the Coast, in which Wright is not playing.

Chick's average for the night was 15 15-19, and he had high runs of 69, 63, 33, and ran the game out in the nineteenth inning with an unfinished run of 53, which he will begin with tonight. His grand average for the 600 points he has made, is 16 2-3. Kennedy made high runs last night of 57, 37 and 31, and has a grand average of 9 34-39. Wright now has 600 points to 349 for Kennedy, and they will wind up the contest this evening. A large crowd of interested sports saw the play last night, and much good work was done by both men.

SECOND TEAM WINS.

U.S.C. Girls Play Strong Against Santa Monica Five on University Court.

The U.S.C. girls second basketball team defeated Santa Monica High School yesterday afternoon on the university court, by the score of 12 to 7. The game was played in three ten-minute periods, and the home five led the scoring from the call of play. Miss Howells at forward and Miss Knoles at center displayed unusual cleverness, and aided materially in the decisive Methodist victory.

For the beach team, Miss Coe and Miss Hardine showed class. The contest showed the 'varsity second team to be possessed of a number of players of promise, and a good assortment of substitutes are available for possible first team vacancies. The line-up:

Santa Monica.		U.S.C. Seconds.
McComber	forward	Howells
Coe	forward	Oertiry
Chandler	center	Knoles
Muller	center	Hart
Hardine	guard	Walters
Spence	guard	Dulgmann

Referee, Moran of Santa Monica; umpire, Miss Gertrude Comstock of U. S.C.

Swims Under Water.

CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—Frank Sullivan, swimming director of the Illinois Athletic Club, last night established a new professional record for remaining under water, staying in the bottom of the tank for three minutes. The former mark of 2:20 was held by Finney, an English swimmer, and was made several years ago at Philadelphia. The Briton gave his exhibition in a glass tank, in which the water was kept at a temperature of 88 deg. Sullivan's feat was performed in water at a temperature of 76 deg.

Gotch Throws Two.

AUBURN (N. Y.) Jan. 16.—Frank Gotch appeared here last night in a handicap match, throwing Herman Miller, Graeco-Roman, and Charles Kaiser, catch-as-catch-can, each twice in forty-five minutes and thirty seconds.

OIL HEARING ENDS.

Government's Suit Against Standard Is Concluded as Far as New York Is Concerned.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—With the testimony this afternoon of William R. King, agent for the Standard Oil Company, in New York, the hearing in the government's suit to dissolve the Standard Oil Company were concluded so far as this city is concerned.

The next session will be held in Washington on January 23.

At the afternoon session today, testimony regarding alleged payment of rebates or commissions by the Pennsylvania Railroad to the Standard Oil Company on oil shipments was brought out. The government also sought to show by the testimony of Agent King that the Standard had made something of a practice of maintaining supposedly independent companies in New England territory and when such companies were well established they would be taken over by the Standard and their business absorbed.

THE CITY IN BRIEF

Those "long shots."

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

In New Quarters.

The United States Local Land Office will open for business in its new quarters in the Chamber of Commerce building today. The work of moving furniture and records was begun yesterday. The change was made necessary by the increasing amount of business.

Jail Term for Mail Man.

Mark E. Tant, formerly a letter carrier at Long Beach, pleaded guilty to a charge of delaying mail and retaining letters in his possession, in the United States District Court yesterday. Judge Wellborn sentenced him to a term of fifteen months in jail.

For the Bar.

Examinations for candidates for admission to the bar of this State will begin Monday in the courtroom of the District Court of Appeals. The first day will be devoted to written examination, and on Tuesday there will be oral questions propounded by the judges. A large class of applicants is promised.

Didn't Wait for Police.

A burglar was interrupted last night while trying to gain an entrance to the Huntington meat market, at Seventh and Main streets. He had placed a ladder to a side window, when he was discovered by a night watchman. Before the police arrived, he had abandoned the "job," but left the ladder.

Tourist Barometer.

For the first sixteen days in January there was an increase of $30 passengers on the Balloon Route excursions, as compared with the same period last year, evidence furnished by Manager Pierce that Los Angeles at this time is entertaining more than the usual number of tourists, and that the little financial flurry now disappearing did not hurt the "travel bug."

Prohibition Club Officers.

The Sixth Ward Prohibition Club, at its last meeting, elected as president, G. H. Spangler; vice-president, I. S. Smith; secretary, W. H. Carpenter; treasurer, A. E. Pulling; corresponding secretary, M. Hinsdale; organist, Miss Alice Houtz; musical director, Mrs. Holbrook; superintendent junior work, Mrs. Emma Blanchard; sergeant-at-arms, Mr. Yearsley.

To Entertain Sailors.

President William D. Stephens of the Chamber of Commerce has been instructed by the directors to appoint a committee of five to arrange for the entertainment of Rear-Admiral Sebree and the officers who will accompany him on the visit next month of the armored cruisers Tennessee and Washington. Mr. Stephens has not yet picked the men for the duty.

Santa Fe Files Heavy Bond.

Attorneys for the Santa Fé Railroad Company filed its bond on appeal, in the United States District Court yesterday. The undertaking is for $230,000, the amount of the fine imposed by the court, following the conviction of the Santa Fé for rebating. The bondsmen are E. L. Doheny, C. A. Canfield, A. P. Maginnis, Norman Bridge, J. R. Newberry, D. Freeman, Dan Murphy, W. G. Kerckhoff and Richard Egan.

Peanut Carts in the Way.

People who board the street cars on First street, east of Spring, during the evening hours, have great difficulty in avoiding vehicles of all kinds, and particularly automobiles, on account of a peanut-seller who has his cart standing where the car stops, with just enough room for a vehicle to pass through. When the new ordinance became effective, calling upon vehicles to keep not less than four feet away from the steps of the car, it was thought the peanut-seller would be moved, but he remains at the old stand. As the automobiles refuse to stop for even a crowd of passengers about to get on a car, the latter are compelled to retreat to the sidewalk, often at the expense of missing their car. The same condition exists at Second and Spring, and probably at other intersections.

BREVITIES.

Sunday Real Estate Liners. Classified real estate advertisements for insertion in THE SUNDAY TIMES must be in the office not later than 10:00 o'clock Saturday night. Other "want" advertisements for Sunday insertion taken over the counter until 11:00 p. m. The great volume of liners printed in The Sunday Times, numbering regularly over 5000 separate announcements, makes this regulation absolutely necessary in order to get the big Sunday issue out on time.

RUSTLER?

GUN FIGHTER'S BEHIND BARS.

Handsome Man of Dangerous Ways Taken Here.

Declares Charges Framed up by Union Miners.

Bob Brown, who might have been a hero of the Wolfville stories, and is one of the last of the old-fashioned gun men, is in the County Jail, charged with horse thieving.

Officers assert that he is at the head of a large gang of horse rustlers who have been working in this county. One of the men, declared by the officers to have been associated with Brown, is Charley Mays, a picturesque cowpuncher who ran a Wild West show for a time.

The gang is suspected of having run off the horses missed at Christmas time from the Bixby ranch.

At the present time two members of the gang are supposed to be on the way to Bishop to run off a herd of horses running wild in that locality.

Deputy Sheriffs Sepulveda and Mathewson are in pursuit.

Brown was arrested several days ago in connection with the sale of horses in Pomona that are supposed to have been stolen. He has been in the "detinue ward" at the County Jail on suspicion, but late yesterday afternoon was formally charged with horse stealing.

UNION CONSPIRACY?

Brown claims he is the victim of a framed-up charge and seems to think that he is persecuted as a result of his activities against the union miners in Goldfield. He declares it is a union miners' conspiracy.

He led a wild life there, acting as a deputy sheriff during the various troubles between the miners and the mine owners.

During the fiercest of the trouble there he was the right-hand man of W. L. Claiborne, the special prosecutor employed by the mine owners. Claiborne has arrived in Los Angeles to defend Brown from these charges, and yesterday retained Earl Rogers to manage the case.

Claiborne says that Brown is a man of vivid bravery, being one of the pluckiest gun fighters in Nevada. The day the trouble started, a year ago, there was a newsboys' strike, the miners ordering the boys not to sell any more of a boycotted paper on the streets of Goldfield.

Brown and Diamondfield Jack Davis and one other man went down the streets of Goldfield distributing papers and protecting others who wished to do so, overawing hundreds of armed union ruffians who swore to prevent the sale of the papers.

HE DARES AND DOES.

On one occasion Brown went into a meeting where 700 union miners were assembled and arrested three members of the union, not a miner daring to start anything, although all were armed.

Threats were continually made against im, and several attempts were made to assassinate him. They all failed because all the miners were afraid to tackle him.

One time an Italian miner murdered two or three people in Death Valley and went into the mountains, no officer daring to follow him. Brown went out alone and arrested him. Cornering him in a box cañon, Brown shot his horse from under him, and then held the man up with a rifle.

During his life in Nevada, he had a dozen hot gun fights.

His reputation as a gun man preceded him, it was feared that trouble would be had in arresting him here in Los Angeles.

Trace of his alleged operations was had through the attempted sale of some horses in Pomona. A man named Ridier, in San Bernardino, sent a man in to Los Angeles to see about them, and consulted Brown here. Brown at that time was working some sort of a queer game in which he represented himself as two different persons, Robert McDonald and Robert H. Anderson. He gave credentials to himself as McDonald and signed himself as Anderson.

DRAMATIC ARREST.

The agent sent to the city by Ridler was unable to give the officers any information as to the whereabouts of the other members of the gang because he couldn't remember the address of the lodging-house where he met them. It is asserted that they took him around the city, transferring him from one car to another, in order to get his sense of location confused.

When Brown tried to dispose of the horses in Pomona, it was decided to arrest him.

Three deputies were sent out; they found him on the street carrying two suit cases. Two of them went on ahead of him and one remained behind, all three drawing guns on him on crowded South Broadway. He was found to be carrying a large automatic revolver.

Brown is an exceptionally handsome man. He has a wife here, now staying at a private boarding-house.

PAINTER SEVERELY BURNED.

Sign Man Holds Candle Over Bucket While Pouring Benzine Into the Receptacle.

George Parks, a sign painter, was seriously burned about 6 o'clock last night by an explosion of benzine, while mixing paint in a shop at No. 232 East Fourth street. His hands and arms were parched and his face blistered. He was taken to the Emergency Hospital for treatment.

Parks held a candle over a bucket while pouring benzine from a bottle and the liquid ignited. The flames were extinguished without any damage to the building.

While responding to the alarm, Assistant Chief George O'Donnell ran into Charles Skoglund of No. 227 South Main street at Fourth and Los Angeles streets. The latter was knocked down and sustained a slight scalp wound. O'Donnell picked him up and took him to the Receiving Hospital, where the wound was dressed.

Bob Brown, Picturesque Nevada Gun Man, now in the County Jail as an alleged horse rustler, and who declares the charge was framed up by union miners.

QUESTIONABLE.

BOGUS GEMS HIS STOCK IN TRADE.

POSTAL AUTHORITIES ARREST AN ALLEGED SWINDLER.

Carbon Ore Johnson, Formerly of San Diego, Later of Riverside, Is Charged With Having Used the Mails for Fraudulent Purposes—Accused a Man of Good Family.

With the arrest of Carbon Ore Johnson of San Diego, at Pasadena yesterday, the Federal authorities believe that a clever bogus-gem swindle has been exposed. After a search in nearby towns, Deputy United States Marshal Franklin located the man in Pasadena and brought him to this city, where he was arraigned before a United States Commissioner.

Johnson was charged with using the mails for fraudulent purposes and was released on $1000 bail. He protests his innocence.

According to the authorities, Johnson first worked his scheme from San Diego, where he occupied an office in the Fox-Heller building. Later he went to Riverside and was about to establish branches of his business in other cities.

His scheme was very simple. First securing a list of prominent people in various cities of the West, Johnson would open correspondence with them regarding his alleged gem mines and lapidary business.

He would then propose to send the victim a rough stone, which he said was a hyacinth. "This stone will be worth from $15 to $20 when cut and polished," Johnson would write to his correspondents. "For advertising purposes, we will cut the stone for you for only $1.50. All we ask is that you show the stone to your friends and speak a good word for us." All the letters were written on letterheads bearing the name of "Johnson Gem Company, Fox-Heller Block, Fifth and E streets, San Diego."

Johnson is said to have represented that he owned several gem mines in San Diego county and that he could furnish all sorts of semi-precious stones at very low prices.

If the "sucker" would send him the $1.50, Johnson would forward a small piece of quartz, worth possibly fifteen cents, so the Federal authorities state. Some time ago, one of the victims of the alleged swindle complained to the Federal officials, and Postoffice Inspector Stewart was detailed on the case. As the result of his investigations, a complaint was issued.

"My arrest is due to a misapprehension," stated Johnson. "I have just learned that the postal authorities wished to confer with me concerning my mail order business. The letter miscarried and for some unexplained reason they caused my arrest."

Johnson, who appears to be about 30 years old, admitted that he was in the lapidary business, but denied that he had ever claimed ownership in gem mines. He asserts that he sent all prospective customers genuine specimens of hyacinth which would be valuable when polished. His past record will be carefully investigated by the Federal authorities before the case comes to trial. His family is said to be a good one. The young man, according to statements of his friends, was the first white child born in the Black Hills. He stated that his peculiar name, "Carbon Ore," was given him to commemorate his arrival in the rough mining camp.

WE'LL SEE THE FLEET.

Announcement Comes from Washington That Admiral Evans's Squadron Will Visit Nearby Ports.

Los Angeles and all Southern California will be given an opportunity to visit and inspect the battleships composing the fleet which is now in Brazilian waters en route to the Pacific.

Two telegrams containing this announcement were received in Los Angeles yesterday. At the office of the Associated Press, the following was received from one of its staff correspondents in Washington:

"Secretary Metcalf informs me that the fleet will stop at Los Angeles 'long enough for the people to visit the ships.' He is unable to give the exact date of arrival, as it is as yet unknown. Publication of this statement is authorized by him."

The other telegram was from Senator Flint. It follows:

"Admiral Evans promised me before the departure of the fleet that he would stop at one of the ports adjacent to Los Angeles before reaching San Francisco. I requested that he divide his time between various Los Angeles ports instead of spending all his time at one. The admiral said he would not decide this point definitely until he reaches Magdalena Bay."

MRS. SHEPARD'S FUNERAL.

Body of Well-Known Woman Will Be Laid to Rest in Rosedale This Afternoon.

The funeral of Mrs. Julia Shepherd, wife of George Shepherd of this city, who died on Wednesday at her home, No. 822 South Hope street, will be held this afternoon at the family residence. The services will be conducted by her pastor, Dr. Hugh K. Walker of Immanuel Presbyterian Church, and interment will be at Rosedale Cemetery.

Mrs. Shepherd, who was in apparent good health on the day of her death, was 63 years of age, and expired suddenly of heart failure. She was a daughter of Fielding Bacon, who died in this city some years ago, and was a well-known and popular woman.

The deceased leaves many relatives in this city, in addition to her husband. Two daughters are Mrs. C. E. Cooper and Mrs. Helen Horner, and one son, Charles Shepherd. Two brothers, J. M. Bacon and T. L. Bacon, and a sister, Mrs. M. E. Harrel, also reside in this city. A brother, John Bacon, lives at Visalia, and a sister, Mrs. L. Owen, in San Francisco. Her grandchildren are Helen and Hazel Shepherd, Charley Horner and Horace Appel, Jr., the latter being the son of Attorney Horace Appel, who married Clara Shepherd, now deceased.

VIGNES HOLDS THE LAND.

A decision in favor of John Vignes, an old settler who homesteaded land near Newhall has been given by the register and receiver of the local United States Land Office. Proceedings were instituted against Vignes some time ago by the government, to have his entry canceled.

SAPPING BLOOD.

JUGGLE ODDS FOR SUCKERS.

Layers Operate Cinch Book to Bleed the Public.

Pick Illegitimate Favorites to Deceive Talent.

Not One Truly-run Race at Arcadia Yesterday.

The benighted ones who wipe the blood out of their eyes from day to day and go back to Arcadia hoping to retrieve lost fortunes are finding it terribly uphill work. The twenty-two bookmakers at Santa Anita are evidently living in terror of that approaching day when the whole miserable vice known as the "sport" of horseracing will be thrown into the gutter.

News that Gov. Hughes is pushing a bill in the New York Legislature to make betting on the races in that State a felony, punishable by imprisonment, may well have thrown the bookies into a panic, for New York, California and Louisiana are the only States where horse racing still flourishes, and the tide of popular opposition to the game is rising high in the Southern State.

These things may account, in a measure, for the voracity of the Arcadia bookmakers; but even old-timers, men who have followed horseracing from city to city for the last decade, are astonished at the greediness of Lucky Baldwin's layers, of their unseemly haste to strip the suckers and get away with all the money there is to be bet on horse races in these parts.

The "knights of the chalk" who are operating at Arcadia are making what is known as a cinch book, and it is bringing them a steady stream of gold. Every horse which figures to be best in a race, no matter if he be a maiden four-year-old and ridden by a stable boy, is made an odds-on shot. Three or four of these kind of favorites are chalked up every day. Some of them lose, and the unfortunate bettors who tear up tickets on one of these odds-on favorites which lose are not likely to bet on another one for many a long day.

What matters it, then, if a majority of the odds-on favorites do win? The public is not betting on them, and only the professional gamblers who are "in the know" and have hundreds to win or lose on a race have any chance to take even a small percentage of the bookies' profits away from them. They say half a dozen bookmakers have gone broke since Arcadia opened. If this be true, they would do well to borrow another bank roll and get back in the game, for it is easy now.

ILLEGITIMATES WIN.

Yesterday's racing, viewed from a betting standpoint, was a repetition of the game every day for the last week or ten days. Three odds-on shots chalked up, only two of which won. One even-money shot beaten, and one 8 to 5 favorite fallen by the wayside.

A glance at the results demonstrates how tight is the book the Santa Anita layers are making and how hard the games for the merchant, clerk or bookkeeper who assays to beat it.

In the first race, Cruzados, owned by the owner of the race track, was as even-money, or 6 to 5, favorite. In his last start, Cruzados was left at the post, ran around as good a field as he met yesterday, and won handily. Yesterday he was a legitimate favorite on form and the public bet on him: Cruzados ran a nice, fat fourth. Bad horse, Cruzados, they say. Evidently. Bad game, too, this horse-racing game. If suckers weren't born every minute, how long would horse racing endure?

Round and Round figured many pounds the best to win the second race, was tipped by the "form sharks," made a 6 to 5 favorite by the bookies and heavily bet on by the "talent." Entrada, played by the wise few who know who is "trying" and who is not, won the race at 6 to 1. Round and Round didn't run as good a race with 94 pounds on his back as he did on January 8, with, 109 pounds up. On that day he stepped six furlongs in 1:13 1-5; yesterday he couldn't negotiate it in 1:15, and the track was only one second slow.

JUGGLING THE ODDS.

Timothy Wen and El Cazador figured to run right with Pretension in the third race, but the bookmakers made Pretension a 1 to 2 favorite, and gave the public 10 to 1 on El Cazador, and 3½ to 1 on Timothy Wen. At these prices some of the suckers bet on these nags, but the majority of them just stood around, dismally gaping at the prohibitive price on the one which was "meant" to win.

Of course, some of the big bettors played Pretension, and were there with arguments after the race that Pretension is a stake horse and Wen and Cazador are selling platers. But they forgot to mention that, when Pretension started last time, January 14, with less weight on his back, he opened at 3 to 1 in the betting, went to the post at 5 to 1, and ran like anything but a stake horse, finishing fourth to George S. Davis, Ed Ball and Gallavant.

But, then, the track was muddy that day, say the defenders of "the sport of kings," as it is demonstrated at Santa Anita. True, but there never yet was bred a stake horse which couldn't run in the mud, and, moreover, Pretension has won many a good race in the mud in his long and checkered career.

The fourth race saw a lot of spriers entered, with lots of lead in the saddles. Hereafter, the speed wonder from the DeArman stable, looked good to the suckers, who couldn't understand why the books laid 7 to 1 against him. They did after the race. Millionaire Carman's fast fill, Jane Swift, also received heavy play from the uninitiated. Burns gave her a nice, easy ride into fourth position, on which the books pay off nothing. The "wise money" was bet on George S. Davis, who delivered the goods, and the bookmakers divided the public's losings with these educated bettors, who are "in the know."

PUBLIC IS FOOLED.

Master Lester, on his last race, was installed favorite in the fifth race. He was a legitimate favorite, but, being a maiden 3-year-old, was a sorry kind

TWO-HEADED POLICE FORCE.

Long Beach Marshal, Ousted, Denies New Chief Has Rights and Holds Keys.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

LONG BEACH, Jan. 16.—Two police heads assert their sway in Long Beach tonight, one appointed today under the new charter, the other legislated out of office but refusing to give up. The case may go to the Supreme Court. Former City Marshal George W. Young holds the keys to the desks and private offices of the station and sticks tenaciously to his old chair. Thomas W. Williams, named chief of police under a city ordinance, has assumed charge of the force and is recognized by its members as their superior. He gave orders to the men tonight and was obeyed.

Young insists that, under civil service rules he remains head of the department, disputing the legality of the appointment of Williams by Mayor Windham. Young says he will stick to the office until the courts order him out. He has put the records of the office under lock and key so Williams cannot get at them.

Williams, after filing his bond, assumed command of the force. He announced that he would make no changes until Monday. He smiled at Young's claims.

BOOM!

FIRST GUN IN BIG CAMPAIGN.

STATE REPUBLICANS MEET IN NORTH TOMORROW.

Local Members of Republican Central Committee Leave for Assemblage at Which Call Will Be Framed for California Convention to Name Delegates to Chicago.

California's first step in preparation for the next Republican national convention will be taken at San Francisco tomorrow, when members of the Republican State Central Committee will meet to formulate the call and make other preparations for the State convention. D. C. McGarvin and Walter Parker of Los Angeles, members of the Executive Committee of the State Central Committee, left last night to attend the meeting. Several other members of the Central Committee are expected to attend from this section.

There are to be two meetings, both at the St. Francis Hotel, one of the Executive Committee, the other of the Central Committee. The Executive Committee will meet first.

It is believed that the State convention will be held early in June. It will name the California delegates to the national convention, which is to be held in Chicago later in the same month. Already there is skirmishing for places as delegates to the State convention, for the members of that body will decide who shall represent the State at the big Chicago convention.

Under the law, it is provided that primary elections shall be held on the first Tuesday of the month of May for the purpose of choosing delegates to the State and district conventions to select delegates to the national convention. The only exception is that, when the national convention of any political party shall be called to assemble prior to May 15, such party may select delegates to the national convention in a manner to be determined by itself.

The general belief is that Chairman Stone of the Republican State Central Committee, who will preside at tomorrow's meeting, will be instructed to name Sacramento as the place for the State convention, although San Francisco and San José probably will strive for the honor of entertaining the delegates.

WRIST NEARLY SEVERED.

Machinist Shoves Hand Through Window and Loses Much Blood Before Reaching Hospital.

Walter Hutchins, a machinist, shoved one hand through a window about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when he jumped from a wagon in the California stables at No. 373 North Main street.

His wrist was nearly severed and before he reached the Receiving Hospital he fainted from the loss of blood.

LINCOLN-ROOSEVELT CLUB.

At a meeting last night at No. 1033 Edgeware road, the Second Ward Lincoln-Roosevelt Club was organized, with the following officers: President, F. W. Fuller; first vice-president, F. W. Kepke; second vice-president, J. F. Hovey; secretary and treasurer, J. D. Simpson. A third vice-president will be named later. Frequent meetings are to be held throughout the ward, one being scheduled for next Thursday evening at Edendale. Committees on meetings and registration are to get to work at once.

LOVELACE READY TO PLEAD.

Charles E. Lovelace, former postmaster of Ocean Park, who was indicted by the Federal grand jury on a charge of embezzlement, appeared before Judge Wellborn yesterday, with the avowed intention of pleading guilty. The case was continued until tomorrow. Federal officials profess much sympathy for Lovelace, who has not made any effort to conceal the amount of his shortage. His friends feel that a frank confession may be the wisest course to pursue and they hope that the court will impose a light sentence in view of certain apparent mitigating circumstances.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

East Boyle Heights has taken the lead in securing tree-lined boulevards under the State tree-planting act. Districts have been formed for planting three streets.

Ornamental lighting systems are to be installed on West Twenty-eight street and on Sunset boulevard, the entire expense is to be borne by property owners on the street.

Vernon City may interfere with the completion of the Slauson-avenue sewer; a part of the route is along streets in the suburb.

Justice Summerfield yesterday took under advisement J. L. Pulliam's suit against M. L. Sinen for $230 alleged to be due for twelve cows, five of which the Siliens refuse to pay for because alleged poor milkers.

The Hollywood Home Company yesterday brought suit in Judge Monroe's court against A. H. Calkins and A. H. Conger for $2771, alleged fraudulent overcharge for grading done on the Pineapple tract, Hollywood.

Eugene Klein's $30,000 damage suit against the Santa Fé railroad came to trial before a jury in Judge Bordwell's court yesterday.

A jury in Judge Smith's court brought in a verdict of guilty against Max Sauls, accused of embezzling $125 from Miss Minnie Brown.

AT THE CITY HALL.

DISTRICTS FOR BOULEVARDS.

SHADE TREES AND ORNAMENTAL LIGHTING SYSTEMS.

Improvements Planned for Suburban Streets Promises to Convert Them Into Avenues of Rare Beauty. Districts Formed, Cost Will Be Assessed Against Abutting Property.

East Boyle Heights is to have the honor of securing the first tree-lined boulevards under the State tree-planting act. City Engineer Hamlin reported to the Board of Public Works yesterday that his office had completed plans and assessment districts for the following thoroughfares:

Lan Franco street from Mott street to Euclid avenue.

These three streets will be improved under the State law, which provides that trees may be planted along the edge of the street and the cost of planting and maintenance assessed against the abutting property.

This plan of street improvement is favored for streets in the suburbs, because it assures that all the trees on a boulevard shall be of the same kind, and that they shall be cared for until they are of sufficient size to thrive without special attention.

During the last five years several attempts have been made to improve street by lining them with shade trees, each time some technicality has interposed and the plan has been abandoned. The Board of Public Works hopes that in this instance there will be no delayes and that we may have a practical demonstration of what can be accomplished through the medium of the tree-planting act.

Concurrent with the initiation of a movement to secure shade trees, a number of thoroughfares in the west end are preparing for ornamental lighting systems to be secured through property assessment in a district formed for that purpose.

Assessment districts have been formed for lighing Sunset boulevard from Marion avenue to the western city limits, and for West Twenty-eighth street, between Figueroa and Hoover streets.

These streets are to have an ornamental lighting system on the same general plan as those in the business district, but in a modified form. The property owners form districts to pay for installing the lighting systems and for the electric current, after they are installed. Divided among a hundred owners the cost of lighting the streets in but nominal. If other streets follow the lead set by the enterprising west enders Los Angeles will become the most handsomely illuminated city in the world.

Tree-lined boulevards and ornamental lighting systems are long strides in the directing of the ideal "city beautiful." The district plan provides a practical way in which these may be accomplished.

FAVOR FOR FAVOR.

VERNON CITY AMBITIOUS.

The city's right of way men have been forcibly reminded that just outside the southeastern city limits there is a small but belligerent settlement that rejoices in the high-sounding title of "City of Vernon."

In mapping a route for the Slauson-avenue sewer, the engineers have laid the line of a part of it outside the city limits of Los Angeles and within the corporate limits of the City of Vernon. The construction department has found that it is necessary to secure concessions from the Vernon legislators before they can lay a sewer under Vernon streets.

At the City Hall yesterday it was reported ahat the Vernon Trustees are willing to grant this concession—provided the city permits the Vernonites to make connections with the city sewer. In this way they have visions of an outfall to the sea that will cost them nothing.

City Engineer Hamlin has referred all further negotiations to the Board of Public Works; he seems to be of the opinion that the Trustees of Vernon are inclined to drive hard bargains.

About a year ago the Vernonites wanted to become a part of Los Angeles. When the city declined to take them in they organized a city government of their own, and they are now prepared to take full advantage of all its possibilities.

FIRE LIMITS AGAIN.

BUNKER HILL WANTS OUT.

Residents of the Bunker Hill district will carry to the Council Monday their petition for exclusion from the fire limits. Yesterday they made their pleas before the fire commission, but the fire commissioners refused to recommend a change in the district lines.

"There are too many wooden buildings on the hills west of Broadway now," said Chief Lips. "If this district is placed on the outside it will increase the fire risk and the only benefit will accrue to a few property owners who desire to erect wooden buildings and let the city take the risk.

"If a fire should break out there during a high wind the danger of flying embers being carried into the business district would be serious. We cannot afford to take the risk of cutting this portion of the hills out of the fire limits. I am in favor of taking in more territory on the hills by extending the fire limits west to Figueroa street."

The property owners in the district say that they cannot improve their property by reason of the drastic regulations for building inside the fire limits. The rentals which they can secure are not sufficient to pay interest on the investment necessary to erect what the building ordinance construes to be a fireproof building.

RECOMMENDED FOR VETO.

SAY THAT COUNCIL ERRED.

The Fire Commission adopted strong resolutions yesterday, asking the Mayor to veto the modified fire-escape ordinance passed Monday by the Council. Commissioner Schwamm made his customary appeal for protection of the "common peepul," and strengthened it by a few striking references to certain members of the Council who are legislating, so Schwamm thinks, only in the interests of the rich, forgetting that they are placed in office to represent the whole people.

"That ordinance was rushed through because attorneys representing a few wealthy persons went to the silk-stocking members of the Council and said they wanted it passed," asserted Schwamm. "We have been asking for fire engines and fire hose for the protection of the common property, and we have been laughed at by the silk-stocking gentry. We are getting a class of aristocracy in the Council, and it is due to the people to aid us in breaking it up.

"The Mayor wants to give every one a square deal, and he gets roasted by some of these aristocrats for his democracy. It is up to us to defend the rights of the people."

A few minutes later Commissioner Schwamm rose to remark, when a protest against a smoke nuisance at the Los Angeles gas works was read, Councilman Healy went before the board to ask that this nuisance be abated; the company's plant is located in the middle of Healy's ward.

"I am glad to see Mr. Healy here protesting against the gas company," said Schwamm; "it shows he has reformed. He used to stand in with the company."

"Hold on, there!" called Healy, striding up to the commission table; "I never did stand in with the gas company and no man can say so to my face!"

Commissioner Schwamm shrugged his shoulders and concluded: "Well, at any rate, we are all glad to note the change in the Eighth Ward Councilman."

COWS CRIPPLED, SO WON'T PAY.

RANCHMEN DIFFER OVER KINE THAT ARE DRY.

Unfruitful Bovines Subject of Suit. Fraud and Overcharges Are Alleged In Connection With Grading Contract—Grand Larceny Charge Against Dawson Is Dismissed.

One blind cow, one so crippled with rheumatism that one day she walked and the next day she couldn't, and four cows whose lacteal streams give no promise of flowing according to schedule, were the cause of a contention between seller and buyers that came to a head yesterday afternoon in Justice Summerfield's court.

J. L. Pulliam, a ranchman near Watts, in December sold to M. and L. Silen, ranchmen of the same place, twelve cows for which the latter agreed to pay $230. With visions of abundant streams of milk to flow in the near future, the Silens drove the cows home and turned them into pasture.

But as time passed the Silens discovered, they say, that cows are not always what they are cracked up to be, for blindness, rheumatism, and barrenness afflicted five, while another beast, supposed to be a three-gallon milker, gave down but half that quantity.

The Silens sent the unfruitful and the rheumatic cows back to Pulliam, who refused to receive them, and turned them into the highroad, where they may be wandering yet for all the Silens know.

When Pulliam brought suit yesterday to collect the purchase price of $230, the Silens made answer that they would pay the amount, less the value of the five cows that were found unworthy, but for them they would not give cash, because Pulliam had guaranteed their soundness and lacteal capacity.

"One day after the sale Pulliam came to see me with some people that he wished to sell some cows to," testified one of the Silens. "He took me aside and told me to tell them that my cows were all right, and he would adjust satisfactorily all differences between us. I did as he asked, but he never kept his promise."

"Then you lied?" softly interjected Pulliam's lawyer.

"Don't call me a liar," exclaimed Silen excitedly, bouncing about in his seat. Finally he admitted that he had not told the truth about the cows.

"I never guaranteed the animals," said Pulliam. "I told the Silens that the entire twelve had been running about in a pasture with—er companionship that made it most highly probable that their milk-producing capacity would be good within a short time, but I never guaranteed the fact."

As both attorneys desired to submit authorities upon the points involved in the case, Justice Summerfield took it under advisement.

FIGHT OVER DIRT.

GRADER CHARGED WITH FRAUD.

That the Hollywood Home Company paid $2771 too much for the grading of the Pineapple tract, Hollywood, and that this overpayment was due to a conspiracy between A. H. Calkins, the grader, and W. N. Lundstrom, the civil engineer who measured the amount of earth removed, to deceive the owners of the tract, was asserted yesterday in Judge Monroe's court, when the suit of the company against A. H. Calkins and A. H. Conger came to trial.

In January, 1906, Rich and Roberts, then owners of the tract, gave Calkins a contract for the grading work and this was assumed by the Hollywood Home Company when it took over the property. In April, 1906, Calkins assigned the contract to Conger as security for money advanced.

According to the complainants, but 20,369 cubic yards of earth was removed by Calkins, for which $4219 would be more than the proper contract price, yet because of, the company declares, fraudulent reports made by Lundstrom, through conspiracy with Calkins, the corporation paid to Conger for Calkins $6989 for the removal of 33,263 yards of earth. The court is asked to compel Conger to repay $2771 to the corporation and to adjudge Calkins guilty of fraud.

Conger asserts that he holds no money for Calkins and that his sole interest in the contract was as security for money advanced to Calkins. Calkins asserts that no fraud or conspiracy existed and that the money was paid for work actually done.

PASSENGER SUES.

HEALTH AND PURSE INVOLVED.

Eugene Klein, a manufacturing chemist, yesterday appeared before a jury in Judge Bordwell's court to give testimony in his $30,000 damage suit against the Santa Fé Railroad for personal injuries received by him January 17, 1907.

Klein said he was a passenger on a Santa Fé train bound for Chicago. At Cliff, Ariz., a collision occurred between his train and another, and he was thrown violently to the floor of the car in which he was a passenger, sustaining two serious ruptures, nervous shock and other injuries. He says also that although the railroad officials were notified that he was in instant need of medical treatment they made no effort to afford him relief and treated him with no consideration.

At the time of the accident, he asserts, he was in receipt of $5000 a year income from his profession, but since his injuries he has been incapacitated for this work, and the income has been cut off.

TOOK MONEY.

ALSO SERVED IN SING SING.

After less than an hour's deliberation, a jury in Judge Smith's court yesterday afternoon brought in a verdict of guilty against Max Sauls, accused of the embezzlement of $125 from Miss Minnie Brown, October 4 last.

Miss Brown testified that when her friend, Nat Robinson, was confined in the County Jail last fall on a complaint lodged by the Federal authorities for sending obscene literature through the mails, Sauls acted as her agent in pawning her two rings for $125, that she might raise money for Robinson's defense. He first pawned one ring for $50, and then deceived her into believing that more money must be raised. She gave him another ring to pawn, and the proceeds from this he pocketed, going north the same evening. He was arrested in Portland.

Sauls admitted on the stand that he had served two years in Sing Sing for petty larceny, but denied that he had taken any part of Miss Brown's money, except $40, which she admitted having given him.

HAD A THIRST.

LAWYER GETS INTO TOILS.

Attorney Henry E. Wills yesterday represented himself in Justice Seiph's court at his examination on an embezzlement charge, in which Mrs. May Martin was the complaining witness. The examination disclosed that Wills went to San Pedro the 4th inst., on legal business for Mrs. Martin, and while there partook freely of thirst-quenchers. Whether the fluid was purchased with Wills's fees for his legal services, as he asserted in court yesterday, or with Mrs. Martin's money given him for the purpose of paying fines, is the point Justice Seiph will pass upon this morning.

Mrs. Martin said yesterday that the lawyer was sent to San Pedro to straighten out a case against two young women under arrest there. He told her that if she would give him $20 he would pay the fines against them, according to an arrangement he had made with the City Recorder. She gave him the money, and then lost sight of him. She asserted positively that the cash had been given him for no other purpose than to pay the fines, while Wills said that it was handed him as his fee in the case. Wills admitted that he had made a round of visits to San Pedro resorts, but insisted that the expenses of his jaunt were paid from his own pocket, and not from his client's funds.

HE STEALS PIE; GETS DOLLAR.

ATTORNEY REFUSES TO PROSECUTE HUNGRY BOY.

Starving in Midst of Plenty Lad Could not Help Annexing Pastry Like Mother Used to Make—Lawyer Lectures Him Then "Stakes" Him to Square Meal.

When a man is so hungry that old shoes would serve as a meal for him and when his eyes water at the sight of a pie, it is no crime for him to steal pastry like mother used to make.

This verdict was handed down yesterday by Prosecuting Attorney Fleming, after Harry Smith, a young man living at No. 277½ East First street, had been arrested on a charge of stealing a pie from a tamale vendor on East First street.

According to the law, the annexation of the dainty could have been the cause of sending the lad to the chain gang for six months.

He took it because he was hungry, had no work and it was the only food handy.

Smith arrived in Los Angeles early last week. He had no money and no friends, but hoped to get work. For five days he walked the streets searching for work. The big companies were turning men away. He could get nothing to do. He had a strong body and a good mind, but there was no work.

Up to the time of the money stringency, he always had had three meals a day. When his money became low, he got down to one dollar and finally to none. Then he begged and went hungry.

About him he saw men and women eating. The restaurants were filled with happy people, who had good things served them.

Yesterday afternoon he was faint from hunger. He had wandered the streets until he was almost ready to drop with fatigue.

He passed a tamale cart, laden with food. He felt he must eat. He waited his chance, grabbed a pie and ate it. He was arrested and taken into Police Court. A complaint was asked for and the case was referred to Attorney Fleming.

Fleming read the boy a lecture on the sin of stealing. Having done his duty as a City Attorney, the prosecutor handed the hungry boy a dollar and told him to go out and eat all he could hold. The boy went—and there will be no prosecution.

Stockholder Objects to Being Left Out When Fifty-Thousand-Dollar Melon Is Cut.

The equity case of Herbert A. Sibbert of New York against the Trinidad Mining Company and its local stockholders began in the United States Circuit Court yesterday. The plaintiff seeks to have disallowed a claim of certain stockholders against the company. The defendants allege that they advanced $50,000 for the investigation of the mining property, which is located in Sonora, Mex., and they want this sum repaid out of the treasury. Sibbert demands that all the stockholders share equally in the apportionment.

"She came into the office and handed me a revolver and said, 'I have shot my husband.' I asked her, 'Who was your husband?' and she replied, "He was George Bennett.'"

A little later Mrs. Corwell made another confession and again Attorney Appel made a hard fight to keep the words from being repeated. A number of witnesses were called to state that she was not warned not to speak and the detectives testified that while they had offered no inducements to her to speak they had not admonished her on the ground that she was not under arrest at that time. Finally the witness was told to answer the original question, and said Dr. Goodrich questioned Mrs. Corwell and the following dialogue ensued:

"Did you shoot Bennett?"
"Yes," replied Mrs. Corwell.
"Why?" was asked.
"Because I was jealous."
"Of another woman?"
"Yes."

As most of the afternoon was taken up with the objections the court adjourned the case until Monday morning, when Lieut. Murray will be cross-examined by Attorney Appel.

MINES AND MINING.

MINES BUREAU IS IN DANGER.

OPPOSITION HAS DEVELOPED TO ENGLEBRIGHT BILL.

Chamber of Mines Receives Letter from Congressmen in Need of Active Support—Provisoins of the Bill. Wins Thousand Dollars—Seneca Pays Second Dividend.

Unless communities interested in the mining industry come to the front at once with active aid, there is imminent danger that the proposition to establish a Federal Bureau of Mines will be killed by opposition that has recently developed in both branches of Congress.

This information is contained in a letter from Representative W. F. Englebright, received by the Chamber of Mines yesterday, and which was sent in reply to a telegram dispatched by the local chamber last week. In this letter comes the information that the opposition is based upon the objection to the funds that will necessarily be demanded to finance the new department.

In his letter, Representative Englebright says: "Your telegram of January 9 has been duly received indorsing my efforts towards the establishment of a Bureau of Mines. I shall be pleased to have all the assistance possible in the matter, as I find the proposition is meeting with considerable opposition, based on adding new expenses to the government. I forward you herewith copies of the bill and will be pleased to receive any suggestions or criticisms."

Occupying undisputed position as the mining metropolis of the Great Southwest, with a mineral empire at her very doors, there can be no question that the rejection of the new measure would work harm to the future of the city of Los Angeles, and every assistance should therefore be given to California's representative in the fight he is making. With the exception of the Chamber of Mines, no local body has taken the matter up in an urgent manner, although the Los Angeles-Nevada Stock Exchange has instructed its president to address the sponsor of the measure in a commendatory manner by letter. The Los Angeles Stock Exchange passed a resolution of indorsement three months ago, when the question was first mooted by the American Mining Congress, but nothing further has been done to strengthen Representative Englebright's hands. The Chamber of Commerce has taken no action of any kind. The time has now come when every possible effort should be made to force proper recognition of an industry that added nearly two billion dollars to the nation's wealth in 1906. It is only right that Los Angeles, which has profited perhaps more than any other city in the United States, should take a prominent part in the campaign.

The measure introduced by the representative from the First California District is known as House Bill No. 11,702, "To establish in the Department of the Interior a Bureau of Mines." It is divided into eight sections. The first sets forth the scope of the new department in a general way; the second provides for the appointment of a director by the President at a salary of $6000 a year and also provides for the appointment of necessary experts and regular employes by the director, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior.

The third section authorizes the director to establish a station for the investigation of explosives and other matters pertaining to mine accidents, to establish other testing stations, laboratories and offices, and to accept from any State, Territory, corporation or person any site, building, equipment or fund which he may deem it proper to accept. Any such acceptance shall be reported to Congress and shall not bind the government beyond the appropriations made by Congress.

Section four provides that the director shall conduct, free of charge, such tests or investigations as may be needed concerning the nature and most efficient methods of utilizing materials used in construction, fuels, metals and other mineral materials belonging to or for use of the government, or to any State, Territory, insular possession, or municipality. Provided that, except in the case of the government, such tests shall be charged for at cost.

Section five and six cover merely routine matters. Section seven provides that the President may appoint a national advisory board, consisting of heads of other bureaus or other persons skilled in one or more of the several lines of experimentation or industry to which the work of the bureau relates.

Section eight provides that the director shall prepare and publish, in editions of sufficient size to meet demand, first, annual reports embracing an administrative statement, and a summary setting forth the nature and extent of mine operations and production, the nature, causes and prevention of mine accidents; secondly, bulletins, circulars and special reports embracing results of inquiries or investigations made under the act. The printed matter is to be published and distributed free of charge, as promptly as possible, among the people interested in the industries treated.

Wins Thousand Dollars.

Arthur Lund, a well-known mining man of Goldfield, in charge of the Florence Gem's lease on the Cornishman claim, has won a thousand-dollar cash reward as the result of striking shipping ore. At the time the lease was started, Dix W. Smith of Elmira, N. Y., who, with his friends, controls the property, promised this amount if the superintendent would find ore that would ship. Last Thursday week a small seam was found that assayed $265 a ton. The drift was continued, and the streak widened out to a foot, assaying at the rate of $628. On Sunday the ore body widened to five feet, showing free gold in abundance, assaying $1450 by fire test.

The Florence Gem lease adjoins the Jumbo Ledge lease, owned by J. L. Boyle, Arnold Becker, F. L. Botsford and other stockholders in this city. They are naturally much encouraged by the recent find, especially as they have found fair values in their own ground in the past few days.

To Mine in Peru.

Charles Sweeny, Jr., who is at present a visitor in the city, after a trip of inspection to mining districts in Arizona and Mexico, will shortly leave for Peru, where he has obtained a mining concession. Mr. Sweeny is a friend of the son of President José Pardo, and through this friendship has been able to secure valuable ground. He will take with him a complete cyanide plant, which has already been ordered in San Francisco. Mr. Sweeny's father is one of the best-known mining men in the United States, and has made an immense fortune from the Federal Mining and Smelting Company, operating in the Coeur d'Alenes, and of which he is president and general manager. Young Sweeny was educated in Spokane, and later was appointed to West Point.

Seneca's Second Dividend.

The Seneca Mining and Milling Company will pay its second monthly dividend of $5 per thousand shares, January 20. The mining company, in which E. K. Foster of this city and several other local men are interested, is reported to be doing well. The six-stamp mill now working on the ore will be enlarged by the addition of ten stamps as soon as the weather will permit of hauling the heavy machinery over the mountain roads. The contracts for the material have already been let, and the machinery is ready for shipment. This addition will greatly increase the output of the mine, and necessarily increase the dividends as well. The stock is held by about ten or fifteen men, none being on the market.

Bullfrog Alliance Working.

The Bullfrog Alliance Gold Mining Company started work this week, sinking the shaft another 100 feet, which will take it to nearly the 400-foot level. At the 400-foot level, extensive lateral work will be done. The company has a strong cash treasury, with $75,000 shares of stock remaining unsold. It owns four claims and a fraction adjoining the Montgomery Shoshone Consolidated, is equipped with a twenty-five-horse-power hoist and pipe line direct to the engine-house. The Clark railroad runs directly across the property.

The shaft on the property is two-compartment, timbered with 6x8 square sets. Values in the shaft run as high as $9.85 in gold and $8.40 in silver.

Boundary's Copper Production.

The Boundary district, in British Columbia, produced 1,145,257 tons of copper ore during the year just closed. 15,000 tons less than the total for 1906. This is accounted for by the fact that the three smelters in the district were closed down by labor troubles for practically one-fourth of the year. The Granby smelter treated 657,627 tons, the balance of 495,390 tons treated in the district being distributed between the plants of the B. C. Copper Company and Dominion Copper Company.

Movements of Mining Men.

J. K. Walsh, formerly of Cripple Creek, has just returned from Goldfield, where he is interested in the Combination, Chicago Goldfield and the Gold Medal lease. He is making his home at the Lankershim Hotel, and has recently purchased a seat on the Los Angeles-Nevada Stock Exchange. He is heavily interested in the Forest Queen mine in Cripple Creek, which is shipping steadily. He is impressed with the superior attractions of this city as a mining center of operations, and will remain here permanently.

THEY'RE FOR TAFT.

Los Angeles County Central Committee of Lincoln-Roosevelt League Indorses His Candidacy.

Resolutions indorsing the candidacy of William H. Taft for President of the United States were adopted yesterday at a meeting of members of the Los Angeles County Central Committee of the Lincoln-Roosevelt League, which approved similar action by the State Central Committee of the league, and pledged itself to do all in its power to send a Taft delegation from this county to the next Republican State Convention.

S. A. Butler, former Republican candidate for Mayor of Los Angeles, was elected chairman of the Los Angeles County Central Committee, and Frank G. Henderson was named as secretary. M. Lissner is chairman of the County Executive Committee, and J. W. Rise is secretary. This committee will include Lee C. Gates, vice-president of the State league; Senator Charles W. Bell, assistant secretary; Marshall Stimson of the State Executive Committee, the various Assembly District committeemen and others.

STATE HARBOR QUIZ.

Members of Legislative Committee to Visit San Pedro Today to Inquire Into Situation.

Members of the Legislative Committee on Harbors, who have been conducting a hearing at San Diego, spent yesterday in Los Angeles, and today will visit San Pedro, where they will view the harbor and hold a hearing on matters pertaining to the State's interests at that port. Senator L. A. Wright of San Diego is chairman, Assemblyman Walter R. Leeds of Los Angeles is secretary, and others of the committee are Senators Edward I. Wolfe and Thomas J. Kennedy of San Francisco, and Assemblymen P. O. Johnson of San Diego, and Louis Strohl of San Francisco. On Saturday the committee will visit Newport, where elaborate preparations have been made for their entertainment.

Under the Senate concurrent resolution providing for the appointment of the committee, it is provided that the members shall investigate the conditions of the harbors of the State and make recommendations for legislation necessary to be enacted at the next session of the Legislature. The work of the committee is related only slightly with the hearing held at San Pedro Wednesday by the National Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors.

TWO DISTINGUISHED GUESTS.

The Yale Club of Southern California will entertain Prof. John Hays Hammond at dinner at the University Club this evening at 6:30 o'clock. He is a graduate of Yale, class of '76, and since his return to this country has been made professor of mining in the university. Maj. F. R. Burnham of Pasadena, who was associated with Prof. Hammond during the war in South Africa, will also be a guest of the club.

Teddy's in the White House,

"Mme." Gould ought to be compelled, for the sake of decency, to call both her puppies off.

It's all right to say that Sara Bernhardt is growing younger all the time, but it is not true.

Certainly the fleet will stop at Los Angeles. If anybody tried to prevent it there would be a mutiny.

It is now perfectly plain that Boni and Helie couldn't harm each other if they were to fight for a week.

After awhile it may come to pass that a woman will not want a man to fall in love with her for fear of being shot.

Chicago has a plan to discount the currency. Many a man has tried that same plan to his sorrow. It won't work.

Meskil says he could have whipped Policeman Connally in twenty minutes. The important thing is that he didn't.

In former times when a man was disappointed in love he merely pined away. Now he blows himself—with a gun.

Having sweethearts in every port, our sailors are in a position to enjoy themselves wherever the admiral may decide to stop.

Money is surely possessed of great power when it can cause such a fuss to be made over a dangerous idiot, such as Harry Thaw.

It seems to be clear enough that the coast defenses on this side of Uncle Sam's domain are not exactly what they might be.

Meskil appears to be a man who knows enough to throw up his hands when the warden of San Quentin has the drop on him.

Next year will come in on a Friday. Now if it could also be arranged to have it come in on the thirteenth, how everybody would dread it!

It is a wonder that people would not try to keep out of trouble when they know very well that by falling into it they must hire a lawyer.

It must be hard on Tillman and Jeff Davis to see a good fight on the other side without being able to butt in on it merely because of the ethics.

The cheap theater death traps must go, and if there are any other theaters in this town that are death traps they must also go or be made safe.

Among the new things we will have to tell the marines when they come is that Boyle Heights is too bashful to ask the City Council for anything.

"Even a woman must have money to live," says Luisa Tetrazzini. If this be true we are at a loss to know how the wives of some men manage to live.

Another thing to bear in mind is the fact that the more Kilkenny business there is in the Republican party the better will the Democrats be pleased.

We have no doubt that when Christmas rolls around again "Pop" Blanchard will be elected Santa Claus in the Ninth Ward by a unanimous vote.

Tetrazzini says she sings for money. There are millions of other people willing to do the same thing, but money seems to know what is singing and what it not.

Fighting Bob is respectfully notified that the anchorage off the Los Angeles water front is of the very best and is at his disposal as long as he may want it.

The gray wolves of the Senate who are on the trail of a certain great hunter are likely to find that they are merely furnishing him with the kind of sport he likes best.

As far as the public is able to observe, Abe Ruef is no more a prisoner than any other man and not half as much as some men who have never been arrested for anything.

For once we fail to see how Col. Roosevelt is going to pull any tail feathers out of the old gray eagle of Ohio. Foraker is now on fighting ground where he counts for something.

The Senators from California are not taking any part in the discussion but are simply doing what they are told to do as they promised they would before they were elected.

We don't mind saying that a fight which is for the appointment of Federal offices is not what the country would expect as between an "august body" like the Senate and the President of the United States.

Stoessel surrendered not to save himself but to save human lives that were under his care, and that were as certainly doomed as though hell was there waiting to swallow them. For this, one of the bravest and best soldiers in history is to be branded as a coward.

Even though the steamship companies shall agree to take passengers to Europe for $10, the offer should be well considered before acceptance. It is something like going to a church fair; the cost to get in is trifling, but it is what it costs to get out that raises the disturbance.

THE COURT WILL DECIDE.

The United States Senate seems to have forgotten the obligations resting on the members of that body known as "Senatorial dignity." This latter is a mutual affair, however, and is considered due only from one member of the "august body" to another. Outsiders presumably may be treated with any amount of discourtesy and such conduct on the part of a Senator to a person of common clay would not be deemed undignified so far as the Senator is concerned.

The President of the United States has incurred the displeasure of the Senate. The Senatorial resentment includes in its sweep at least part of the President's Cabinet, and may take in all the members. Party lines seem to have faded away into indistinctness in the Senate, and New England Republicans of the deepest dye of blackness as the optic nerves of the southern members take impression are working in wonderful harmony with Tillman and Culberson as if they were "yoke-fellows" pulling the same load.

Mr. Cortelyou, Secretary of the Treasury, is the member of the Cabinet selected as the lamb for the slaughter, but Secretary Taft of the War Department is the one really aimed at. The head and front of Taft's offending is that he is an aspirant for the Presidency. So are others. But the President has been pleased to express a preference for Taft, as he has a right to do, and moreover, the people of Ohio agree with Roosevelt in this choice of a man to carry the Republican banner.

Here is where the rub comes. The Senatorial aspirants for Presidential honors believe that they are handicapped by the preference which the President shows for his Secretary of War. Hence all the hubbub which has swept away Senatorial dignity like a wisp of light straw in a high wind.

The august Senators are "kicking against the pricks" and will get thorns in their toes. There is an army at the doors of the Senate more terrible and more irresistible than that of the Gauls at the doors of the Roman Senate so long ago. The Romans of august mien had sense enough to sit still and let the skin-clad soldiers of Brennus, alias O'Brien, pull their long white beards. The United States Senators are kicking and will hurt themselves.

Mr. Roosevelt cannot nominate Mr. Taft, and even the nominating convention cannot elect a President. The formidable army at the door of the Senate is the only power that can win the victory. The army is the rank and file of the Republican voters of the United States. It is not Taft, nor Roosevelt, nor both of these distinguished citizens together, with whom the Senators have their quarrel. The august body has to do with this great army of American citizens. Why is Taft a dangerous aspirant for the Presidency? Because the people are for him. The President is for Taft because he thinks the able Secretary would administer the government well and well carry on what remains undone of Roosevelt's work when the latter leaves office.

Here we get a stream of light which should penetrate the obscurity even of Senatorial prejudice. Reflect what would happen if the President had come out the other day and said: "I will accept the nomination at the hands of the Republican National Convention if that body with one voice, when it meets, declares that in the opinion of the members such a course is necessary to the well-being of the country and of the party?" One thing would happen first. The Senators would sit as mum in their seats as did those in Rome. There would be no insurrection and no sacrifice of dignity. The acclaim of the people would have so broken over party lines and swept the country that even the old War Eagle from Ohio would have been afraid to let out one scream. The indignation might have been deep, but it would not have been loud.

Why are the people so reconciled to the announcement that Mr. Roosevelt will not permit his name to go before the convention? Because they think that in the diplomatic, energetic, very capable Secretary of War they have a man who can be fully trusted with the administration of the government for the term following that of Theodore Roosevelt. This is why the people acquiesce so fully in the effacement of the President by his own act. This is where the shoe pinches the Senatorial corns. There are too many Senators whose business it is to safeguard interests other than those of the people. They know that Mr. Taft will stand for the enforcement of every law enacted by Congress and not repealed. They know that Mr. Taft will be President and that his ear will not be too wide open to Senatorial suggestion.

The Senators would do well to wrap their togas about them and sit down to a long, quiet season of thought.

MANY MEMBERS APPROVE.

The Times has received a number of letters from members of the Chamber of Commerce heartily indorsing the suggestion made by this journal as to the exclusion of wine from the annual banquet of that body. These letters are from gentlemen in this community of high standing, not cranks nor extremists, but men of good common sense, and moderate in the expression of their views, however earnestly they may hold them. They are citizens of Los Angeles who never forget other people's rights. We say a number of such letters have reached this office, and others are still coming in from the same class of people. If the action suggested should be taken by the directors, it would meet with very general approval, such approval coming in many cases from members of this community who are not prohibitionists.

"ALL THAT GLITTERS IS NOT GOLD."

The average American is celebrated for what in the West is called "horse sense" and in Boston is styled common sense. This is good for him, but it is bad for the diamond dealers. When times are humming there is nothing in the jewelry line too fine for his wife or sweetheart; but when scrip takes the place of currency the women-folk must go without gems. That which bears the endorsement of the clearinghouse will keep the wolf from the door, but the diamond has about as much sustaining power as the average breakfast food. There is practically no business done by the importers and wholesalers of New York today and more than half the diamond cutters and polishers have lost their positions.

It is interesting to note that a contributing cause of the liquidation of one of the firms was the possession of the Hope diamond, which May Yohe wore in the days when she and the gem were scintillating rivals. That jewel is valued at $50,000 and has been found to be just that amount of dead capital, for, in these dull days, the New York firm cannot find a purchaser for it. Even the Pittsburgh chorus girl chasers are keeping their hands in their pockets when it comes to diamonds.

The Hope diamond, like the Kohinoor, now in the British crown, the Orloff, the great Russian crown diamond, and other famous gems, has brought some of its possessors bad luck. No doubt the woman now appearing before the footlights of a Main-street vaudeville house wishes she had never seen the bauble, but as she says, she "played her own dope." This much is certain, the possession of diamonds is not necessary to happiness. The man or woman who lives a clean, wholesome life, performs each day's duties as uncomplainingly and as brightly as possible and who seeks to do a little good in this world need not sigh for the possession of Kohinoors or Culinans. Diamonds came to May Yohe and Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, and what girl in Los Angeles would change places with either?

The death of the poet Drachman in Copenhagen, recalls the fact that he was once given a reception in the City Hall. And it was not the cold reception that poets get in city halls in this country, either.

AUCTION, AUCTION!

REAPPOINTMENT OF POSTMASTER FLINT.

The Times hears with pleasure of the reappointment of Postmaster Flint of Los Angeles, and the news will give general satisfaction. Mr. Flint has proven an admirable postmaster. He is just the man for postmaster. He has been trained for the post, understands its duties and has the ability and the disposition to be a capable and faithful public servant. Moreover he is progressive and aggressive and leaves no stone unturned to promote the interests of the service and the welfare of the people of Los Angeles.

Postmaster Flint has his troubles. Complaints have come from Hollywood and South Pasadena since the extension of the rural delivery service to those suburbs. It was impossible for the innovation to be made without friction. Imperfect addresses, the absence of street numbers and of directories, must conduce to an imperfect delivery. The suburbanites are now having their "holler" and are entitled to it. But these troubles will melt away. In due time the carriers will locate everybody and the service will be perfected. This cannot be done in a jiffy; but the people may rest assured that their grievances will receive due attention.

WOMAN'S CHANCE.

The average woman usually dreads a big political year, such as this is destined to be. By the average woman is meant the woman who bothers herself about such trifles as her home, her babies—whether still in arms or grown up—her bakings and washings and all that sort of thing which was of interest to mothers and sisters and daughters when the country was in the habit of rearing men like George Washington and Abraham Lincoln and James Monroe.

These women will find the newspapers growing more and more uninteresting to them as the year progresses, for the reason that the amount of political news and gossip and the inevitable controversy will increase as the plots thicken and the fight waxes hotter. As usual, woman is to be crowded into the background in order to make more room for men, just as though men deserved it or were worth it. The sweet and gentle things of life, which are the things that women love and by which they have kept the world so that God refrained from burning it up in his wrath, will not be given as much space as formerly for several months to come because politics is on the boards.

But the women-folk should remember that the country must be saved every so often, and it devolves on the humblest citizen to lend a hand. Also they should remember that the average American citizen is so constituted that if he were not provided with a means of venting his patriotism he would burst. Politics is his safety valve. It is the thing that makes him believe that he amounts to something. No matter how silly it appears to a woman she must not do anything to interfere with a man in the throes of political patriotism. All a woman should do is to satisfy herself that her man is going to vote right. If he isn't she has the chance to take him by the ear and lead him into the true path.

ANOTHER OREGON SURPRISE.

The two O's among the States, Oregon and Oklahoma, the happy hunting grounds of fools and reformers, are bound to keep in the limelight. The former State has forgotten its referendum and initiative nonsensicalities long enough to get heated over the extraordinary question, "What is a 'like thing?'" The Supreme Court of the State has decided that a "like thing" is the same thing, which decision is as clear as mud. The story of how the great legal minds of Oregon came to grapple with this surpassingly important problem is told by the Portland Telegram.

Two men in Baker county assaulted a woman by beating her with a leather strap. They were armed at the time with a pistol and gun, as the complaint against them alleged, with intent to intimidate and prevent the woman from defending herself. This was claimed to be a criminal offense under a section of the Oregon code, which reads:

"If any person shall assault, or assault and beat another with a cowhide, whip, stick, or like thing, having in his possession at the time a pistol, dirk, or other deadly weapon, with intent to intimidate and prevent such other from defending himself, such person, upon conviction, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one year nor more than ten."

The strap wallopers were convicted and they got the minimum sentence. They appealed and the Supreme Court has just decided that a leather strap is not a cowhide, nor a whip, nor a stick, nor "a like thing." The Telegram is fulminating against the court and has spent considerable time hunting through the dictionary so as to be able to pelt the judges with definitions by the column. It has sad visions of the effect of this finding and sees men beating women with a rope's end, a trace chain, a section of a garden hose, and even the frazzle end of a length of fence wire, secure all the time in the knowledge that a felony charge cannot lie against them because not one of these article can be styled a "like thing."

At this distance it seems that the Portland paper is unhappy in its choice of examples. Any court might surprise it by holding that each one of the implements it mentions is a "like thing," but as for a leather strap coming within that category, Oregon's Supreme Court must be upheld, for does not the whole world know that "there's nothing like leather?"

STOCK GAMBLING.

Stocks are still low, and they are concentrated in fewer hands than usual. Spasmodic efforts are made to start a new buying boom in such securities and these efforts will be continuous and energetic. All kinds of inducements will be offered to draw in buyers at higher prices.

No doubt there are bargains in the market and those who know how to pick can make money. But there are one or two things to keep in mind. The buyer must have some knowledge of the market to pick right, and he should buy the bargains, not bet on the course which the market will take.

It will not be easy to start the buying boom. Too many burned their fingers the other day and money will not be plentiful enough for some months to make the game work easily. The need of money will create a desire to sell stocks. During the year about $150,000,000 will be needed to take up short-time notes issued last year and the year before by railroad and other corporations. General business cannot stagnate nor can certain railroad enterprises be put off definitely. These influences will tend to keep money from going to a level so low as to encourage great activity in stocks.

To meet the call for $150,000,000 to take up these short-time loans, how slick it would be for the "big fellows" who hold most of the stocks of these corporations, many of the shares bought very cheap during the flurry, to unload them at a big profit on the general public, who thus would be paying off the debts on the property!

THE PARDON OF STEPHEN A. D. PUTER.

[From the San Francisco Argonaut, Jan. 11:] The revival of Mr. F. J. Heney's interest in the Oregon land fraud cases is marked by the pardon at the hands of the President of one Stephen A. D. Puter, whose conviction something like two years ago was the first fruit of Mr. Heney's activities in the Web-Foot State. Executive clemency in this case comes at the request of Mr. Heney, who, it is publicly stated, intends to "use" Puter as a witness in other cases still to be tried.

Puter's case is an interesting one. He was a professional land shark, the story of whose operations makes the worst chapter in the history of the Oregon land cases. Whatever explanatory or mitigating circumstances might be urged in relation to other operations in government land, there were none where Puter was concerned. He was simply and wholly a calculating scoundrel, working by every possible devious means to enrich himself by stealing lands from the government. His conviction was a righteous one—the one successful instance in the whole of Mr. Heney's operations about which there was no possible question and no peg for sympathy.

In thus pardoning Puter, and incidentally remitting his fine of $7500, we have a complete sacrifice of the best results thus far attained in the Oregon land fraud cases. The prime scoundrel of the whole bad business is, at the instance of the prosecuting officer, acquitted of his crime, turned loose upon the community he has outraged, for the sake of such testimony, either genuine or bogus, as he may give against others. Not only is he given his freedom, but he is practically paid $7500 to serve as a witness. In other words, this precious scoundrel, whose conviction gave to Mr. Heney the best element as his reputation as a prosecutor, is to be bribed at a great price to bear witness against others. Fom any standpoint it is a wretched and shameless business; from a moral standpoint it is a stench in the nostrils of propriety and decency.

The case of Puter bears certain curious analogies to the case of Abraham Ruef. Like Puter, Ruef was the prime scoundrel, the one above all others who merited punishment. Like Puter, Ruef was convicted; and while his sentence has not yet been given him, he stands at the instance of the prosecution, like Puter, practically immune against the penalties of his crimes. Ruef, like Puter, has been bribed or sought to be bribed by immunity to give testimony tending to the conviction of others probably less and certainly not more guilty than himself.

The Argonaut has tried not to think harshly of Mr. Heney. It has regarded him as a hired gladiator, lending his talents in a cause in part just, but in larger part corrupted by the vices of business rivalry and professional malice. But no kindness of judgment can excuse the grossness of Mr. Heney's methods as illustrated in the cases of Puter and Ruef. Where is the justice of convicting gross and notorious criminals, if they are to be turned loose again? Where is the morality or honesty or decency in the purchase of incriminating "evidence" from creatures quite capable of inventing any story suited to the purposes of prosecution?

As illustrating the relationship between our so-called graft prosecution and Abraham Ruef, it has been noted that the chief evidence-getter long ago established himself in a close connection with Mr. Ruef as a personal and familiar friend. Mr. Burns, be it remembered, according to evidence brought out in court, rides and chums with Mr. Ruef and joins with him in convivial association as "a friend of the family." The same tactics apparently are being employed in the case of Puter, the land thief. Under date of December 31, Mr. Heney telegraphs to Mr. Puter as to one in friendly relationship: "President has pardoned you at my request. Warrant goes direct to warden. Happy New Year, and may you apply your undoubted talents to honest work." Here is a pleasant exposition truly of social cordiality between the agent of the law and one whom he has brought to [illegible] he may render him immune [illegible] stances of personal obligation as [illegible] willing instrument in the [illegible] advertisement for Southern California, as every county in the southern part of the State is included among the special write-ups. An excellent article on Tulare county appears in The Times, which we will reprint in the near future. Taken all the way through, this Midwinter Number of The Times is an improvement upon the nineteen which have gone before it. In passing, it is fair to state that the Midwinter Numbers of the Los Angeles Times have shown a constant improvement, from the first one, on January 1, 1888, a twenty-page edition with a circulation of about 12,000 copies, to the present one.—[Visalia Times.

Mr. Heney is an able [illegible] doubt at this point. His fault, [illegible] utterly distorted sense of the [illegible] things. His sense of right and [illegible] has been overwhelmed by an [illegible] parently he is less anxious to [illegible] than to illustrate his personal [illegible] cutor by finding distinguished [illegible] willing—or something more—that [illegible] shall escape, if thereby he may [illegible] among the less guilty but [illegible] spicuous. Apparently he wants not [illegible] tect and punish guilt as to hang [illegible] scalps of distinguished victims. To [illegible] fice of justice seems too great, [illegible] method seems too gross. He [illegible] moral successes to get "evidence," [illegible] against higher-ups—against those [illegible] or social or moral standing is [illegible] Shame upon such doings!

Large and Rich.

The Midwinter Number of the Los Angeles Times, issued January 1, is probably the largest number of a daily newspaper ever published in this country. It makes 174 pages of the size of Collier's Weekly, each of the six parts being thirty-two pages. It covers the whole of Southern California, describing in detail the scenic features, climate, resources and productions. The extraordinary variety of fruits and vegetables raised in the south is well brought out in a series of special articles, that are of great interest. The development of the tourist business is also treated in excellent style. One feature of southern life that is well presented is the great attention paid to libraries, schools and churches. Los Angeles has better libraries and museums than San Francisco had before the fire, and will have a collection that will be without an equal in this country. Each section of this number is richly illustrated.—[San Francisco Chronicle.

or garland of flowers, which hung gracefully about the neck and shoulders, and was most becoming to the handsomely-gowned women. The garlands worn by the guests of honor were particularly noticeable, as they bore the word "Aloha," embroidered in black on a streamer of yellow satin ribbon. Mrs. Wilcox was the recipient of special attention, and was presented with several souvenirs. The guests were seated at a large, round mahogany table, set with hand-made doilies and a gold service. A basket of maidenhair ferns occupied the center of the table, and a superb mass of splendid poinsettias, which had been sent by a friend as a special compliment to the hostess, completed the unique effect. As the party entered the grill room the Hawaiian Quartette rendered a march, and as the guests were seated the musicians played "Aloha." When you buy Lard you get more than you bargain for—It's heavier in your stomach than on the scales

Lard is a foe to digestion. If you had the stomach of an ostrich you could hardly withstand the ravages of lard-soaked pastry. You have probably found this out and already given up the eating of pastry. 'Tis wholly unnecessary! Anyone can eat and digest food cooked with COTTOLENE, the perfect shortening. It is a pure vegetable product, made from the best beef suet and choicest vegetable oil.

When you buy lard you have no protection as to quality—you simply know you are getting LARD—never mind the grade, it's just L-A-R-D. On the other hand, every pail of COTTOLENE in uniform—the product is guaranteed. You take no chances whatever.

In the face of these facts just ask yourself if you can afford to use hog lard when you can get pure, healthful, nutritious COTTOLENE.

Cottolene is Guaranteed We hereby authorize your grocer to refund your money in case you're not pleased after having given COTTOLENE a fair test.

Never Sold in Bulk COTTOLENE is packed in pails with a patent air-tight top, to keep it clean, fresh and wholesome; also to prevent it from absorbing the disagreeable odors of the grocery, such as fish, oil, etc.

NO OIL; JUST SAND.

IMPERIAL COUNTY CANARD.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

EL CENTRO, Jan. 16.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The report of a discovery of oil at Carlso Creek was not true. The man who recorded the location notices started the excitement by telling clerks in the Recorder's office that he had struck oil in the well. Local men believed the report, and made 118 locations on the desert, but when they went to the alleged well they found nobody there, and no sign of it.

No work has been done on the well for seven years. The Times correspondent was on the ground last Monday and saw an abandoned and dismantled star rig half buried in drift sand. He sounded the well and struck water at less than 100 feet, but there was no sign of oil upon the water. The machinery is as it was left seven years ago, and not a stroke of work has been done since. J. M. Holloway had been there recently and posted a notice calling the property, and that is all the oil development he has been doing in that region.

Why he filed relocations of claims is a matter of conjecture. He has not posted any new location notice at the monuments. All the notices found were seven and eight years old. Possibly an excitement would enable Mr. Holloway to sell his old machinery to some sanguine oil seeker. A Standard oil scout landed here last night, and this morning ordered a livery rig to take him out to the oil fields. After five minutes' talk with The Times correspondent he canceled the order and went home. Three wells were drilled west of the valley about seven years ago, but not a drop of oil ever was found.

Lompoc Lease.

A lease on a portion of the Jalama Ranch near Lompoc, an extension of the Santa Maria field, has been taken by Henry J. Crocker, manager of the Gracioza Oil Company, and other capitalists. A. S. Cooper remained on the ranch for some time studying the formations for indications of oil and the lease was taken soon after his report was made.

Albert Dibble, part owner of the Jalama Ranch is quoted as saying that Crocker and his associates have also leased a portion of the San Julian Ranch and that the rig is on the way to the grounds. This property is on the same anticline as that of the Bear Creek Oil Company whose operations are being watched with much interest by oil men.

Wheels Within Wheels.

According to the "Oil Industry," the latest publication to enter this field, the oil contract controversy in Kern county presents many amusing intricacies. For instance, the president of the Independent Sales Agency is said to be a large stockholder in the Associated and the Associated is said to own a controlling interest in one of the large companies belonging to the Independent Agency. Under this agency's regulations the Associated cannot receive oil from the company, and are prohibited from making deliveries until a price is arrived at. It is also stated that Mr. Porter of the Associated Oil Company has been invited to represent the company among the Independents.

ATTORNEY TO WED ACTRESS.

Miss Truax has given up the stage for Mr. Albert. Her last engagement was in "The Spider's Web." She appeared for the last time in San Francisco in December last.

ODDS FOR SUCKERS.

of an odds-on favorite. Four to five the bookmakers gave the bettors on this plater, while the "real horsemen" were quietly slipping in their bets on Lucky Lad. Of course, Lucky Lad cantered in front all the way, the odds-on shot running second.

And, of course, La Gloria won the last race. Every one knew she would, and wanted to bet on her, but the bookmakers said "Nay." One to four they laid on this erratic old lady, who is liable to forget which way she is running any time they send her six furlongs. The public tried to convince itself that Lee Harrison would beat her, and bet on this nag, at 10 to 1. Four to five was the best the books would lay on this 10 to 1 shot to run second. La Gloria cantered in, and Harrison got second, under a vicious whipping by Burns. Result: The books kept all the money. To sum up on the day:

There wasn't a truly-run race seen at Arcadia yesterday; the prices laid in the ring were felonious; there wasn't a contest worth witnessing in any of the races; the starting was miserable, as usual; the public lost heavily, and the bookmakers won several thousand dollars, most of which is needed for food and clothing, house rent and other legitimate expenses by the men who lost it. Cleanliness in Packing Foods.

is one of the great essentials in the fight for the safety of public health. Health officials are continually warning manufacturers and consumers against allowing foods to be packed in unclean wrappers. Even the meat purchased daily from your butcher should be wrapped in a sanitary paper. Paper made from unclean rags is not sanitary, therefore care should be taken by the butcher to use paper that is made from pure wheat straw, gathered direct from the harvest fields.

SHARPENING LANCES.

PLAN VIGOROUS CAMPAIGN FOR PASADENA.

Action Awaits Outcome of Discussion Incident to Proposed Resignation of One of the Members. Proposes to Retire in Favor of Some One Who Has not Served.

Office of The Times, No. 38 S. Raymond Ave.

PASADENA, Jan. 17.—The Federation of Men's Clubs of the various churches is undertaking a vigorous campaign against the drink evil, and is now only waiting the outcome of the discussion incident to the proposed resignation of George F. Abbott of the First Presbyterian Club, who is desirous of retiring in favor of some one who has not already served as president of the local federation.

The men's clubs are composed of the active male members of the various churches who desire, above all things, that Pasadena should be preserved as a temperance town, and who propose that no violation of the strict letter of the law shall be permitted. The clubs are also vigorously opposed to race-track gambling. The club has a programme that includes a general crusade without fear or favor, and when its plans are matured, after the retention or selection of a successor to Dr. Abbott, this campaign will take shape. The subject was taken up at the annual banquet last April, and has been prosecuted from time to time since. At the last meeting of the federation, the following officers were elected: Dr. George F. Abbott, First Presbyterian, president; Dr. Wilson, United Presbyterian, vice-president; Prof. H. C. Van Buskirk, First Congregational, secretary and treasurer.

ART COLLECTION.

Whether or not the millionaire art lover's collection of paintings, ivories, tapestries and exquisite works of minor art, such as snuffboxes of the Louis XIV era, is genuine or not, one who loves art must take off his hat to P. T. Brunsing, who today will open his collection to public view. Even if many of these, and among them the most important, are imitations, everybody but a sordid critic will take off his hat to the imitator. If one is fooled by such impostures, he ought to be glad of it.

Doubt cannot help creeping into the mind of a picture lover that such pictures are exposed for sale in this climate; but the eye delights in the loveliness that will be displayed to the guests of the Maryland and the general public today. Govert Flink's picture of three figures, a student perusing a book, and between him and a Cecilia-faced woman with hand dropping from a vial, the figure of the Epicurean with long classic wine glass, drained to the dregs, will cause study. It will give any person used to reading the allegory of pictures some minutes and even hours of study.

Since the Whitney collection, gathered by the inventor of the cotton gin, was exposed in Washington, the writer has not even seen such a wealth of color and art to pick and choose from. There is a Ruysdal marine view that opens the wide world and its possibilities to the imagination and the perspective of miles and miles of opening seascape, with here a church tower in the shore and there, again, a ship and many of them, graduated properly, gives the feeling of youth looking into the glorious future with inspiration of supreme conquest.

Then among all this is a poor little painting, the "Taking Down from the Cross," gilded in garish style of the old Dutch school—tinsel—but so perfect that when one takes a strong magnifying glass and places it in front of the eyes of The Christ the infinity of suffering is shown in a lifelike face. Then there is Mary, the mother, bending over Him in agonized love, and the glass brings out such microscopical excellences as made Durer and his school famous for the effects on the imagination. There are scores of others and the paintings, ivories and tapestries with here and there an exquisite piece of china are said to be worth $300,000. Examples of the work of Van der Does, Hedo and Von Leyden are among the collection.

RECOVERS A CAT.

On one day Patrolman Joseph Schultz of this city's police force captures a man accused of absconding, after turning an $8000 deal as an embezzler, and the next day he captures a cat. The story of the embezzler has been reported, but probably the tale of the cat is more interesting to the general public. The daughter of William R. Staats owned an Angora. Its tail is the size of a baseball bat and its fur sticks out like the supple quills of a porcupine. Two weeks ago this interesting feline disappeared and as cats love home there could be no theory that it eloped. The case was put into the hands of the police, and Joseph Schultz got the assignment. He followed tabby's trail, doing almost all of his work in his time off and tonight he located this expensive and much-loved pet cat away over on Bayley street, Boyle Heights, Los Angeles. The cat came back and was welcomed with open arms and many caresses, not only by Mr. Staats's daughter, but by the whole family, and Joe Schultz, who has a new baby of his own at home, was just as glad as if he were making his own family happy.

ELKS ENTERTAIN FRIENDS.

Merry and happy was the gathering of the Elks and their friends last night at the local hall. The programme consisted of a vaudeville and sketchy entertainment at the beginning and a good old-time dance to wind up affairs.

NORTH SIDE ENTHUSIASTIC.

Residents of the North Side met last night as what is known as the Lincoln Avenue Improvement Association. Without a dissenting vote they determined to build the electric railway from the intersection of Fair Oaks and Lincoln avenues north and then along Piedmont Drive to Millard Cañon. President A. J. Toolen reported that after full consultation with the engineers it was determined that the four miles of road could be built for $55,000. Subscriptions to the amount of $30,000 to the certificates or stock were reported. Of this sum A. J. Toolen, the president, raised $14,000. John MacDonald and R. A. Chapman, two of the best hustlers in that section, have been too busy during the past week to solicit or the sum might have been larger. Besides this a number of the committee of ten first announced in The Times a week ago were absent from the meeting on account of business in other counties. The engineers have revised the figures originally given out by Mr. Toolen as to cost. They have reduced his cost of steel rails and have raised his estimate of the amount necessary for construction or installation work. They have added to his totals for hauling and other expenses and have decreased in other ways. The object of the committee in charge of this interesting experiment in railway building is to raise $75,000 and then build the road without any stock or bond features. The builders will rent the road and cars to some individual or corporation to operate on a percentage.

LIGHTNING THUNDERS.

When It Strikes High Power Wire Report Is Heard for Miles Around Burbank.

SAN PEDRO, Jan. 16.—A stranger giving the name of William G. Vivian passed a worthless check for $10 at James Thompson's restaurant on Front street yesterday afternoon. It was drawn on the State Bank of San Pedro. Another check for $100, upon the same bank, was found in his possession. The man was arrested charged with obtaining money under false pretenses. When arraigned in Recorder Fred Smith's court this morning, he pleaded guilty and was sentenced to six months in the County Jail.

CLOTH IN THE AIR.

TENT CITY IS IN SUSPENSION.

NO MOVE APPARENT TO REMOVE VENETIAN VILLAS.

City Trustees of Ocean Park Declare Intention to Proceed to Prosecute Owners for Violation of Ordinance if by Today There Is no Indication of Intention to Remove.

VENICE, Jan. 16.—Tomorrow is the date fixed by mandate of the Ocean Park City Trustees for something to be done among the cloth or tent houses of what was formerly known as the Venice Tent City, but during later months has been denominated the Venetian Villas.

A new city ordinance makes it a misdemeanor to either erect or maintain houses of this description within the limits of the city. That enactment is now in full force and effect, but, by order of the Trustees, its enforcement as applying to the Abbot Kinney Company, was deferred until tomorrow morning, provided that by that time the company had made no bona fide attempt to comply with the provisions of the ordinance.

As the darkness of night crept over Venice this evening, the 150 or more tent houses of the Kinney company were in their wonted condition, and no movement of any kind was being made to either remove them or convert the cloth tents into wooden or asbestos houses. Abbott Kinney was appealed to in any effort to learn what he intended to do. He said there was no tent city, and that he had no knowledge that it was up to him to do anything. He spoke of circus tents having been permitted to be erected on the cricket grounds and on the Midway, and let the interview go at that.

President George M. Jones, of the Board of Trustees, was asked how the matter stood. He said the City Attorney had received his instructions to institute eight or ten suits tomorrow morning unless the Kinney company had not by that time become active or indicated to the Trustees that it was the company's intention to at once bring the tent city within the provisions of the city ordinance.

It is believed the matter will now be thrashed out in the courts. One or more convictions being secured, it will unquestionably be the purpose of the Kinney company to carry the case to the higher courts, perhaps attacking the constitutionality of the ordinance.

RETURNS TREASURE.

Jewelry Which Is Stolen by Burglar Is Sent Back to Long Beach Resident.

LONG BEACH, Jan. 16.—About a year ago the residence of Capt. Harry Palmer, on American avenue, was entered by burglars and a quantity of jewelry was stolen. Today Capt. Palmer received a letter, written in an evidently-disguised hand, and containing the following note: "Rev. Palmer: A repentant burglar sends back your gold." Enclosed was a valuable sapphire ring belonging to Mrs. Palmer and among the articles stolen. Capt. Palmer is now hoping that conviction will strike the erring one hard enough to recover the balance of the jewelry.

A big English sailing vessel, carrying three masts, sailed in close to the pier last night and anchored until this morning, when she proceeded to the harbor, which her steersman had guised in the darkness.

Robert L. McKinley, a plumber, was found late last night on Ocean avenue, between Chestnut and Cedar streets. He was unconscious and bleeding, and did not recover consciousness until this afternoon. He is unable to recall how the accident occurred, and although not a drinking man cannot recollect anything after he boarded a street car in Los Angeles and started homeward. He says he was sleepy and the theory is, that, roused partially by the conductor calling his street, he rose and walked off the car while it was in motion. No bones were broken, but he is badly bruised and shaken up and has a cut over the left eye.

A large black shepherd dog died on the outer wharf last night, with symptoms of poisoning. No one claimed him and the carcass was given a sea burial.

Anson Bennett, wife and daughter, Miss Dora, who arrived here two weeks ago in a covered wagon, in which they left Pilger, Neb., ten months ago, departed early this morning to "do" the rest of California. They are a refined and educated family, traveling overland merely for adventures. They travel in a large wagon conveniently fitted up and cosy, drawn by one team, which, well taken care of, shows no sign of weariness. The Bennetts came by way of the Yosemite and Yellowstone Park and from here are en route to San Diego. Eventually they will reach Napa, Idaho, where they have a pleasant home.

The ship came by way of Cherbourg, thence by way of the Cape of Good Hope across the Indian Ocean to Hobart, Tasmania, where a stop of several days was made. The Davout is of 1710 tons burthen and brings a cargo of 12,500 barrels of cement, several hundred tons of coke and a cargo of wines and brandies consigned to Balfour, Guthrie & Co. of Los Angeles. She is a four-master, square rigged on the first three masts and schooner rigged on the other. She will remain in the harbor about three weeks.

Recovers Her Hairpins.

Swallowing a hairpin when she was 18 years of age and having it taken from her side twenty-three years later was the peculiar experience of Mrs. John Shook, living south of Bryan, O. The hairpin gave her little trouble until last year, when she had an almost constant pain in her right side. An X-ray examination disclosed the pin, which almost had been forgotten by the woman. It was found an inch beneath the skin, just above the hip, and was easily removed by a doctor.—[Cincinnati Enquirer.

LAW DISREGARDED.

DEMAND WARRANT FOR POLICEMAN.

YOUNG MEN ILLEGALLY ARRESTED SEEK REDRESS.

File Complaint for Battery Against Patrolman Pautz, but Matter Is Held up Pending Investigation—Officer Says He Mistook His Victims for Hobos and They Defied Him.

Police officials have been called upon to investigate the charges made by Lawrence L. Stevens and Hugh R. Stevens of North Beaudry avenue, who accuse Patrolman Pautz of having assaulted them. Yesterday a warrant charging Patrolman Pautz with battery was asked for. The request was laid over pending inquiry into the case.

The two young men who declare their intention of filing charges against Pautz with the Police Commission are employes of the city water department, and are well known to city officials as well as to many others.

Both are men of refinement and education. According to the story told by them they left Elysian Park Wednesday evening, after having completed the installation of water pipes there. As they reached the park wall they were hailed by two roughly-dressed men, who ordered them to state their names and business. Both allege that Pautz handled them roughly, and dislocated the right wrist of Lawrence Stevens by placing a handcuff on him and dragging him through the streets. They further charge that the park officer bullied and threatened them, and that neither of the officers showed stars until after hostilities had begun. The Stevens boys mistook Pautz and the park officer for river-bed hobos, against whom they had been warned. The officers were searching for hobos in the river bed, and assert they mistook the Stevens boys for tramps.

The young men allege that Pautz jerked them along, holding one man captive with a handcuff and making a spectacle of him on the public streets. They further allege that they were taken to the East Side Station, and held there forty-minutes, until Pautz released them, after warning them to keep still about the affair.

Pautz alleges that the men resisted arrest after he had demanded to know their business in the river bed, and had shown them his star. He admits having handcuffed Stevens, but declares he did it only after Stevens had sworn and used violent language and threatened to fight.

"I put the cuff on him to quiet him and prevent him acting so that I would have to use my club on him," said Pautz. "These men came along by the river. They were roughly dressed, and we stood them up for hobos. They became angered, and threatened to have us fired. Hobos always act in this way. We asked the men to tell us their names and business. They refused, and cursed at our stars. I put the cuff on one and took him to the East Side Station, and it was some time before he would tell us who he was, and where he lived."

The men say they will demand an investigation of the case by the Police Commission, and an inquiry into the system of illegal arrests practiced in Los Angeles, commonly called "on suspicion." The law states specifically when, by whom, and under what circumstances an arrest may be made legally. Pauts and other members of the police force pay little attention to this law.

CRITICISM IS RESENTED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 16.—Edwin Whitaker, inspector of police, entered the office of the Morning World here tonight, and fired two shots at Joseph M. Leveque, the editor. Neither shot took effect.

The shooting followed several attacks upon Whitaker in the editorial and news columns of the World. The head of the New Orleans police department was criticised for "attending the races daily while drawing a salary of $8000 a year from the people," and was referred to as "a blackguard and a bully."

One of the reporters rushed to the editor's aid, struck the police inspector's arm and caused the shots to go wild.

SINKS TO DEATH.

CIDE OF PATIENT AT THE PATTON HOSPITAL.

Tying One End of the Cloth through the Steel Mesh of the Window, Knots the Other About His Neck and Steps from the Bed. Verdict Dismissed.

SAN BERNARDINO, Jan. 16.—Eugene Copeland, 29 years old, committed suicide at the Southern California State Hospital at Patton from Riverside, about two weeks ago, ended his life this morning shortly after 6 o'clock by hanging himself from a window with a sheet. The body was found at 7:30 o'clock by one of the patients, who informed Copeland's room to do his work. At 6 o'clock the regular hourly round of the wards was made, the guards finding Copeland apparently sound asleep. The man having charge of the work in the closet, who made the discovery, reported it, but life was extinct before the unfortunate could be cut down.

Copeland had stood on his bed and strung one end of the sheet through the mesh over the window, knotted the other end about his neck and then stepped from the bed. His feet were but eight inches of the floor, and death was due to strangulation. Copeland was in Hemet. He had been ill with religious mania, and was confined to his bed.

BACK FROM HART.

County Surveyor M. L. Cook returned this morning from Hart, the lumber camp near Manvel. He confirms the reports being sent out by moonlight regarding the richness of the new mining field are not overdrawn. The population numbers 1000. There are a number of saloons and houses, and efforts are being made to secure saloon licenses. A postoffice has been located for Hart, and one has been encountered. The valley separated sections, which is similar to those which have been found in Goldfield and Bullfrog fashion. It is believed that these ores are an extension of the Nevada ores, and also those which have been found by the Quartette company in Death Valley.

CASE IS DISMISSED.

The preliminary examination of Mrs. Eva Johnson of Anaheim today, charged with the murder of Mrs. Eva Johnson of Anaheim, was dismissed the information discharged the prisoner, Deputy District Attorney W. Miners arrived here this morning from Rawhide, Nev., which he reports is showing colors as a promising mining camp in the southwest of the Southwest. It is said that within three months the camp has acquired a population of 1000 people, three banks, three stage lines, two telephone systems, and is developing property which shows an unusual amount of high-grade, free-milling ore.

PROMISING PROSPECT.

Work of the grading outfit under Contractor Desmond has been transferred from Yuma, Ariz., to work on dam sites, where it is persistently reported the Southern Pacific will increase the force of men and material at work on closing the gap between the present terminus of the Southern Pacific Railroad and the city of Yuma. It is reported that the California-Mexico Land and Cattle Company has made overtures to such inducements that it is probable that the gap will be closed without further delay, and before midsummer through trains will be running over the new line to Los An-

Miss Allis Miller Entertains and Is Presented With Loving Cup—Most Brilliant Affair of Season—Bank Elects Officers—Active Demand for Orange Groves.

RIVERSIDE, Jan. 16.—A notably brilliant society event of the winter was the cotillion given at the Glenwood, last evening, in honor of Miss Allis Miller. The floral decorations were on the most lavish scale. The ceiling of the long reception hall was hidden by a lattice of smilax, dotted with three thousand red carnations. The pillars were garlanded with smilax, and among the soft green shone miniature red and blue incandescent lights. One thousand American beauty roses, as well as asparagus ferns were used in the refectory, where supper was served.

The grand march was led by Miss Miller and Wyclif Taylor. A pretty feature was the May pole dance, participated in by a score of the guests. The favors were bells, silk flags, and corsage bouquets for the ladies and boutonnieres for the men. An incident after the supper was the presentation to Miss Miller of a beautiful loving cup, the speech being made by Leonard Joseph of New York.

Mrs. Eva Howe, Mrs. A. Shinkle, Jr., Mrs. Capen of New York, Mrs. Alice Richardson and Mrs. Lillian F. Frost assisted in receiving.

PREACHER HELPS CUPID.

A little romance that had its beginning in St. James Methodist Church, Los Angeles, was culminated in Riverside yesterday, when K. Leroy Hamman claimed as his bride Miss Maud Gockley. Rev. Robert S. Fisher, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Riverside, was formerly pastor of St. James Church, and because of the assistance he had given Dan Cupid in the romance, he was selected to officiate at the wedding. Mr. Hamman was the first member whom Mr. Fisher received into St. James Church in his pastorate there. Taking a particular liking to the young man, he called his attention to the charms of Miss Gockley, one of his interesting young parishioners, and brought about an introduction. It was a case of love at first sight, and when the wedding date was set, both bride and groom agreed that the nuptials should take place in Riverside. Mr. Hamman is cashier of a lumber company in South Pasadena, and he and his bride will make their home there.

QUIETLY WEDDED.

Jesse Oatman, a well-known orange grower, and Mrs. Cora May Gilliland, who were defendants in two somewhat sensational divorce suits in the Superior Court a year ago, were quietly married this evening. Both of the final decrees of divorce were granted by Judge Densmore today. Forthwith the marriage license was secured, and the wedding took place at the home of Rev. Dr. George H. Deere, pastor emeritus of All Souls' Universalist Church.

RIVERSIDE RIPPLES.

Frank A. Miller returned last night from Yosemite Valley, when he went to look over the ground preliminary to the selection of a site for the million-dollar hotel which he is to build there. Mrs. Miller accompanied him, as did A. B. Benton of Los Angeles, the architect of the Glenwood Mission Inn. Mr. Miller reports that there is at present about two inches of snow on the floor of the Yosemite Valley, and about a foot on the higher elevations.

F. H. Stetson, who, in a temporary fit of mental aberration, held up the Santa Fé train at Perris Tuesday, will not be subjected to an examination as to his sanity. His father, who is one of the leading citizens of Hemet, arrived in Riverside this morning and took the young man in charge. He explains that his son is subject to epileptic fits, which at times makes him irresponsible.

Berchgrevink, Mrs. Raymon Cree, Dr. Louise Harvey Clarke, Mrs. Franklin Strunk, Mrs. H. A. Plimpton, Mrs. Sarah J. Ford, Mrs. L. H. Guffin, Mrs. O. L. Moorman, Mrs. J. F. Hanna, Mrs. J. R. ENGINEER OF LA JOLLA TRAIN DIES BENEATH CAB.

Fireman Frightfully Scalded While Held Down in Wreck and His Injuries May Prove Fatal—War Vessels Sail from San Diego for Magdalena Bay—Bay City Notes.

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 16.—The suburban train which left this city at 1:55 o'clock this afternoon, bound for La Jolla, jumped the track at the corner of Pierce and California streets, and the engine and tender went into the ditch. Engineer Thomas H. Robertson was caught beneath the engine and his life was crushed out, while Thomas Fitzgerald, the fireman, was so badly injured that his life is despaired of.

The cause of the accident has not been definitely ascertained, but it is believed the track had been loosened so that one of the rails slipped out of position. Both Robertson and Fitzgerald reside at La Jolla.

Robertson leaves a widow, son and daughter. Fitzgerald is married and has a wife and two sons. The latter was frightfully scalded by hot steam while held down in the wreck.

WAR VESSELS SAIL.

The cruiser Charleston, flagship of Admiral Swinburne, accompanied, by the torpedo-boat destroyers Preble and Perry, sailed today for Magdalena Bay. Admiral Swinburne states that the Charleston will be at Magdalena Bay for seven weeks, indulging in target practice as soon as the vessels of Admiral Dayton's and Admiral Sebree's fleets are out of the way. Admiral Dayton is expected to start north about the end of the month for Mare Island and at the same time Sebree's pathfinders will sail from the target grounds for this port. The cruisers Milwaukee and St. Louis, now at Mare Island and attached to Admiral Swinburne's command, are expected to join him at Magdalena.

The rumor that Admiral Swinburne is to be transferred to the "big four" squadron before he retires in the summer of 1909 is confirmed.

BUTCHERS ARRESTED.

H. P. Burns, Charles H. Schmidt, Dennis J. Gibbs, William H. Elliott, and William Burkhardt, all prominent retail butchers of this city, are under arrest, charged with selling adulterated meats. The complaints are sworn to by Dr. F. H. Mead, City Health Officer. The arrests are the result of investigations made at all the butcher shops. The inspection of twelve other shops failed to show presence of chemical preservatives.

JOHNSON'S SURPRISE.

Peter Johnson, who has become famous through his management of the "Silver Moon" saloon, in the tenderloin district, sprang a surprise after the jury had been selected in the city Police Court yesterday, by proving that he was not the owner of the place when the raid was made by the police, and he was arrested on the charge of selling liquor without a license. Peter Brunoit, the admitted proprietor, was then arrested and in view of the fact that he had recently forfeited $300 bail on the charge of being a bartender at the joint, sentence was suspended.

MISER'S BIG ESTATE.

The appraisers, F. S. Banks, George McCain and T. W. Hickey, have placed the value of the Edward McGurck estate at $244,534, of which $195,500 is real estate. McGurck lived a miserly life and but little was known concerning him. In his will, drawn by himself, he bequeaths his property to his brothers and sisters, but does not name any of them, and to date none of them has been heard from, although many letters of inquiry have been received from alleged more distant relatives.

FINANCIAL SKY CLEARS.

An indication of the improvement in the local financial conditions is found in the fact that one of the bank and trust companies has announced that hereafter notice of the withdrawal of deposits will not be required. The bank will also allow reasonable checking facilities against interest-bearing accounts.

ODD FELLOWS DINE.

The officers of the several Odd Fellow lodges of the city were jointly installed yesterday afternoon and evening at the new Elks' Hall. The officers of the Encampment and the Canton were installed by Col. H. S. Brown of Los Angeles. At the banquet in the evening the speakers included F. E. Pierce, grand patriarch of the Grand Encampment and Mrs. Ella Van Court, grand president of the Rebekah assembly.

CITRUS GROVES TO MULTIPLY ABOUT IMPERIAL.

Considerable Areas to Be Set to Fruit Which Is Expected to Supply Earliest Sent Out from Southern California—Two Cantaloupe Associations to Handle the Crop.

IMPERIAL, Jan. 15.—Developments of the past few weeks indicate that the Imperial Valley is soon to become an important citrus-fruit section, one which, according of calculation, will supply the markets with the earliest oranges shipped from Southern California. The success achieved in orange raising on a limited scale at various points in the valley has interested practical orange growers from Riverside county, and within the next few months there will be a large number of orange trees set out, especially in the immediate vicinity of Imperial.

A. A. Cox of Colton has purchased a quarter section just outside the town of Imperial, on which he will plant oranges, and H. W. Brimmer, also of Colton, has purchased of ex-Senator Blair a quarter section, part of which lies within the townsite. He will set the entire property to oranges and grapes. Both purchasers are experienced growers of citrus fruits, and are certain that a great future awaits Imperial Valley as an orange-producing center. B. A. Bemis and the Record Bros. of Riverside, are planning to plant a tract to oranges northeast of Calexico. G. A. Parkys will set out many orange trees on his large ranch near Holtville; extensive planting is to take place in the vicinity of Brawley, and there will be numerous small tracts set within the next few months.

IMPERIAL VALLEY NOTES.

Two cantaloupe associations will handle the melon crop at Imperial the coming season. Each will erect a packing-house here.

Virgil Shepherd is to represent the Imperial Valley Union High School in the oratorical contest between the high schools of Southern California, to be held in Pasadena, February 21.

The corps of government surveyors working on the lines for Imperial Valley has moved its headquarters to the vicinity of Brawley. It is expected that the government survey will be completed by the first of June.

J. W. George has shipped from Perris to Imperial two carloads of bees, hives and apiary equipment. He will establish two bee colonies in this vicinity.

Col. Epes Randolph has been here to confer with officials of the California Development Company, and he declares that the construction on the canal for Water Company No. 8 will be pushed through rapidly. H. T. Cory, general manager of the California Development Company, says water will be flowing through the new canal early in February.

RHEUMATISM

I want every chronic rheumatic to throw away all medicines, all liniments, all plasters, and give MUNYON'S 6X RHEUMATISM CURE a trial. No matter what your doctor may say, no matter how prejudiced you may be against all advertised remedies, go at once to your druggist and get a bottle of the 6X RHEUMATISM CURE. There are 180 doses in a bottle, and as one lady says, "Every tablet is worth more than a dozen of the same else." A few doses will take away all aches and pains, and a cure generally follows before one bottle is used.

FER-DON INTERVIEWED

Tells Why He Has Met With Such Success in the City of Los Angeles With the Fer-Don Remedies and Why So Many Visit the European Medical Experts at 745 S. Main Street.

In an interesting interview with the Great Fer-Don last night, the man who has made all Los Angeles talk, told many reasons why he and the European Medical Experts were meeting with great success in the Southwest.

"In the first place," said Fer-Don, "when I came here to introduce my remedies I knew I had something different—something better than anything else on the market. I have advertised in this manner for several years and during that time have visited nearly every city of any size in the United States, and have placed these remedies in drug stores everywhere. During the time they have been upon the market I have received more testimonials from those who have been benefited by their use than any other firm in the same line of business has ever enjoyed in all its existence. Of course, there must be a reason for this, and the reason is that the Fer-Don remedies really cure. In advertising in the manner I do I find I can reach more people than in any other way, and by making the demonstrations from the platform upon those who are troubled with deafness and other ailments can prove the efficacy of the preparations as in no other way.

"As for the European Medical Experts who accompany me, I know that they have performed cures by the thousand, many of which would have been impossible to any other physician. For they have brought the best methods of Europe and America to their aid. Many of these methods are unknown to all except themselves. The Syarthgil treatment, for instance, is unknown to any other physician except these. By this treatment it is possible to cure appendicitis (when pus has not formed in the appendix,) hip joint disease and other ailments where operation is usually necessary, but with this treatment no knife is necessary, no blood is drawn and no pain.

"There are also the treatments by which tumors and cancers are removed without the use of the knife. Another treatment by which gall stones are removed without operation.

"All chronic diseases are curable by their methods, and in many cases where others have failed to cure these doctors have found the case to be curable and have brought back health and happiness to those to whom hope had been dead."

The demonstrations performed nightly have shown the thousands who attend the free entertainments at the corner of Spring and Seventh streets that the preparations advertised can easily relieve deafness, aches and pains, stiffness and soreness of the joints. On Saturday evening, for instance, there were a number of cases of deafness which were relieved in less than three minutes of time. Mrs. H. Hewitt, who lives at Arcadia, was one who was greatly benefited. Mrs. Hewitt was quite deaf, and it was a great surprise to her friends when they saw she was able to hear a whisper after one application of this peculiar preparation.

THE LIBERAL OFFER.

This offer made by the European Medical Experts lasts only until February 1st. Until that time all who come will be treated for the cost of the medicine alone; no charge being made for the physician's services except a charge of $1.00 for examination to those who do not hold examination cards.

If You Are a
Man With Disease

DR. TAYLOR
The Leading Specialist

You should learn—and the sooner the better—that what may seem a trivial case very often has most serious and far-reaching effects. The man who tries to be his own doctor is always the patient that later comes to the specialist with the chronic, stubborn, deep-seated case, which is the hardest kind to cure. I cannot hope that all men will accept my statement that the quickest, the safest and the cheapest way is by consulting an expert specialist in Men's Diseases at once, but the intelligent man will readily be convinced of the value of this advice upon investigation.

I Cure Disease

Especially CONTRACTED DISORDERS, CONTAGIOUS BLOOD POISON, PAINFUL SWELLINGS and affections of the BLADDER and PROSTATE. I have my offices fitted with all the necessary equipment and appliances of the most modern design. Acute cases cured in a few days. I recognize all complications immediately, and my patients are cured absolutely and to stay cured.

I ALSO CURE VARICOCELE, HYDROCELE, WEAKNESS, STRICTURE, and REFLEX DISORDERS. To prove my confidence in my ability I make this fair proposition:

Pay When You Are Cured

CONSULTATION FREE—MY HONEST AND CANDID ADVICE COSTS YOU NOTHING. I cheerfully give you the very best opinion, guided by years of successful practice. Men out of town, in trouble, write if you cannot call, as many cases yield readily to proper home treatment and cure.

MY OFFICES ARE OPEN ALL DAY FROM 9 A. M. TO 9 P. M. AND SUNDAYS FROM 10 TO 1.

MEN'S DISEASES

Our Fees Are the Lowest

You Can Pay When Cured

Varicocele

One man in every four has some degree of varicocele; three-fourths of all cases of varicocele have been up against doctors who advertise to cure without an operation, which is an absolute impossibility. We have been curing varicocele in Los Angeles for sixteen years and can show business men here in the city by the score who will be more than glad to tell any man who is afflicted with varicocele all about their experience with our certain and absolute cure by our strictly painless operation. Now, we wish to ask any man who has varicocele if he would like to be cured? If so, will he go to a specialist who will introduce him to any number of first-class leading business men here in the city who have been cured, or will he hand over his money to a would-be specialist, who carries a bombastic advertisement saying he can cure without operation, and who cannot show a single reliable man whom he has cured? Read this over again and think about it.

The Only Cure for Weakness

It is a well-known fact that Dr. Harrison & Co. are the only specialists on the Coast curing all forms of weakness with celerity and certainty. Theory and practice are different propositions. Any scheming pretender, by plagiarizing excerpts from standard authorities, can elaborate a very beautiful and attractive theory. Only the legitimate specialist with a wide experience and expert practical knowledge, gained by many years of hard study and research, can effect the cure. Sixteen years of eminently successful practice, right here in Los Angeles, is our best recommendation.

We will cheerfully pay One Thousand Dollars to any physician or layman who can produce a case of weakness occurring in any man of good habits under the care of us not complicated by any organic disease of the heart, liver or kidneys or by the sequelae of chronic venereal disease, that we cannot completely cured in from four to six weeks, by our new and improved method of local treatment. The local treatment is entirely painless and does not involve the use of "instillations, suppositories," etc. We will effect the cure without prescribing a single drop of medicine and without using a single pill, tablet or granule.

Difficult Breathing

Short breath, fluttering, palpitation, sinking spells are symptoms of a weak heart, struggling to do its work. It must keep the blood in circulation to carry nourishment to make flesh, bone and muscle, and remove the worn-out particles. When it cannot do this, it must have help. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure gives strength to the heart nerves and muscles, and increases the heart action.

"I am glad to say that I am so much improved in health. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure cured me when several doctors failed. I think no other medicine could do for me what Heart Cure has done. My case was bad; had as it could be at times. I had difficulty in getting my breath, my heart beat so fast at times that I thought it impossible to live without relief. The pain was very severe in my left side, and my nerves were all unstrung. I had almost given up all hope of being cured, and I am sure I would not, if I had not taken the Heart Cure. I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. Miles' remedies to all who suffer with heart disease."

Such disorders as Weakness, Varicocele, Hydrocele, Stricture, Contracted Diseases, Contagious Blood Poison and nervous complications therefrom are very common to men. But from long experience I find it holds true that fully half the cases coming to me for treatment suffer not so much from the original malady as from the results of improper medical attention. Family physicians have not the special knowledge of these diseases and cannot take the time to thoroughly study each case. Trying a patent medicine is wasting money and always does harm. Experience with electric belts and such appliances further destroys the sufferer's confidence. The "cheap" from cannot be depended upon.

RIDES TO DEATH.

CAPE OF PATIENT AT THE PATTON HOSPITAL.

Using One End of the Cloth Through the Steel Mesh of the Window, Knots the Other About His Neck and Slops from the Bed.

Special to The Times.

SAN BERNARDINO, Jan. 16.—Eugene Copeland, 38 years old, committed to the Southern California State Hospital at Patton from Riverside, about two years ago, ended his life this morning shortly after 6 o'clock by hanging himself from a window with a sheet. The body was found at 7:30 o'clock by one of the patients, who entered Copeland's room to do the morning work. At 8 o'clock the regular daily round of the wards was made, the guards finding Copeland apparently sound asleep. The attendant having charge of the work in the room, who made the discovery, reported it, but life was extinct. The unfortunate could be seen from the floor on his bed and strung up to the steel mesh of the sheet through the window, knotted the sheet about his neck and then fell from the bed. His feet were only a few inches of the floor, thus due to strangulation. Copeland was in Hemet. He had been afflicted with religious mania, and was confined to his bed.

BACK FROM HART.

Deputy Surveyor M. L. Cook returned this morning from Hart, the new mining camp, near Manvel. He says that the reports being sent out broadcast regarding the richness of the new mining field are not overdrawn. The population numbers 1000. There are a number of tents and houses, and efforts are being made to secure saloon licenses. A store has been located for the town, and has been encountering considerable delay in getting separated sections. The claims to the mines which have been filed and Bullfrog fame are believed that these ore bodies are an extension of the Ne- and also those which have been taken by the Quartette company.

CASE IS DISMISSED.

The preliminary examination of Eva Johnson, today, charged with the murder of Mrs. Eva Johnson of Anaheim, was dismissed the information and discharged the prisoner, Deputy District Attorney W. E. Byrne, Deputy Sheriff Copeland testimony failed to show any criminal agency upon Barbara Johnson's part. Deputy Sheriff Copeland he had injected morphine into the woman. She died last evening, and physicians found an immense dose of morphine injected over the heart. They gave as the cause of death. The Coroner's jury found

SAN BERNARDINO NOTES.

Deeds were taken today in the office of W. Dudsworth in the proceedings pending in Los Angeles, in which Henry G. Dent secures a permanent injunction against the Fontana Development Company, invalidating its claim to 1000 acres of Rialto lands. Deeds from Ollie Watkins land swindlers were taken of E. Harris, M. A. Hebbelmeyer and S. N.

Mrs. Ida Howe arrived here this morning from Rawhide, Nev., which he describes in glowing colors as a great mining camp in the heart of the Southwest. He says that within three years it has acquired a population of 6000 people, three banks, two stage lines, telephone system, and is developing property which shows an unusual amount of high-grade, free-milling ore.

Mrs. Ida Howe, who escaped from Rawhide Colonel Coloni by leaping from the train while a week ago Monday on his way to San Quentin prison for burglary, was arrested in Reno, Nev., today. Johnson broke through a car window and escaped.

A public mass meeting will be held in Mayor Hanford to consider the question of holding a fair for next May was discussed in Judge Oster's courtroom today. The proposed fair was unanimously favored, and Chairman Hanford was authorized to appoint a committee of nine to perfect the necessary arrangements. Besides the usual street-fair features, it is proposed to have a complete mining exhibit of the mineral-producing resources of the county.

The San Diego-California Line Carries Large Quantities of Mesquite Wood to Los Angeles Where It Is Readily Marketed at Good Prices Pending Closing Gap.

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 16.—The newly-completed San Diego-California Railroad, extending from San Diego to Calexico and Mexicali, in Imperial Valley, and eventually to Yuma, finds its first business in the shipment of wood from the Imperial Land and Cattle Company's ranch. Large quantities of mesquite wood have been cut on the company's land for first cargo, which is now being shipped to Los Angeles, where mesquite finds a ready market at good prices.

MINING PROSPECT.

Superintendent of the grading outfit for the Santa Fé and Desmond has been transferred to Ardis, to work on dam construction. It is persistently reported that the Southern Pacific will have a large force of men and teams at work on closing the gap between the present terminus of the Southern Railroad and Yuma. It is reported that the California-Mexico Land and Cattle Company has made overtures to the Santa Fé for inducements to build without further delay, and it is probable that the line will be completed before midsummer, when through trains will be run from this line to Los An-

LAVISH DISPLAY AT SOCIETY EVENT IN RIVERSIDE.

Miss Allis Miller Entertains and Is Presented With Loving Cup—Most Brilliant Affair of Season—Bank Elects Officers—Active Demand for Orange Groves.

RIVERSIDE, Jan. 16.—A notably brilliant society event of the winter was the cotillion given at the Glenwood, last evening, in honor of Miss Allis Miller. The floral decorations were on the most lavish scale. The ceiling of the long reception hall was hidden by a lattice of smilax, dotted with three thousand red carnations. The pillars were garlanded with smilax, and among the soft green shone miniature red and blue incandescent lights. One thousand American beauty roses, as well as asparagus ferns were used in the refectory, where supper was served.

The grand march was led by Miss Miller and Wyclif Taylor. A pretty feature was the May pole dance, participated in by a score of the guests. The favors were bells, silk flags, and corsage bouquets for the ladies and boutonnieres for the men. An incident after the supper was the presentation to Miss Miller of a beautiful loving cup, the speech being made by Leonard Joseph of New York.

Mrs. Eva Howe, Mrs. A. Shinkle, Jr., Mrs. Capen of New York, Mrs. Alice Richardson and Mrs. Lillian P. Frost assisted in receiving.

ORANGE GROVES SOLD.

Two sales of orange property, aggregating $25,000, were made yesterday by the Riverside Realty Company. J. F. Reimer sold a choice ten-acre navel grove to Howard J. Harris for $12,500, and bought another ten-acre grove on Arlington Heights from James Mills and George W. Tackabury for $13,000.

PREACHER HELPS CUPID.

A little romance that had its beginning in St. James Methodist Church, Los Angeles, was culminated in Riverside yesterday, when K. Leroy Hamman claimed as his bride Miss Maud Gockley. Rev. Robert S. Fisher, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Riverside, was formerly pastor of St. James Church, and because of the assistance he had given Dan Cupid in the romance, he was selected to officiate at the wedding. Mr. Hamman was the first member whom Mr. Fisher received into St. James Church in his pastorate there. Taking a particular liking to the young man, he called his attention to the charms of Miss Gockley, one of his interesting young parishioners, and brought about an introduction. It was a case of love at first sight, and when the wedding date was set, both bride and groom agreed that the nuptials should take place in Riverside. Mr. Hamman is cashier of a lumber company in South Pasadena, and he and his bride will make their home there.

QUIETLY WEDDED.

Jesse Oatman, a well-known orange grower, and Mrs. Cora May Gilliland, who were defendants in two somewhat sensational divorce suits in the Superior Court a year ago, were quietly married this evening. Both of the final decrees of divorce were granted by Judge Denamore today. Forthwith the marriage license was secured, and the wedding took place at the home of Rev. Dr. George H. Deere, pastor emeritus of All Souls' Universalist Church.

RIVERSIDE RIPPLES.

Frank A. Miller returned last night from Yosemite Valley, when he went to look over the ground preliminary to the selection of a site for the million-dollar hotel which he is to build there. Mrs. Miller accompanied him, as did A. B. Benton of Los Angeles, the architect of the Glenwood Mission Inn. Mr. Miller reports that there is at present about two inches of snow on the floor of the Yosemite Valley, and about a foot on the higher elevations.

F. H. Stetson, who, in a temporary fit of mental aberration, held up the Santa Fé train at Perris Tuesday, will not be subjected to an examination as to his sanity. His father, who is one of the leading citizens of Hemet, arrived in Riverside this morning and took the young man in charge. He explains that his son is subject to epileptic fits, which at times makes him irresponsible.

At the annual election of the Riverside Young Women's Christian Association the directors chosen for the coming year were: Mrs. W. F. Taylor, Mrs. C. Van Zwalenburg, Mrs. Ed Copley, Mrs. G. Borchgrevink, Mrs. Raymon Cree, Dr. Louise Harvey Clarke, Mrs. Franklin Strunk, Mrs. H. A. Plimpton, Mrs. Sarah J. Ford, Mrs. L. H. Gumin, Mrs. O. L. Moorman, Mrs. J. F. Hanna, Mrs. J. R. Strang and Miss E. F. Adams, reelected; Mrs. James Mills, Mrs. P. T. Carter, Mrs. George N. Reynolds and Mrs. G. Carrothers, new members.

SANTA ANA.

SANTA ANA, Jan. 16.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Farmers' and Merchants' National bank Tuesday night, the directors chosen were: W. A. Huff, J. D. Parsons, Dr. J. R. Medlock, C. The Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association banqueted last night in the association rooms, the wives of the members. Sitting at the banquet were 280 people. John McFadden, president of the association, acted as toastmaster.

The Dragon Confectionery Company has sold its business here to W. D. Baker, formerly proprietor of the Fancy Bakery of Long Beach.

DEATH RING BELL.

AS RAIL SLIPS JUMPS TRACK.

ENGINEER OF LA JOLLA TRAIN DIES BENEATH CAB.

Fireman Frightfully Scalded While Held Down in Wreck and His Injuries May Prove Fatal—War Vessels Sail from San Diego for Magdalena Bay—Bay City Notes.

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 16.—The suburban train which left this city at 1:55 o'clock this afternoon, bound for La Jolla, jumped the track at the corner of Pierce and California streets, and the engine and tender went into the ditch. Engineer Thomas H. Robertson was caught beneath the engine and his life was crushed out, while Thomas Fitzgerald, the fireman, was so badly injured that his life is despaired of.

The cause of the accident has not been definitely ascertained, but it is believed the track had been loosened so that one of the rails slipped out of position. Both Robertson and Fitzgerald reside at La Jolla.

Robertson leaves a widow, son and daughter. Fitzgerald is married and has a wife and two sons. The latter was frightfully scalded by hot steam while held down in the wreck.

WAR VESSELS SAIL.

The cruiser Charleston, flagship of Admiral Swinburne, accompanied, by the torpedo-boat destroyers Preble and Perry, sailed today for Magdalena Bay. Admiral Swinburne states that the Charleston will be at Magdalena Bay for seven weeks, indulging in target practice as soon as the vessels of Admiral Dayton's and Admiral Sebree's fleets are out of the way. Admiral Dayton is expected to start north about the end of the month for Mare Island and at the same time Sebree's pathfinders will sail from the target grounds for this port. The cruisers Milwaukee and St. Louis, now at Mare Island and attached to Admiral Swinburne's command, are expected to join him at Magdalena.

The rumor that Admiral Swinburne is to be transferred to the "big four" squadron before he retires in the summer of 1909 is confirmed.

BUTCHERS ARRESTED.

H. P. Burns, Charles H. Schmidt, Dennis J. Gibbs, William H. Elliott, and William Burkhardt, all prominent retail butchers of this city, are under arrest, charged with selling adulterated meats. The complaints are sworn to by Dr. F. H. Mead, City Health Officer. The arrests are the result of investigations made at all the butcher shops. The inspection of twelve other shops failed to show presence of chemical preservatives.

JOHNSON'S SURPRISE.

Peter Johnson, who has become famous through his management of the "Silver Moon" saloon, in the tenderloin district, sprang a surprise after the jury had been selected in the city Police Court yesterday, by proving that he was not the owner of the place when the raid was made by the police, and he was arrested on the charge of selling liquor without a license. Peter Brunoit, the admitted proprietor, was then arrested and in view of the fact that he has recently forfeited $200 bail on the charge of being a bartender at the joint, sentence was suspended.

MISER'S BIG ESTATE.

The appraisers, F. S. Banks, George McCain and T. W. Hickey, have placed the value of the Edward McGurck estate at $244,534, of which $136,500 is real estate. McGurck lived a miserly life and but little was known concerning him. In his will, drawn by himself, he bequeaths his property to his brothers and sisters, but does not name any of them, and to date none of them has been heard from, although many letters of inquiry have been received from alleged more distant relatives.

FINANCIAL SKY CLEARS.

An indication of the improvement in the local financial conditions is found in the fact that one of the bank and trust companies has announced that hereafter notice of the withdrawal of deposits will not be required. The bank will also allow reasonable checking facilities against interest-bearing accounts.

ODD FELLOWS DINE.

The officers of the several Odd Fellow lodges of the city were jointly installed yesterday afternoon and evening at the new Elks' Hall. The officers of the Encampment and the Canton were installed by Col. H. S. Brown of Los Angeles. At the banquet in the evening the speakers included F. E. Pierce, grand patriarch of the Grand Encampment and Mrs. Ella Van Court, grand president of the Rebekah assembly.

SPREAD ORANGES IN THE VALLEY.

Considerable Areas to Be Set to Fruit Which Is Expected to Supply Earliest Sent Out from Southern California—Two Cantaloupe Associations to Handle the Crop.

IMPERIAL, Jan. 15.—Developments of the past few weeks indicate that the Imperial Valley is soon to become an important citrus-fruit section, one which, according of calculation, will supply the markets with the earliest oranges shipped from Southern California. The success achieved in orange raising on a limited scale at various points in the valley has interested practical orange growers from Riverside county, and within the next few months there will be a large number of orange trees set out, especially in the immediate vicinity of Imperial.

A. A. Cox of Colton has purchased a quarter section just outside the town of Imperial, on which he will plant oranges, and H. W. Brimmer, also of Colton, has purchased of ex-Senator Blair a quarter section, part of which lies within the townsite. He will set the entire property to oranges and grapes. Both purchasers are experienced growers of citrus fruits, and are certain that a great future awaits Imperial Valley as an orange-producing center. B. A. Bemis and the Record Bros. of Riverside, are planning to plant a tract to oranges northeast of Calexico. G. A. Parkys will set out many orange trees on his large ranch near Holtville; extensive planting is to take place in the vicinity of Brawley, and there will be numerous small tracts set within the next few months.

IMPERIAL VALLEY NOTES.

Two cantaloupe associations will handle the melon crop at Imperial the coming season. Each will erect a packing-house here.

RHEUMATISM

I want every chronic rheumatic to throw away all medicines, all liniments, all plasters, and give MUNYON'S 8X RHEUMATISM CURE a trial. No matter what your doctor may say, no matter how prejudiced you may be against all advertised remedies, go at once to your druggist and get a bottle of the 8X RHEUMATISM CURE. There are 180 doses in a bottle, and as one lady says, "Every tablet is worth more than a diamond of the same size." A few doses will take away all aches and pains, and a cure generally follows before one bottle is used.

FER-DON INTERVIEWED

Tells Why He Has Met With Such Success in the City of Los Angeles With the Fer-Don Remedies and Why So Many Visit the European Medical Experts at 745 S. Main Street.

In an interesting interview with the Great Fer-Don last night, the man who has made all Los Angeles talk, told many reasons why he and the European Medical Experts were meeting with great success in the Southwest.

"In the first place," said Fer-Don, "when I came here to introduce my remedies I knew I had something different—something better than anything else on the market. I have advertised in this manner for several years and during that time have visited nearly every city of any size in the United States, and have placed these remedies in drug stores everywhere. During the time they have been upon the market I have received more testimonials from those who have been benefited by their use than any other firm in the same line of business has ever enjoyed in all its existence. Of course, there must be a reason for this, and the reason is that the Fer-Don remedies really cure. In advertising in the manner I do I find I can reach more people than in any other way, and by making the demonstrations from the platform upon those who are troubled with deafness and other ailments can prove the efficacy of the preparations as in no other way.

"As for the European Medical Experts who accompany me, I know that they have performed cures by the thousand, many of which would have been impossible to any other physician. For they have brought the best methods of Europe and America to their aid. Many of these methods are unknown to all except themselves. The Syarthgil treatment, for instance, is unknown to any other physician except these. By this treatment it is possible to cure appendicitis (when pus has not formed in the appendix,) hip joint disease and other ailments where operation is usually necessary, but with this treatment no knife is necessary, no blood is drawn and no pain.

"There are also the treatments by which tumors and cancers are removed without the use of the knife. Another treatment by which gall stones are removed without operation.

"All chronic diseases are curable by their methods, and in many cases where others have failed to cure these doctors have found the case to be curable and have brought back health and happiness to those to whom hope had been dead."

The demonstrations performed nightly have shown the thousands who attend the free entertainments at the corner of Spring and Seventh streets that the preparations advertised can easily relieve deafness, aches and pains, stiffness and soreness of the joints. On Saturday evening, for instance, there were a number of cases of deafness which were relieved in less than three minutes of time. Mrs. H. Hewitt, who lives at Arcadia, was one who was greatly benefited. Mrs. Hewitt was quite deaf, and it was a great surprise to her friends when they saw she was able to hear a whisper after one application of this peculiar preparation.

THE LIBERAL OFFER.

This offer made by the European Medical Experts lasts only until February 1st. Until that time all who come will be treated for the cost of the medicine alone; no charge being made for the physician's services except a charge of $1.00 for examination to those who do not hold examination cards.

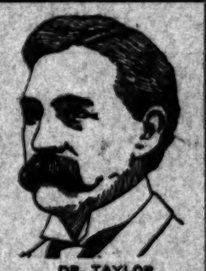
If You Are a
Man With Disease



DR. TAYLOR
The Leading Specialist

You should learn—and the sooner the better—that what may seem a trivial case very often has most serious and far-reaching effects. The man who tries to be his own doctor is always the patient that later comes to the specialist with the chronic, stubborn, deep-seated case, which is the hardest kind to cure. I cannot hope that all men will accept my statement that the quickest, the safest and the cheapest way is by consulting an expert specialist in Men's Diseases at once, but the intelligent man will readily be convinced of the value of this advice upon investigation.

I Cure Disease

Especially CONTRACTED DISORDERS, CONTAGIOUS BLOOD POISON, PAINFUL SWELLINGS and Affections of the BLADDER and PROSTATE. I have my offices fitted with all the necessary equipment and appliances of the most modern design. Acute cases cured in a few days. I recognize all complications immediately, and my patients are cured absolutely and to stay cured.

I ALSO CURE VARICOCELE, HYDROCELE, WEAKNESS, STRICTURE, and REFLEX DISORDERS. To prove my confidence in my ability I make this fair proposition:

Pay When You Are Cured

CONSULTATION FREE—MY HONEST AND CANDID ADVICE COSTS YOU NOTHING. I cheerfully give you the very best opinion, guided by years of successful practice. Men out of town, in trouble, write if you cannot call, as many cases yield readily to proper home treatment and cure.

MY OFFICES ARE OPEN ALL DAY FROM 9 A. M. TO 9 P. M. AND SUNDAYS FROM 10 TO 1.

MEN'S DISEASES

Varicocele

One man in every four has some degree of varicocele; three-fourths of all cases of varicocele have been up against doctors who advertise to cure without an operation, which is an absolute impossibility. We have been curing varicocele in Los Angeles for sixteen years and can show business men here in the city by the score who will be more than glad to tell any man who is afflicted with varicocele all about their experience with our certain and absolute cure by our strictly painless operation. Now, we wish to ask any man who has varicocele if he would like to be cured? If so, will he go to a specialist who will introduce him to any number of first-class leading business men here in the city who have been cured, or will he hand over his money to a would-be specialist, who carries a bombastic advertisement saying he can cure without operation, and who cannot show a single reliable man whom he has cured? Read this over again and think about it.

The Only Cure for Weakness

It is a well-known fact that Dr. Harrison & Co. are the only specialists on the Coast curing all forms of weakness with celerity and certainty. Theory and practice are different propositions. Any scheming pretender, by plagiarizing excerpts from standard authorities, can elaborate a very beautiful and attractive theory. Only the legitimate specialist with a wide experience and expert practical knowledge, gained by many years of hard study and research, can effect the cure. Sixteen years of eminently successful practice, right here in Los Angeles, is our best recommendation.

We will cheerfully pay One Thousand Dollars to any physician or layman who can produce a case of weakness occurring in any man of good habits under the age of 65, not complicated by any organic disease of the heart, liver or kidneys or by the sequelae of chronic venereal disease, that we cannot completely cured in from four to six weeks, by our new and improved method of local treatment. The local treatment is entirely painless and does not involve the use of "instillations, suppositories," etc. We will effect the cure without prescribing a single drop of medicine and without using a single pill, tablet or granule.

Difficult Breathing

Short breath, fluttering, palpitation, sinking spells are symptoms of a weak heart, struggling to do its work. It must keep the blood in circulation to carry nourishment to make flesh, bone and muscle, and remove the worn-out particles. When it cannot do this, it must have help. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure gives strength to the heart nerves and muscles, and increases the heart action.

"I am glad to say that I am so much improved in health. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure cured me when several doctors failed. I think no other medicine could do for me what Heart Cure has done. My case was bad; had so it could be at times. I had difficulty in getting my breath, my heart beat so fast at times that I thought it impossible to live without relief. The pain was very severe in my left side, and my nerves was all unstrung. I had almost given up all hope of being cured, and I am sure I would not, if I had not taken the Heart Cure. I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. Miles' remedies to all who suffer with heart disease."

Rash disorders as Weakness, Varicocele, Hydrocele, Stricture, Contracted Diseases, Contagious Blood Poison and nervous complications therefrom are very common to men. But from long experience I find it holds true that fully half the cases coming to me for treatment suffer not so much from the original malady as from the result of improper medical attention. Family physicians have not the special knowledge of these diseases and cannot take the time to thoroughly study each case. Trying patent medicines is another cause of effects dose harm. Experience with electric belts and such appliances further destroys the sufferer's confidence. The specialist "cheap" fees cannot be depended upon.

Come to me at once. It will cost you nothing to have a private, confidential talk with me about your troubles.

THE MARKETS.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

Considerable interest is shown in the arrivals of fruit and vegetables from Cuba, Florida and Mexico. Agents for Mexican tomatoes already are preparing their contracts for the year and first shipments are expected to arrive within three weeks. They will bring from $2 to $4 a box of about 40 pounds. Florida already has sent considerable grapefruit, nearly all stock cleaned of the market, they are selling well. Cubas pineapples have been on sale for a week and are moving rapidly at $4.50 a crate. They are more acceptable than the Hawaiian pines, but have an excellent flavor. Bananas from the West Indies are regular arrivals and the price is as low now as it has been for months, declined to 4½ cents a pound. The first loquats of the year were on sale yesterday morning. They are fine, large fruit and were shipped from Orange county.

Eggs were again boosted so that the present quotation reads 30 to 35 cents a dozen for fresh ranch candied. Case-counts were very firm. In contrast to these prices and the high figures on storage stock, in which there has been a heavy drop. The best varieties are now as low as 25 cents a dozen in cartons and the necessity of shipping them back East. Dealers declare that it will be impossible to have the Interstate Commerce Commission rates on carload lots of eggs, which, it was said were to be shipped back. They have been held for nearly a year, and it will not be feasible now advisable to reship them. The selling of them is expected to be sustained, but it will not be as large as the freight charges. Several of the large handlers of storage eggs express no fear as to the keeping qualities of the stock. Local sales are moving rapidly and the receipts continue above the 30-case mark a day. Yesterday 119 cases were reported in and five cases were sold on change.

There has been little activity in butter in the last few days of the month. It continues to move regularly. The prices on creamery extras is firm at present figures, and there is little indication of a further decline in the immediate future. Receipts of butter fell off during 3046 pounds yesterday. There were some good offerings of cooking butter and ladies, and demand for these grades is light at present.

Cheese receipts have been lower and yesterday amounted to 1332 pounds of fresh full cream. The supply remains sufficient to fill inquiries. Eastern cheese is not going as rapidly as expected, but dealers hope for a turn in the market shortly.

A falling-off in potato receipts was noted yesterday. Only 256 sacks were reported in. Offerings, nevertheless, were quite heavy and generally of very variable quality. Both fancy and choice, were put up in carload quantities at lower prices, while Oregons also were easier. Prices are weak, but not to the extent of a material change.

Onion receipts were not reported and the Australian Browns from the North were advanced to $1.75 a hundred. This is the highest point, unless some boom started for many months, and dealers think that with the set demand there will be still further advance.

Green receipts were about four cars. Offerings were confined entirely to plums, on which there were no bids. The sweet potato outlook continues steady. Northern sweets were advanced to $1.50 a hundred this week. In addition to the yellow potatoes a few whites were also offered but not taken.

Vegetables were all plentiful, particularly carrots, radishes and turnips. These named are selling, with all bunch vegetables, at 20 cents per dozen. Leeks are scarce, while there is little demand for any of the roots. Celery, cauliflower, spinach and cauliflower are moving well.

Poultry is enjoying an active demand, particularly wild fowl. Consignments of chickens continued from the north. Fish are plentiful in all sizes, and nearly all varieties. There are few crabs to be had while lobsters are fairly well represented.

GENERAL MARKETS

New York Cotton Market.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO FRED DORR.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Cotton made a further advance today as a result of the continuance of the speculative movement, noted yesterday, under the leadership of Sully. The fact that the old bull leader had again come into the market was telegraphed broadcast last night and a flood of overnight buying orders caused a strong and excited opening this morning. Trading was active, with a bright metropolitan buying predominating, and by the middle of the afternoon prices had made a maximum advance of 30 to 35 points over last night's closing. Spot markets are reported firm, with advances of 1-8 to 1-4. Liverpool was rather sluggish and has not followed the strength here. Bulls are very confident and are predicting much higher prices. The short interest is practically out of the market, and it remains to be seen whether spinners will be stampeded into buying.

The weather was fair and warmer in the South Atlantic States today.

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.
January	11.13	11.45	11.39	11.44
May	11.50	11.67	11.39	11.63

LOS ANGELES STOCK EXCHANGE.

RISES SHARPLY UNDER PRESSURE.

ADVANCE IN ASSOCIATED OIL SURPRISES BROKERS.

More Than a Suspicion That Manipulators Are Getting Ready to Unload—Active Bidding for Union Oil, but no Sales Made on the Exchange Floor.

The local stock market, especially for the oil stocks, received another surprise yesterday by the action of Associated Oil. The stock sold up to 23.00 cash, and closed on a sale at 22.50, after forty shares were sold. The stock was exceptionally strong at 22.00@22.75; up three points on the bid since the close Wednesday. There were half a dozen brokers after the stock, and it advanced rapidly from the opening at 22.50. One broker was evidently short of the stock on an option, and had to cover, and others were working under orders from outside manipulators. Fred Adams was at the Exchange yesterday and stated that he was still buying the stock. Appearances seem to indicate that Adams and those associated with him are bulling the market with the hope of forcing the stock up as far as conditions will permit and then unloading a big block on the public, who will by that time have been educated to the idea that the stock will continue to go skyward to its former high levels. The stock has been as high as 75.00, although not within the last year or a half. It has been the custom of Adams and Cantelo to work this sort of a game, selling when it was high and buying back at comparatively low levels.

Union Oil was another feature of yesterday's call. While no sales were made, the stock closed with active bidding at 191.00@194.00, up one point since Wednesday, and level with the high-selling record of the previous day. One man is said to have bought a block around 194.00, after the call Wednesday, when the stock was selling around 191.00, and possibly could have been bought at 192.50 or better.

Reed Crude Oil was handled to the extent of 1000 shares at 12¼, on a buyer-sixty contract, and closed at 11¼ bid, with none offered. There was a strong tone to the market for Continental Oil, which closed at 17 bid. Columbia held firmly at 80½ bid, and none offered. Central was up slightly, due to declaration of the dividend by the board of directors. This is due January 25, and amounts to 1½ cents a share. The stock was offered at 35. Fullerton Consolidated was bid for at 3¾, closing without an offering. Fullerton Oil was wanted at 62, or 10 points. A bid of 1.22 was made for Mexican Petroleum, with no stock in the market.

The demand for some of the industrials was strong. Pacific Lighting for Edison Electric preferred stock mounted up to 72.75, an advance of ¾ of a point, but none was sold, although offerings were made at 74.00. Home preferred was firm, and changed without a sale at 51.87½@52.12½. This was eight points higher than on Wednesday. An order of to buy 75 shares, which was on the floor Wednesday, is said to have been executed off board in the afternoon, at around 52.00, or slightly higher.

Again the lack of attention to the bond call was manifested during yesterday's session. While there are a few more quotations on the high-grade investment bonds than on the previous day, the list looks woefully thin, and serves to indicate an entire abstraction in the local bond market. Brokers with this list as a specialty state that a lively trading is going on on the outside. There was a clean cleanup on Telephone Scrip preferred, with the close being at 77@77½, indicating a demand for the bonds. Union Transportation bonds also were wanted, two bidders being in the market. The offering was at 81½@84. Associated Oil bonds were wanted at 75, and offered at 85.

Little interest was shown for the bank stocks, only three bids being made. Broadway Bank and Trust was wanted at 155.00, closing without an offering. Equitable Savings Bank closed with a bid at 200.00, and none offered, and Southern Trust stock was bid for at 60.00.

Some trades was carried on during the short mining call. Furnace Creek Copper sold at 27½ cash, only 100 shares changing hands. The close was 27½@28. Clark Copper sold to the extent of 2000 shares at 7½@7¾, and closed at 7¾@8. Johnnie Consolidated was handled at 13¾ cash, at 13¾ buyer thirty, and at 14¾@14¾, buyer sixty, only 5000 shares being thus named, shares of Searchlight Western were sold. The close was at 13¾@13¾. Twenty sold at 1¼@1¾ on buyer-sixty contracts.

NO CHANGES MADE.

No changes were made in the personnel of the board of directors or officers at the annual meetings of the Los Angeles Trust Company and the Metropolitan Bank and Trust Company. Both concerns are owned by the First National Bank, in the interests of the stockholders of that institution.

REMOVES RESTRICTION.

The Los Angeles Clearinghouse Committee has taken the embargo off the renting of safe deposit boxes and these boxes may now be rented by any one. During the financial trouble the clearinghouse committee placed a restriction on the rental of boxes to people who wished to use them for hoarding gold and currency. As the period of stress has long since passed the restriction has been raised.

PAYS QUARTERLY DIVIDEND.

Crunden's clerk was Mr. Jack Vincent and no one else. The son of Sir John had gone over to the enemy. It was a strange transfer of allegiance, a wonderful voluntary fall from the top of the social ladder to its lowest rung; one day, the leader of fashion, lord and prince among splendid loafers, and the next a humble worker, paid servant of a common workingman. He lived in a workman's cottage, as lodger of Mrs. Gates, close to Crunden's yard. You could see him in the yard any morning, with an invoice in his hand, superintending and checking the delivery of materials; or again at evening in the small office just outside the archway, busy with time sheets while bricklayers, carpenters, etc., came in and out through the open door. And all day long you might see him hurrying here and there—to King's Cottage, to the railway to watch trucks unloaded, down to the brickfields by the river, back again to the estate to count the piled bricks or measure up the lengths of drain pipes—in a word, working at one thing or another. It was said that he went on all errands for Crunden, cleaned the knives and boots at King's Cottage, and, in return for these degrading services, was allowed perhaps ten shillings a week, and the run of his teeth in the kitchen with Mrs. Price.

But here, as usual, gossip was inexact. Mr. Jack was called upon to perform no menial domestic offices; he was receiving a weekly wage of thirty-five shillings; he took his meals—dinner and tea—with the family, and was moreover sometimes formally invited to supper.

When, keeping the grudgingly-given appointment, he had repeated his application for work, old Crunden manifested the strongest disinclination to comply with the request, made many excuses, was obviously much embarrassed.

"Look here, sir. I'd rather not. . . . As to that loan you mentioned—don't bother about it. There's no hurry. Take any time you like."

"But I do bother about it," said Jack. "I want to pay you—and I will, if you'll take me on. I promise you won't regret it. Give me work to do—and I'll do it, whatever it is. I promise I'll be useful."

"Don't press me, sir. I tell you frank, I'd rather not."

"Because you don't believe in me," said Jack eagerly, and pressing more than ever. "You think I'm an idle fool—but I'll show you're wrong if you'll give me a chance;" and again Jack used the masonic form of address, "Brother Crunden, give me a chance."

Brother Crunden, extremely embarrassed, said he would think it over, and Brother Vincent might call again. He discussed the extraordinary request first with Mr. Dowling, and then with Lizzie.

"He says he can make himself useful. How the dickens could he be useful?"

"Useful!" cried Mr. Dowling, with enthusiasm. "He'll be worth his weight in gold. Give him anything he asks, but get hold of him. Don't you see—having him on our side—merely to exhibit him, let people know he's with us—will be worth any money. He's the very man to help us—to act as go-between, smooth things over, and cure all the soreness against us."

In this notion, as events proved, Mr. Dowling was far too hopeful. But at the time he was confident that if Mr. Vincent publicly joined hands with them, their present disfavor with the community would soon blow over.

Then, after a day or two, Crunden spoke about the matter to his daughter. Lizzie's thought now was only for her father. He had embarked on a vast and dangerous enterprise; his whole fortune was at stake; toil and anxiety lay before him. When she heard his unfortunate outbreak at the meeting, guilt and remorse possessed her. More bitterly than hitherto she hated herself for the childish folly that had been the first cause of all subsequent action. The folly had faded, been washed away with tears, burnt out by hotly repentant thoughts—all of it, she believed, was gone from her; but its wide-reaching consequences remained. If she had not stung her father into anger against the Hill, he would never have planned its destruction. She was sure of this, although he told her always that she was in no manner connected with the reasons that had moved him.

"Nonsense, Liz. I never thought of all that again. It was over and done with—something we both meant to forget. No, this scheme was in my mind from the moment Mr. Dowling put it before me. Then, while you were in Cornwall, I went into it, and began to see my way clear. If I kept it a secret from you, it was only because I knew you'd be against it. But nothing could have shaken me. You remember what I told you—that perhaps I should need all your help. Well, my mind was almost made up then."

"I shall need," said Crunden, "all the help I can get from you, and others. It's a big thing—a very big thing I'm in for. But it's not too big—don't let any one persuade you that it's more than I can carry through."

"Mr. Dowling, he says he'll be worth his pay—and of course there's no doubt of Sir John's upset—and Mr. Vincent he has made his appeal to me very strong. Well, he's made it on reasons that lie between him and me—that are not business—and that I don't think he should have brought into it. But now, my dear, give me a true answer. Will it make any difference to you?"

Lizzie said firmly that it could not make the smallest difference to her.

"Quite sure? Of course, you won't have to take any notice of him. I'm getting rid of Stevens out of the yard end of week, and hope to have his mess and filth cleaned away and the yard ready to open by end of next week; and it's at the yard I shall mostly keep Mr. Vincent. But I won't do it—unless you can say honestly that I shan't be doing wrong."

And Lizzie, only thinking of what was good for her father, said he would do right, not wrong, in adopting Mr. Dowling's advice and employing Mr. Vincent.

"I've thought it over, sir," said Crunden to Jack, when he presented himself again, "I've thought it over and the answer is yes."

Mr. Jack's sleek face shone with excitement and pleasure. But the wages—thirty-five bob—were too much.

"No, sir," said Crunden. "That's what you ought to get—if you're any value at all—and it's what I should give to any one else."

"Thank you, sir."

From the moment that Jack was engaged he called his employer sir; and now it was curious to hear each saying sir to the other.

"I would like," said old Crunden, "to mention, sir, that I am sorry to hear of this upset of Sir John's affairs."

"I never expected such a thing. I had no idea of it, sir," Mr. Crunden continued with visible reluctance. "In the remarks I let fall at the meeting, sir—well, as to my opinion of the town and the hill—which I gave frank for once—there's not a word I'd wish to draw back. But in anything I said which might seem disrespectful or short to Sir John—well, if so, I wouldn't have said it, if I had guessed that Sir John was a gentleman down on his luck, as one may term it."

"Oh, that's all right, sir. If you couldn't say yes, it didn't much matter how you said no. And you said nothing disrespectful to my father that I heard—or I shouldn't be here now, sir."

"Well answered, sir. No, I meant no disrespect to Sir John—only meant to say no plain and firm. . . . How did it come about, sir—the upset?"

"Well," said Jack, smiling, "Sir John tells me he has been muddling things for a long time—and, as far as I can make out, that hits the right nail on the head."

"Ah! You see, sir, a gentleman like your father soon gets adrift in financial operations. It's a special business training, sir, straight up from the bottom; and gentlemen high placed from their birth can't be expected to master it sufficient to protect themselves. When it comes to money questions, they're bound to be outmaneuvered — if not tricked and cheated half the time. . . . But I hope, sir," said Crunden, with genuine sympathy, "that the upset is not as bad as people make out."

"Well, sir—my governor's fairly in the cart. But, no, it's not really so bad. They'll do very well—my mother has money of her own. Look here, sir, it's just this: I think my father and mother will have enough for themselves, but I don't think they've enough to keep a grown-up son in idleness."

"Well answered, sir," said old Crunden again. "But Sir John and her ladyship, sir—will they give their consent to your turning to down here—in the place where you are so well known?"

"Oh, yes," said Jack, cheerfully. "That is—I haven't asked their consent yet. But if they won't give it—I shall have to do without it."

Then Jack Vincent, highly elated by his success in obtaining the engagement, hurried away to face and bear down parental opposition. He was full of energy, excitement and enthusiasm; in the midst of gloom and disaster, he was like a happy, light-hearted child who had discovered a new amusement. It was as if after the house has fallen, a little boy is seen playing a game and enjoying himself about the ruins, even while the dust and noise are still in the air.

Sir John Vincent declared that his son's plans for the future were outrageous and absurd. He could never countenance them. Jack must really abandon them at once.

"I tell you, Jack, it's only a question of time. Give me time, and I'll pull things through, even now. Meantime our home, however humble, is your home. You shan't want for comfort—and for pocket money."

But Jack said that henceforth any money that might lie in his pockets must be earned by himself.

"Don't do it, Jack. It will be so dashed humiliating to me. As a pal—you'll be making me so confoundly uncomfortable. With that hedgehog of a fellow, too! Oh, it really would be infernal."

Jack, in the most friendly, genial way, explained that the hour had come when he must think and act for himself. He very much regretted that he could not now be guided by his father's advice. He saw nothing derogatory in honest labor.

Lady Vincent, for her part, regarded Jack and his ideas with the greatest admiration. She shed tears of pride and love when she listened to his noble arguments. In principle, she agreed with every word he said. Nothing could be grander or finer than work, yes, real work. "But not here, Jack. Anywhere else, but not here. And, my dearest boy, not that sort of work—and, Jack, above all, not with that dreadful man. It would be too distressing to your father."

But if Jack cared to go up to London and take some small post under government, or be private secretary to some rising politician, then Lady Vincent would be the happiest of mothers. She and Sir John could well provide ample funds for an indefinite period while Jack was looking about him, and seeking an avenue likely to lead to ultimate greatness.

"No," said Jack, with terrible determination. "I'm not going to sponge on you any longer. Besides, I know what it would mean—it would all end in talk. I should never start work at all."

He would take nothing from them—not a penny. He would be self-supporting; now, this minute, and ever after. For his immediate needs he had already, as he said, begun to raise the wind. He had summoned from Water Lane that well-known citizen Mr. Gregory, the second-hand clothes dealer, and was selling the superfluities of his wardrobe. Some other personal property—his old gun, a service revolver, sword, etc., and some small trinkets, such as tie pins and sleeve links—he could also "put up the spout" if necessary.

Lady Vincent, however, continued to worry herself.

"Jack, I shall never reconcile myself to it. I don't fret about your father's misfortune. I don't mind our losing all our money, but if we are to lose you, I shall never get over it."

"You won't lose me," said Jack, cheerfully. "I'll often come to dinner—if you and the governor will ask me. I don't intend to pop my dress suits, you know," and as he took his mother's hand, he in his turn became the petitioner. "Mother, dear, don't think me unkind—or selfishly obstinate. But you know how often you've said it—to rouse myself. Do you remember what I told you"—the whisper in the wind—how we all had heard it; but I shouldn't hear it again! Well, I heard it directly—that afternoon. Not a whisper; a shout—a trumpet call—some one with a megaphone bellowing into my ear: 'John Vincent. Wake. Put on your boots.' . . . Don't try to balk me now, mother. It's my last chance—my very last chance."

Then, in the most undignified fashion—with Mr. Gregory, etc.—Jack raised the wind; went about the town paying little debts—Mr. Rudd, the tobacconist; Mr. Drake of the White Hart, etc.; fetched a man with a hand cart from the station to remove his luggage; and firmly established himself in Mrs. Gates's cottage hard by Mr. Crunden's yard. Of the cash obtained from the sale of costumes and ornaments, etc., there was a sufficient residuum to enable him to hand Mr. Crunden two pounds on account of the fifty pounds loan. The balance of the debt he hoped, if he kept his situation, to work off without avoidable delay.

WOMEN SHOW CURIOSITY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—The approaching marriage of Miss Gladys Vanderbilt and Count Szechenyi is attracting so much attention that scores of women are constantly congregated about the Vanderbilt home, corner of Fifth avenue and West Fifty-seventh street, hoping for a chance to get a look at the bride and her titled fiancé.

The women stroll back and forth in front of the house, and eye the occupants of the scores of carriages which are constantly stopping at the door, while footmen carry packages and cards to the house.

Yesterday, when Miss Vanderbilt and the Count, accompanied by his brother and sister-in-law, emerged from the house for the purpose of taking a drive, the crowd became so large that it was with difficulty that the carriage could make its way through.
